Chapter 1901: Sweeping Over Demons (III)

When Zhang Tie broke through the demon prince's body and crumbled its heart, the demon prince's body directly turned into a bloody mist and dispersed facing the terrifying, powerful strength...

There was neither fierce combat nor heavy collisions between battle qis.

The powerful demon prince had already become a dispersing bloody mist in the sky beside Zhang Tie only after a few seconds' combats.

At this moment, many human and demon powers felt their hearts being clenched by an icy hand as the entire battlefield was in suffocating silence.

'What secret method and battle skill could be so powerful?'

Only two demon emperors and two immortal emperors had seen clearly the terrifying power in Zhang Tie simple movements—push and twist. However, they couldn't understand the secret of the manipulation and application of strength as they were too far away. Zhang Tie's simple movements were close to the most original yet useful state. This battle skill definitely ranked first among all the battle skills in close combat across Motian Realm. Even though those immortal emperors or demon emperors couldn't imitate it. It was actually exclusive to Zhang Tie.

"Long Live Your Majesty Dragon Emperor..."

"Long Live Your Majesty Dragon Emperor..."

"Long Live Your Majesty Dragon Emperor..."

After a temporary silence, over 100,000 human immortal generals suddenly uttered earthshaking exclamations which cleared the gloomy mood of all the human immortal generals at once.

'That's cool! That's too cool!'

'He's powerful! He's too powerful!'

Watching Zhang Tie in black who stayed calm after killing the demon prince on the battlefield, the human army was in uproars at a stroke. Out of excitement, all the human immortal generals exclaimed as their faces turned red.

Such a person really lived up to the name of Dragon Emperor.

By contrast, the demon army felt breathless like being pressed by a piece of iron plate as a whole as most of the demon generals were watching Zhang Tie with only fear from deep within their hearts.

Even the demon prince was killed by Dragon Emperor in only one round, not to mention other demon generals.

Those demon generals then fixated onto Versatile Demon Emperor and Black Mountain Demon Emperor who were sitting ahead of the demon army.

At this moment, Versatile Demon Emperor's and Black Mountain Demon Emperor's faces froze as they had already crumbed the handrails of their seats.

Zhang Tie was not an immortal emperor yet; however, he was already able to kill the demon prince easily. When the core of Mountain Ruins was going to open, as long as Zhang Tie drank Nine Heavens Immortal Spring inside there and promoted to an immortal emperor, the entire Motian Realm would face its doomsday. By then, nobody could imagine how powerful was Zhang Tie who mastered Infinite King Roc Sutra. Even if all the demon emperors joined hands with each other, they still couldn't defeat Zhang Tie.

They had to kill Zhang Tie today. If they missed this opportunity, demons might face a catastrophe even extermination.

However, who else among supreme-level demon generals could kill Zhang Tie at this moment.

Only demon emperors or a large battle formation of demon generals could kill Zhang Tie on the premise that the latter didn't escape away and Star Emperor and Force Emperor didn't join the battle. Versatile Demon Emperor and Black Mountain Demon Emperor were hundreds of miles away from Zhang Tie. Given Zhang Tie's speed when he arrived at Deities Plain, even if the two demon emperors wanted to raid him, they might not be able to catch up with him; unless... they used that item...

That item was previously prepared by Versatile Demon Emperor and Black Mountain Demon Emperor for Force Emperor or Star Emperor. Superficially, demons and humans were scrambling for the territory in Nine Heavens Big Domain; actually, it was just a trick for demons. Demons had a bigger target in Nine Heavens Big Domain.

They had already confirmed that the Dragon Emperor was dead. Besides Emperor NvWa, only Force Emperor and Star Emperor were on the back of humans. If demons could kill another human immortal emperor in Nine Heavens Big Domain, humans would be in a totally inferior situation in the following scramble for the resources in the core of Mountain Ruins.

It was the fundamental reason for demons to mobilize so many demon generals here. As long as they could kill one human immortal emperor, they would completely defeat humans in Motian Realm and occupy all the territories of humans.

'It seems that we only have one solution...'

Versatile Demon Emperor exchanged a glance with Black Mountain Demon Emperor. Black Mountain Demon Emperor then slightly nodded. The two demon emperors had seen the same resolution from the other's eyes. If they didn't kill Zhang Tie today, demons in Motian Realm would always be flurried. They had to prevent Zhang Tie from promoting to an immortal emperor. It was worthwhile for them to apply this item to Zhang Tie even though it shattered their original plan...

... n(0vELb1n

"Your Majesty Dragon Emperor has killed the demon prince and aroused the morality of humans greatly. Through negotiation, Star Emperor and I have agreed to help you get the Nine Heavens Immortal Spring when the core of Mountain Ruins was opened. Your Majesty Dragon Emperor, please come back. Demons couldn't dispatch any supreme-level immortal general to fight us anymore..." Force Emperor asked Zhang Tie to come back in case of an accident as he had already realized that the two demon emperor was determined to kill Zhang Tie.

“Thanks, Your Majesty Force Emperor, but I’ve not solved my things yet. The old scores between Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace and demons have not been solved yet!” After declining Force Emperor’s good intention, Zhang Tie watched the silent army of demons and said, “Where’s Versatile Demon Emperor? You’ve trapped me and intended to kill me a few times. When I was in the Infinite Immortal Prison, you raided Dragon Emperor City three times and killed an elder of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace; besides, you instigated turmoils among humans and wanted to destroy Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Why do you hide among the demons and dare not come out to see me?”

‘What? Zhang Tie is challenging a demon emperor?’

Over 100,000 human immortal generals were watching Zhang Tie. Those who were cheering up for Zhang Tie just now instantly felt that Zhang Tie was insane.

Over tens of thousands of years, only immortal emperors could fight demon emperors. Zhang Tie was just a supreme-level immortal general even though he had just killed the demon prince. He had not even drunk Nine Heavens Immortal Spring. No matter how powerful a supreme-level immortal general was and how weak an immortal emperor was, the sharp difference between levels was insurmountable.

After hearing Zhang Tie’s words, Versatile Demon Emperor walked out of the army of demons with a gloomy look. It stopped 20,000 m away from Zhang Tie. After that, it looked at Zhang Tie with a bizarre expression; then Force Emperor who had been ready to rush over here to help Zhang Tie. Versatile Demon Emperor then sighed with emotions, saying, “When I saw you for the first time, I’ve felt that you would be a great threat for demons in Motian Realm in the future. Therefore, I wanted to kill you in my battle formation. Unexpectedly, you’ve already reached such a high level only after a few years. Sigh... what I’m regretful most now is that I failed to kill you when I found you were exceptional in Dragon Emperor City. I’m almost ruined by my wisdom. If I’ve long known about this current situation, I would have killed you even at the cost of giving up the entire Dragon Emperor Big Domain and Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace...”

“You want to kill me? I want to kill you too!” Zhang Tie said with a smile, “As a demon emperor, you could disrupt the peaceful lives of all the humans in Motian Realm. You’re the greatest threat facing humans. Additionally, the old scores between you and me have to be solved until one of us falls...”

“Hoho, you want to kill me? It’s not that easy...” Versatile Demon Emperor said with a bizarre smile, “Oh, how’s Six-Armed Demon Emperor now?”

“Nonsense! Six-Armed Demon Emperor has already entered Infinite Immortal Prison. Only his death could live up to the name of Infinite Immortal Prison...”

“The others might not know what is Infinite Immortal Prison, but I’m crystal clear about it. Additionally, I know that only immortal emperor who has formed an immortal chakra could manipulate the Infinite Immortal Prison. Even though you’ve cultivated the Infinite King Roc Sutra, you’ve not formed your immortal chakra yet. Therefore, you cannot completely give full play to the Infinite Immortal Prison. Am I right? Even though Six-Armed Demon Emperor was killed in Infinite Immortal Prison, it doesn’t mean that it's you who did that; instead, it was because of the terrifying, powerful function of Infinite Immortal Prison..."

"Yea, you're right. I've not formed an immortal chakra yet. I indeed couldn't completely manipulate Infinite Immortal Prison..."

"If you promote to an immortal emperor and completely manipulate Infinite Immortal Prison, you will be able to kill any demons in Motian Realm easily; you might even exterminate all the demons. Pitifully, as I said just now, I'm almost ruined by my wisdom. Unexpectedly, you could also make such a mistake..." Versatile Demon Emperor said as he shook his head.

"You mean I'm almost ruined by my wisdom? Your confidence must come from the item that Black Mountain Demon Emperor had just taken out secretly behind you..." Zhang Tie said with a smile, causing Versatile Demon Emperor's face to freeze at a stroke.

"Watch out..."

"Go die..."

The first words were from Force Emperor.

The second words were from Black Mountain Demon Emperor.

Both parties almost roared at the same time. Meanwhile, a colorful glazed bead suddenly appeared in Black Mountain Demon Emperor's hand which gave out a green light towards Zhang Tie from over 130 miles away at a stroke...

Like that Zhang Tie couldn't avoid the green light from the bead, Versatile Demon Emperor couldn't avoid being locked by Zhang Tie's lock of bloody chakra too. Almost at the same time, with a red light, a red rune flew off Zhang Tie's body and hit Versatile Demon Emperor's body as fast as a light bolt after penetrating through Versatile Demon Emperor's strike and his protective battle qi.

Chapter 1902: Sweeping Over Demons (IV)

When the bead's green light reached Zhang Tie, Zhang Tie's Shackle of Bloody Chakra also confined Versatile Demon Emperor. As a result, Zhang Tie and Versatile Demon Emperor disappeared in the middle of the battlefield above Deities Plain almost at the same time. Closely after that, a pale green light instantly poured down from over 100,000 m high in the air and covered tens of thousands of square miles where the demon army was in like a huge, semi-transparent heavenly curtain, causing the space to tremble like water waves. As a result, the demon army was completely isolated from the human army at once...

Watching this scene, all the humans changed their faces immediately.

"Heavenly Bead, you're too mean..." Force Emperor roared at once as he flew towards the demon army. At the same time, the terrifying huge saber appeared in his hand. "Immortal generals, follow me to get Dragon Emperor out of there..."

With growls, Force Emperor rushed towards the semi-transparent light cover in the periphery of the demon army firstly.

Over 100,000 human immortal generals realized it at once as they all roared and rushed over there in form of battle formations. Star Emperor, the immortal lords of supreme-level immortal palaces, the owners of sects and clans from Nine Heavens Big Domain also launched a strike towards the Demon Army closely after Force Emperor.

At this moment, even though many immortal generals didn't know what was Heavenly Bead, their eyes had reflected the effect of the Heavenly Bead. Through the semi-transparent, odd-looking heavenly curtain and barrier in the periphery of the demon army, many people saw a light inside the big battle formation of the demon army. Closely after that, Zhang Tie appeared inside there and was being besieged by demons. He was in deadly danger...

'No matter what, His Majesty Dragon Emperor cannot die in front of us.'

This whim occurred to many human immortal generals.

According to the plan of Versatile Demon Emperor and Black Mountain Demon Emperor, after trapping Zhang Tie into the big battle formation of over 100,000 demon generals, they would coordinate with the big battle formation to crush Zhang Tie into pieces as soon as possible. Previously, they wanted to kill Star Emperor or Force Emperor in such a way; unexpectedly, they used it to deal with Zhang Tie. Additionally, an unexpected thing happened at once.

Zhang Tie locked Versatile Demon Emperor by Shackle of Bloody Chakra and pulled it into the big battle formation of demon generals too. On this occasion, if they wanted to kill Zhang Tie by the big battle formation, they had to kill Versatile Demon Emperor at the same time. Therefore, Versatile Demon Emperor, Black Mountain Demon Emperor and the demon army became dazed at a stroke.

"Kill him..." Black Mountain Demon Emperor roared as it rushed towards Zhang Tie. Black Mountain Demon had already made a decision to give up killing Zhang Tie using the big battle formation; instead, it intended to join hands with Versatile Demon Emperor and the other supreme-level demon generals to kill him as soon as possible. With such a great battle formation, they were confident to kill even Star Emperor or Force Emperor, not to mention Zhang Tie.

In an instant, Black Mountain Demon Emperor and dozens of supreme-level demon generals in the demon army and Versatile Demon Emperor who had been gnashing its teeth due to anger had charged at Zhang Tie. The demon army of over 100,000 demons formed a tight, huge net and trapped Zhang Tie in many layers.

Zhang Tie frightened those demon generals; however, fear might make demons crazier sometimes.

In an instant, Zhang Tie was in dilemma...

What shocked everyone including the two demon emperors was that Zhang Tie just opened his arms to embrace those attacks with a smile; instead of dodging them.

“Boom...” The great shock caused the space beside Zhang Tie to rock and twist. Almost at the same time, all the strikes hit Zhang Tie. Colorful battle qi strikes were like firecrackers beside Zhang Tie. The space within thousands of meters was filled with destructive battle qi. Zhang Tie himself was also submerged in those battle qi strikes.

As a result, all the demons became dumbfounded. Even Force Emperor who was rushing towards the demon army also became dazzled.

However, before the second round of attacks arrived, an extremely terrifying qi suddenly rose up from those fierce battle qis.

It was a headless giant's light&shade. Holding his ax by two hands, he instantly broke those battle qi and reached tens of thousands of meters in height. At the same time, he was patting his own chest by his huge ax, causing thunder-like sounds while overlooking the demon army.

At the sight of this light&shade, Versatile Demon Emperor changed its face immediately. At the same time, it recalled one scene which was the last scene that it wanted to recall. It finally realized why Zhang Tie didn't avoid those battle qi strikes.

“Hurry, kill him...” Versatile Demon Emperor, who was closest to Zhang Tie, rushed to his front firstly. Closely after that, it roared. Almost at the same time, a long sword suddenly appeared in its hand. It then slashed towards the neck of Zhang Tie who was faintly smiling while the blood streamed out of his mouth.

Zhang Tie didn't avoid; instead, he just raised one arm to block the strike right in front of his neck.

However, Versatile Demon Emperor's long sword only grazed half of Zhang Tie's arm. Versatile Demon Emperor couldn't even believe in its eyes. It couldn't believe that its sword didn't even break Zhang Tie's arm. How terrifyingly strong was his body!

— I cannot reach your realm now. But realm doesn't mean everything. Even the demon emperor could only bear limited strikes. If the limit was broken, you could only die just like the Demon Prince...

Zhang Tie didn't speak; instead, he passed his words to Versatile Demon Emperor's consciousness through his eyes.

— Impossible, isn't this the means of communication being exclusive to immortal emperors and demon emperors? How can you...

— Nothing is impossible. In someone's eyes, the so-called demon emperors are just insects. You think you've mastered the strength of universal rules; actually, you know nothing about real strength.

After the strike of Versatile Demon Emperor, the head grew out of Xing Tian the battle god's neck again behind Zhang Tie.

At the same time, Zhang Tie let out a strange sound beep, which reverberated through the air zone of the demon army and shocked the eardrums of all the demon knights. The sound surged across Zhang Tie's body like an overwhelming, billowy river. However, it was not purposely made by Zhang Tie, but the sound of flowing blood in his body...

Hearing this sound from such a short distance, Versatile Demon Emperor's face turned dreadfully pale at once. As a demon emperor, of course, it knew what terrifying strength did that sound represent. Versatile Demon Emperor then roared and slashed its long sword towards Zhang Tie's neck again at its full strength. However, Zhang Tie just slightly took one step back. When he reappeared, he was already tens of thousands of meters away. As a result, all the other supreme-level demon generals and Black Mountain Demon Emperor failed to hit him.

The two demon emperors and those demon supreme-level generals rushed towards Zhang Tie again.

However, Zhang Tie just smiled at these demons as a 30 cm long short saber suddenly appeared in his hand. Closely after that, he stabbed the short saber into his own chest and exposed its tip out of his back, leaving the handle of the short saber in front of his chest.

In an instant, two golden flames started to burn in the eye sockets of Xing Tian. At the same time, Xing Tian's qi reached its peak and became overwhelming.

Bang... bang... bang... bang... closely after the sound of billowy river, Zhang Tie's chest uttered another sound like muffled thunders which reverberated through the air zone of the demon army. It was like beating a huge drum in the sky. Even the sands, weeds and water pits on the ground started to rock, not to mention the air. Over 100,000 demon generals felt that their hearts were resonating with this sound unconsciously. In a split second, many demon generals had felt that their qi and blood were surging, causing them to feel like vomiting blood.

After hearing this sound, even Black Mountain Demon Emperor changed its face. It immediately rushed towards Zhang Tie and roared towards the demon army of 100,000 demons, "Hurry, crush him using the huge battle formation..."

"Boom..." When Force Emperor's saber light was over 10,000 m away, it had already turned into a crescent moon and broken the air before hitting the semi-transparent light curtain of the demon army.

Closely after Force Emperor's strike were more battle qi strikes, causing the light curtain to undulate like water waves...

At the same time, tens of thousands of demons were releasing their battle qi towards Zhang Tie in an overwhelming way like a berserk black tide, shocking the air.

Facing these overwhelming battle qi strikes, Zhang Tie sang a desolate and heroic song...

"Men should kill demons..."

Following his song, Infinite Immortal Prison flew out of his Shrine surging point and turned into an over 30 m-long black rod which a few meters in thickness in his hand.

"When killing demons, we don't show our mercy..."

Closely after the word "mercy", Zhang Tie flew off and poked the tip of the huge tower into the black tide, breaking a hole as if the battle qi tide was as fragile as a piece of paper.

“The eternal meritorious deeds lie in killing demons...”

While singing, Zhang Tie flew off as lightly as a feather and broke through the hole while brandishing his huge rod towards Versatile Demon Emperor who was rushing to him...

In a split second, the whole world turned upside down...

Chapter 1903: Sweeping Over Demons (V)

Even the last generation of king roc couldn't imagine that Zhang Tie used Infinite Immortal Prison to hit people.

As Zhang Tie had not formed his immortal chakras, he couldn't make full use of the strength of Infinite Immortal Prison. However, Zhang Tie could change Infinite Immortal Prison's size and weight in his hand at his will. Therefore, Infinite Immortal Prison could become his proper weapon.

What was more, it was a huge tower formed by king roc's heart.

The black, huge rod was 37 m in length and 3,690 tons in weight. Besides Zhang Tie, who had completely activated his battle god bloodline and gained 10 more times strength and battle force, nobody else across Motian Realm could use it.

If such a heavy weapon fell to the ground, it could cause an earthquake and even kill people due to its heavyweight, not to mention the energy of kinetic strike that Zhang Tie released due to his explosive strength which was hundreds of times greater than before.

Through this strike, Zhang Tie immediately released terrifying, unimaginable energy.

It was the real kinetic strike, which had already entered an unrivaled state.

If Zhang Tie just made a casual demonstration of his ability by killing the Demon Prince just now, at this moment, he was showing off his real power, which was sharp and irresistible. The universal law of strength was in his hand as his rod could reach to the heavens!

Versatile Demon Emperor had hidden somewhere and observed Zhang Tie secretly for a long time. It thought that it had already understood Zhang Tie well and known all of his trump cards. However, at this moment, watching the huge rod approaching him, Versatile Demon Emperor found that its previous recognition was too ridiculous.

When Zhang Tie brandished the huge rod, the entire space caved down like a piece of sponge. Wherever the huge rod moved in the air, the surrounding air and battle qi naturally gathered and condensed on two sides of the huge rod like how water flew into a pit. Closely after that, they were lit due to heavy frictions between them and the huge rod and turned into scorching, white flames. With the high temperature which could melt everything, they approached Versatile Demon Emperor in an overwhelming way in the twisting space with muffled sounds.

Versatile Demon Emperor's face twisted at once. It revealed fear through its eyes for the first time. At this moment, after being locked by the Shackle of Bloody Chakra, Versatile Demon Emperor could not avoid this sudden strike at all; instead, it could only bear this strike. Versatile Demon Emperor roared as many black scales and spikes suddenly appeared on its ugly body and face; at the same time, it wore a black odd outfit. Closely after that, it released its realm of demon emperor and disappeared in the air immediately. It then entered its own realm, which blocked the huge rod like a grey and invisible shield.

The huge rod of Infinite Immortal Prison was hit onto the realm of Versatile Demon Emperor...

In a split second, a scorching white light had dazzled all the demons in the light curtain.

The entire space inside the Heavenly Bead started to rock. In an instant, the space was broken into pieces. Closely after that, terrifying space chasms appeared as the space was suffused with wisps of black qi like those dangerous places inside Mountain Ruins. As a result, the space around Versatile Demon Emperor instantly broke into thousands of pieces.

Realm depended on space. Even the space broke into pieces, not to mention realm.

The grey, invisible shield of Versatile Demon Emperor was crushed immediately as it suddenly spewed out blood which shot straight towards the ground like a meteor just like how drunk people usually threw up.

At this moment, the great, white, scorching, impact wave immediately swept across the air zone in an overwhelming way like a berserk tide, separating and stopping Black Mountain Demon Emperor and the other supreme-level demon generals who were rushing towards Zhang Tie at a stroke.

Versatile Demon Emperor was even slammed onto the ground, causing a huge bottomless pit over 2,000 m in depth at once.

Zhang Tie directly neglected Versatile Demon Emperor as the latter had already been confined by his Shackle of Bloody Chakra and couldn't escape anyway.

"Long long ago, there was a heroic man who remained faithful to humans and kept his promise. He would kill demons whenever he widely opened his eyes with fury..." Humming the song, Zhang Tie flashed by the space chasms being suffused with black qi and came to the front of a sage-level shadow demon which was closest to him while brandishing his rod again.

The sage-level shadow demon might be subordinate to Versatile Demon Emperor. When it found that Versatile Demon Emperor was in danger, it was ahead of all the others. However, when it found that Zhang Tie's burning huge rod was falling towards him like a falling heavenly pillar, the shadow demon could only raise its shield and a long sword, which were both secret items, to defend Zhang Tie's strike...

"Bang..."

Another scorching white light appeared as the space next to the sage-level shadow demon shattered into pieces again facing the overwhelming strength of Zhang Tie's kinetic strike.

The shield, the long sword, the shadow demon's protective battle qi and its body were crushed into pieces in a split second. In the scorching white light, all of them dispersed like snow under the sunshine...

Facing such an overwhelming strength, any brilliant battle skills, swift movements, tricks and ambitions would become useless. Facing such a huge rod, everything became a simple choice—if you can stand it, you will live! If not, you will die! The result became crystal clear. There was neither the third possibility nor change nor good luck.

“Heroes killed numerous demons while traveling across the world with their sabers and spears...”

Zhang Tie’s song reverberated across the army of over 100,000 demons. Under the song, Zhang Tie flashed in the air and easily avoided a battle qi strike from Black Mountain Demon Emperor by moving 10,000 m away in one step. After that, he came to the front of the second sage-level iron-armored demon and brandished his rod.

The airy feeling was a hallucination. It was like how the sun and the moon moved. Due to their great size, their movements became unnoticeable. When the heavens and the earth broke apart, people would have such a hallucination. Zhang Tie’s body and his huge rod just crushed the berserk black tide of the big battle formation of demons with wind as airy as feather. Facing such an airy feather, the army and battle formation of demons abruptly became clumsy.

The second sage-level iron-armored demon should have already seen the result facing that sage-level shadow demon and the poor look of Versatile Demon Emperor. Facing the huge rod, it didn’t choose to defend it by his body; instead, it instantly entered its own realm and chose to defend it with its own realm.

Pitifully, it was not Versatile Demon Emperor.

When the sage-level iron-armored demon’s realm was broken into pieces, it spewed out bloody remains like that came out of meat grinder and juicer instead of the complete body of the iron-armored demon...

At this moment, the second round of strikes of the big battle formation of demons arrived. They might have already absorbed the experience of the first round of strikes as their battle qi formed into a light beam instead of an overwhelming, berserk tide. The light beam shot at Zhang Tie in a pretty condensed way, which vaporized everything on the way.

Facing such a strike, Zhang Tie didn’t use his huge rod to defend; instead, he took one step aside and easily avoided it, allowing the light beam to brush against him. As a result, his hair was sent flying in the air, making him look like an immortal...

Battle required both strength and skills.

“I want to find such heroes and tyrants today in vain. You don’t know that more and more literati became frivolous; however, toughmen and soldiers fought enemies to death. From then on, the country advocated righteousness. When demons encroached the Taixia Country, those officials escaped away, leaving those underprivileged weeps.”

“I’d like to learn from ancient people and reinvigorate the spirit of heroes. I regard reputation as sh*t; I will ignore the merciful ones’ ridicules. With sharp sword, I will kill demons when I become angry. I will cut off my own flesh and eat it together with alcohol; but I can still talk cheerfully and humorously. Even the deities and ghosts are shocked by my deeds...”

After avoiding the second round of attack from the big battle formation, Zhang Tie continued to avoid the strike from Black Mountain Demon Emperor again. As he sang, he rushed towards the highest point of the dome of the Heavenly Bead from the demon army while cupping his huge rod by hand, where he looked down while his eyes flashed like lightning.

Only after a few seconds' collusions, the two demon emperors had been scared and numerous demon generals had been frightened out of their wits. Therefore, the big battle formation of over 100,000 demon generals waved a tight net in all directions and moved towards Zhang Tie like a huge wheel in an overwhelming way.

At this moment, Zhang Tie appeared to not be able to avoid it anymore.

"Anyone who kills Zhang Tie will gain 1,000 cities as a reward..."

Versatile Demon Emperor roared. After hearing its words, all the demon generals' eyes turned bloody at once as numerous grim faces, greedy eyes, firecracker-like battle qi, sabers, swords, axes and spears shot towards Zhang Tie.

Watching this scene, over 100,000 human immortal generals outside the light curtain were so angry that their eyes almost popped out of their eye sockets. At the same time, they all tried their best to hit the light curtain between them and the demon army. However, the light curtain just quivered; instead of breaking apart...

"I'll chase demons 1,000 miles to kill them. I'll make friends with late righteous heroes like Zhuanzhu and Tianguang. Leave west city gate at dawn and come back with the enemy's head at dusk. When I'm tired, I want to sleep; however, I hear the clarion call at this moment..."

In Zhang Tie's eyes, the army of over 10,000 demons were like sh*t, their sharp sabers and swords were like average weapons. Zhang Tie sang aloud. Closely after the word "moment", the virtual image of the huge golden six-wing king roc appeared behind Zhang Tie. After unfolding its 6 wings, king roc instantly covered the demon army which was bouncing back towards Zhang Tie.

At this moment, the closest battle formation of demons was already 30,000 m away from Zhang Tie.

King Roc suddenly flapped down its six wings as an occult strength covered the entire air zone at once...

The army of 100,000 demons that had been close to Zhang Tie immediately fell to the ground in a flurried manner like raining.

At this moment, all the low-level demon generals who flew by metal wings, those wind immortal generals who had formed wind chakras, even supreme-level demon generals couldn't fly any longer. They all fell to the ground immediately. As a result, that air zone became out of their reach...

The big battle formation of over 100,000 demons instantly collapsed...

Chapter 1904: Sweeping Over Demons (VI)

Neither Versatile Demon Emperor nor Black Mountain Demon Emperor could imagine that Zhang Tie could collapse the battle formation of demons and the army of over 100,000 demon generals in a split second.

As for all the knights, their battlefield was in the sky. Various battle formations were carried out in the sky. Even though they could still form battle formations with formation beads on the ground, they were just like eagles whose feathers had been plucked and couldn't pose any threat to Zhang Tie who was still in the sky; instead, they could only look up at the sky, sigh and wait to be slaughtered by Zhang Tie.

King roc was absolutely a dominator and ruler in the sky. How could a powerful and arrogant king roc be besieged by a flock of birds and avoid here and there?

The secret skills that Zhang Tie used just now were "fight" sutra—no-fly wings, one of the Nine-Words secret method in Infinite King Roc Sutra.

Soon after he activated "fight" sutra, the entire world had been quiet.

All the enemies below Zhang Tie's realm fell to the ground. As a result, only Zhang Tie, Versatile Demon Emperor and Black Mountain Demon Emperor were still in the sky.

At this moment, Black Mountain Demon Emperor and Versatile Demon Emperor both felt that it might be their most regretful mistake to use the precious heavenly ball to bound Zhang Tie stick to the army of demons in their lives. Previously, they thought that Zhang Tie was just a tiger, which could be surrounded by a pack of wolves, caught by a net, then killed easily. Unexpectedly, Zhang Tie was not a tiger, but a dragon, a berserk dragon that nobody could conquer.

However, it had already happened.

"I parted with my mother at the west door. My mother is sad yet I'm not. I've promised to do a heroic deed and not return until I succeed. The battle up into the sky and down to the ground shock the netherworld. I will kill a demon in 3 steps until my heart stops beating. Our blood will flow tens of thousands of miles long with billows; our bodies will rest on thousands of mountains. After battles, heroes just sleep among enemies' corpses. We kill demons even in dreams with big smiles under the white sunshine..."

At this moment, Zhang Tie's loud and melodious song became a nightmare that lingered in every demons' ears. With this song, Zhang Tie dove sharply with his huge tower-sized hammer at the highest speed. Versatile Demon Emperor had already lost his freedom at this moment. The moment Zhang Tie activated his chakra lock, he had sucked Versatile Demon Emperor out of the huge pit like a magnet attracted a nail who was forced to fly directly towards Zhang Tie's huge tower-sized hammer.

Versatile Demon Emperor's face turned deeply green, even near purple.

Zhang Tie had left Black Mountain Demon Emperor behind and rushed towards Versatile Demon Emperor the moment he moved. With a wuthering wind and rumbling thunders, he then slashed his huge burning hammer towards Versatile Demon Emperor in an overwhelming, earthshaking manner.

When Versatile Demon Emperor flew towards the sky unwillingly like a boat going against the current, he saw demon generals falling down flurriedly like putting dumplings into a pot with boiling water.

Although being in the army of 100,000 demons, Versatile Demon Emperor felt being isolated and lonely without any help.

Versatile Demon Emperor might have not played yo-yo which could bounce back itself with the help of a rubber band that human kids used to play. Otherwise, he might feel like dying at this moment.

“Go die...” Versatile Demon Emperor roared in an unyielding, furious and resolute way like how Zhang Tie roared in his own realm.

With the dignity of a demon emperor and the belligerent gene, Versatile Demon Emperor could only choose to fight to death at this moment.

Among growls, Versatile Demon’s body shone as his outfit and body expanded at the same time. Just now, Versatile Demon Emperor was shorter than 2 m; now, he had expanded by 4 times and became a giant. In an instant, he had been taller than 10 m who was muscular all over with sharp black spikes on his spine while being covered with black scales. He was a shadow demon!

That was the real look of Versatile Demon Emperor!

Roaring Versatile Demon Emperor punched at Zhang Tie by two fists constantly causing rumbling thunders. The battle qi torrent that was released by his fists even caused the space to twist and undulate like a light beam. This was definitely the most powerful strike that Versatile Demon Emperor could make.

However, it was useless to Zhang Tie!

No matter what, Versatile Demon Emperor couldn’t scrape Infinite Immortal Hell even a bit.

The huge tower-sized hammer was both Zhang Tie’s weapon and his shield. The kinetic energy of the huge 3680-ton hammer itself was already amazing when it fell down freely, not to mention being held by Zhang Tie.

Therefore, when the light beam hit the huge tower-sized hammer, it instantly became pure resistance facing the huge hammer’s stress and poke no matter how cool and powerful it was. n--Ovelb1n

Given force, Versatile Demon Emperor and Six-Armed Demon Emperor were on the same level; however, they were not on the same level with Zhang Tie.

Zhang Tie’s huge hammer easily broke Versatile Demon Emperor’s strike. Closely after that, he hit his hammer onto Versatile Demon Emperor’s protective battle qi.

In a split second, the space around Versatile Demon Emperor was broken into pieces; closely followed by his protective battle qi and half of his outfit. In the overwhelming impact wave, the giant who was taller than 10 m instantly became a bit taller than 2 m as before as his tendons and bones were broken all over. Meanwhile, he spurted out blood through his eyes, ears, mouth and nostrils heavily; his black scales were sent flying in all directions; the spikes on his spine were broken. He was sent back to the ground, causing dust to rise nearby.

“Women don’t need to ask why men are so brutal! Since ancient times, mercy and virtues were always fake. Don’t you know that lions and tigers win their dignity by capturing prey? Who will pity the deer? In this world, the power usually eats the weak; even though the weak ones hold justice. Don’t ask why!

Men should do like men! Men should be ferocious and have nothing to do with mercy. Men should fight enemies on battlefields and be as dauntless as bears with fierce wolf eyes. Now that you were born as a man, you should kill demons. Don't be a woman..."

Zhang Tie's bleak and melodious song was abrupt, loud and sonorous. It contained the collisions between metals and bone-chilling fierce qi. Zhang Tie chased after Versatile Demon Emperor at a faster speed aggressively and hit his target again the moment Versatile Demon Emperor touched the ground by brandishing his hammer as round as a wheel...

At this moment, the universe seemed to be frozen as over 100,000 demons in the heavenly ball and numerous humans outside it were petrified by Zhang Tie's earthshaking strike.

At the same time, a scorching flame and impact wave spread in all directions at a stroke, vaporizing everything on the ground in a split second. As a result, over 100 ordinary demon generals within 1,000 m turned into ashes as the ground started to undulate like billows in an ocean. It shocked within 1,000 miles.

All the immortal generals and demon generals almost blacked out due to shock as they watched at the place where Zhang Tie's hit Versatile Demon Emperor in a daze...

In an instant, an over 10-m wide purplish-red qi beam rushed into 700,000 miles high in the sky and froze while being surrounded by many surging earth, water, wind and fire elements. At the same time, those four elements started to gradually fade away...

At the sight of this purplish qi beam and the disappearing earth, water, wind and fire elements, the army of over 100,000 demons were almost scared to death. Black Mountain Demon Emperor also wailed due to grief...

When a leopard died, its fur remained; when a wild goose passed by, it left its honks...

The qi beam was not a battle qi smoke, but the remains of all the qi, blood, spirit, charka and battle qi of an unrivaled immortal emperor or demon emperor in the world.

Undoubtedly, Versatile Demon Emperor had just died in front of the public!

Chapter 1905: Sweeping Over Demons (VII)

The aftermath of Zhang Tie's strike was also powerful. The powerful impact wave was even spreading towards all directions like billows, causing the ground to undulate like waves. Due to Zhang Tie's strike, the entire light curtain of Heavenly Ball was quivering heavily. At the same time, the barrier of the light curtain was undulating like ripples as though a tranquil pond was being blown up by a shell. Additionally, the ripples were spreading...

A huge pit whose diameter was over 20,000 m appeared on the ground where the huge rod struck. Additionally, Zhang Tie's strike had already touched the bottom of the light curtain over 200 m in depth in the pit and passed much energy onto the barrier through the rod. Therefore, it could cause such great shock. Besides, the huge pit was surrounded by a heavy purplish-red bloody mist being made of Versatile Demon Emperor's qi, blood, energy and prodigious elements.

Watching the qi beam rushing into the sky, many immortal generals and demon generals couldn't even believe their eyes.

Versatile Demon Emperor, an unrivaled powerhouse in Motian Realm was killed by Zhang Tie by slashing his huge rod three times.

It was not one-to-one combat, but combat between one person and the army of 100,000 demon generals and two demon emperors. However, in such a combat, Zhang Tie made something which he couldn't even imagine before—he crushed Versatile Demon Emperor who made humans restless among the army of 100,000 demons.

Watching the purplish-red qi beam rushing into the sky inside the light curtain of Heavenly Ball, even Star Emperor who was hitting the barrier revealed a faintly, fearful look.

'Zhang Tie could kill Versatile Demon Emperor by slashing his huge rod three times, what if he fought me?'

The shocking temporary silence and the temporary confusion of many humans and demons didn't disturb Zhang Tie's rhythm. Under the loud and sonorous song, Zhang Tie had killed Versatile Demon Emperor in an overwhelming way. Closely after that, a more impassioned song continued to drift from the qi beam left by late Versatile Demon Emperor.

As for all the demon generals and Blackmountain Demon Emperor, such a song had become a life-demanding spell and sound of death which even caused their souls to tremble.

"Men should never treasure their lives. We would maintain smiles even being killed by enemies. Despite scattering my intestines over the battlefield, I would not feel regretful accompanying with green weeds. Men should never shudder with fear. I will share a song with you: If we kill one living being, we're guilty; if we slaughter tens of thousands of enemies, we're heroes. If we could kill millions of enemies, we're heroes of heroes..."

While humming the song, Zhang Tie shot out the light beam left by Versatile Demon Emperor and rushed towards Blackmountain Demon Emperor.

Blackmountain Demon Emperor finally realized that it was wrong. If it continued to trap Zhang Tie in the light curtain of Heavenly Ball, it would definitely be killed by Zhang Tie. Then, all the other demon generals on the ground would be cleaned up.

'How many strikes could I stand in front of Zhang Tie's huge rod, 4 or 5?'

'I must fix this mistake myself even with my own flesh; otherwise, I have to fix it with my life.'

Watching Zhang Tie rushing towards it and the army of human immortal generals being such close to it, Blackmountain Demon Emperor finally gnashed its teeth and made the only correct decision today—he crumbled the Heavenly Ball by hand before escaping far away as fast as he could.

The barrier of Heavenly Ball broke apart in a split second. When they found that Blackmountain Demon Emperor was escaping far away instead of fighting with Zhang Tie, all those supreme-level demon generals immediately realized what they should do without receiving any order. They all exerted their full efforts to escape in all directions.

The fall of Versatile Demon Emperor had already destroyed the morale of the army of demons. However, the escape of Blackmountain Demon Emperor became the last straw that broke the camel's back. n--Ovelb1n

The army of demons collapsed like a mountain as all the demon generals were escaping in all directions.

On many occasions, whether you could survive or not on the battlefield was not related to your battle force; but your speed of escape.

"Go die..." Force Emperor instantly slashed his huge saber towards some demon generals. Only with the flash of a saber light, some hapless demon generals had been crushed into pieces.

The army of 100,000 human immortal generals swarmed towards their enemies with sonorous battle calls. At this moment, the big battle formation of demons had been in chaos. It was a rare heaven-sent opportunity. Even idiots knew that it was the best moment for beating drowning dogs and reaping their booties.

When the army of human immortal generals entered the barrier which had already disappeared, those vanguards instantly fell to the ground too. Watching this, all the human immortal generals became instantly flurried.

"Watch out, immortal generals couldn't fly in this region. Let's descend to the ground and keep a battle formation before rushing in the barrier!" an elder of an immortal palace exclaimed to stop all the other surging immortal generals behind him in case of trouble; otherwise, the big battle formation of human immortal generals might also collapse like that of demons.

In this air zone, after being affected by the battle skill of "fight" of Zhang Tie's Infinite King Roc Sutra, neither demons nor humans could fly. Therefore, all the human immortal generals hurriedly descended to the ground and rushed towards the demon generals who were fleeing away with sonorous battle calls.

The army of over 100,000 demon generals was retreating on the ground, closely followed by the army of over 100,000 human immortal generals. Such a scene had never happened in the history of the wars between humans and demons in Motian Realm. What a shocking thing!

To be honest, Zhang Tie had not imagined that Blackmountain Demon Emperor could be such decisive to escape. As a result, the entire army of demons would collapse after Versatile Demon Emperor was killed. Therefore, Zhang Tie's plan of sweeping over the army of 100,000 demons couldn't work anymore.

Blackmountain Demon Emperor was right in front of Zhang Tie. The demon emperor's speed of escape was really great. However, watching so many demons escaping in all directions like ants on the ground in such a flurried manner, Zhang Tie realized that it was a rare opportunity for beating such drowning dogs. If he missed it, it would be too pitiful.

'Well, I will make a killing spree today.'

Just now within the barrier of Heavenly Bead, Zhang Tie couldn't apply some battle skills. After Blackmountain Demon Emperor broke the barrier, he spared a chance for the army of demons to escape and allowed Zhang Tie to give full play to his ability.

Only by running his spirit for a few seconds, he had separated the two strands of energy from the void. Closely after that, a lightning bolt hit those demons in front of the escaping army of demons.

In a split second, a dazzling white light appeared on the ground like a hot sun. Under the white light and the heat waves, over 1,000 demon generals disappeared within 13 miles...

After a few more seconds, before the last light disappeared, those panic-stricken demons had seen another white light hitting an area with most demon generals over 30 miles away. As a result, over 1,000 demon generals vanished like smoke too...

Then, the 3rd white light, the 4th, the 5th... the 10th... the 20th...

White lights fell in the areas with the most demons one after another like judgment in the doomsday. Whenever a white light fell, few supreme-level demon generals within 13 miles could survive. All the others demon generals below supreme-level demon generals within those areas immediately vanished.

Although Blackmountain Demon Emperor was ahead of the demon army, it kept a close eye on Zhang Tie. When it saw those white lights, it could sense that they were aroused by Zhang Tie despite the other demon generals who didn't know what had happened. Such a battle skill was fatal to the big battle formation of demon generals. Those white lights directly destroyed the last bit of bravery of Blackmountain Demon Emperor. As a result, it instantly broke the tip of its tongue and escaped as fast as a lightning bolt.

Therefore, over 100,000 demon generals and one demon emperor were chased by Zhang Tie like stray dogs. All of them only thought about fleeing, leaving corpses over the region.

Demon generals' speeds were not slow. Additionally, soon after they escaped out of the scope of the Heavenly Bead for a few miles, all the demon generals had found that they got their flight ability back. They then became thrilled as they all flew in all directions like flies in the sky.

"Form the battle formation to block Zhang Tie..." Blackmountain Demon Emperor sent an order to those supreme-level demon generals who escaped at the highest speed among his subordinates in a flurried manner as it escaped as fast as a lightning bolt.

Facing Zhang Tie's huge rod strike, the battle formation of three iron-armored supreme-level demon generals instantly became ashes.

Only after such a short while, the distance between Blackmountain Demon Emperor and Zhang Tie had been over 70 miles more...

At this moment, a pair of golden wings of king roc appeared behind Zhang Tie. In a split second, Zhang Tie sped up again as he chased after Blackmountain Demon Emperor with his eyes on his target...

In the eyes of the army of human immortal generals, Force Emperor and Star Emperor, Zhang Tie chased after Blackmountain Demon Emperor in terms of golden light. In the blink of an eye, they had disappeared on the battlefield of Deities Plain.

Over 100,000 human immortal generals swarmed forward and crushed those escaping teams of demon generals easily. In the end, as demon generals were escaping in all directions, human immortal generals also couldn't maintain the formation of their army in order to chase these demons.

Those demon generals who had completely lost their morale only wanted to escape instead of fighting humans at all.

Over 100,000 human immortal generals chased those demon generals and made a killing spree. Half an hour later, human immortal generals had already chased the remains of demon generals out of Deities Plain...

Right then, a scarlet qi beam rushed into the sky tens of thousands of meters away from Deities Plain in the west, which faced the qi beam left by Versatile Demon Emperor above Deities Plain. The two qi beams didn't disperse for a long time...

All the human immortal generals became dumbfounded as they all watched the second qi beam as though they were witnessing a legend.

After a short while, a pair of golden feather wings flew over here, breaking the sky of Deities Plain before heading for Dragon Emperor Big Domain in the distance...

...

Chapter 1906: Leaving Dragon Emperor Pavilion

On July 28, the 3593rd year of Emperor NvWa's Calendar... n--0Vel1n

In Qianji Agency, Dragon Emperor City...

"I think we have to deal with those bandits in Brokenstars Sea. When His Majesty Grand Dragon Emperor was here, our immortal palace assigned airboats and immortal generals to patrol in Brokenstars Sea every month. Although Brokenstars Sea didn't belong to Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, we could at least maintain the safety and stability in that region. At that time, there were no such bandits in Brokenstars Sea at all. Few airboats, merchants or travelers passing by Brokenstars Sea met accidents at that time..."

Elder Long Jiutian said as he took the cup of tea water and sipped it. Then, he took a look at the other three elders and continued with a faintly nostalgic look, "When I patrolled in Brokenstars Sea by airboat at that time, all the passing-by airboats would show their politeness to us when they saw the airboats of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace by hanging over the banner of etiquette. However, when Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace gradually lost the power to patrol in Brokenstars Sea, those bandits started to threaten those passing-by airboats. Now, Two Blackblood Sages and the other backbones of Blackblood Alliance had been cleaned up by His Majesty. Nobody could block us in Brokenstars Sea. Therefore, it's time for us to recover the routine to patrol in Brokenstars Sea..."

"I agree. Additionally, I think we can directly occupy the city that Blackblood Alliance built in Brokenstars Sea over these years and take it as the base of the airboat fleet of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace in Brokenstars Sea. It's reasonable for us to occupy it now. Nobody else would complain to us about doing that!" Ying Gucheng said at once.

"Yes!"

"I agree!"

Luo Yunshang and Hou Moyuan nodded too after thinking about it for a few seconds.

"Who's suitable to do that?" Elder Luo Yunshang asked.

"How about assigning Sui Bo who's dealing with the follow-up affairs of Blackblood Alliance in Dragonsea City? As a water immortal general, Sui Bo is always loyal to our immortal general. He's experienced and reserved. He could deal with those small fish and shrimps in Brokenstars Sea of Blackblood Alliance!"

"Good idea, we will assign Sui Bo there together with a team of immortal generals. After occupying that city, we will name it Pinghai City. Additionally, we will build another branch of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace inside the city!"

"Good!"

Only after a short talk, those elders had already reached an agreement on dealing with the remains of Blackblood Alliance in Brokenstars Sea. Then, they all nodded and sipped tea water with a smile.

At this moment, the assistant of Qianji Agency entered the hall with full spirits and glowing ruddy cheeks. After bowing towards those elders, he said with full respect, "Ji Li, the grand owner of Ji Clan in Huitian Medium-sized Domain, has come to Dragon Emperor City. He wants to pay a formal visit to His Majesty. Here are the letter and the list of gifts!" the assistant said as he put the two things on the desk between those elders.

Ji Clan was a major clan in Huitian Medium-sized Domain. Ji Li, the grand owner of Ji Clan, was also a prestigious supreme-level immortal general in Motian Realm. Huitian Medium-sized Domain was over 200,000 miles away from Dragon Emperor Big Domain. If these elders heard these words and experienced such an occasion one month ago, they would have been excited and felt hot blood rushing to their brains; but now, they had been numb about such occasions.

Over the past one month, the envoys and suzerains of two emperor-level immortal palaces, supreme-level immortal palaces and major clans and sects had been gathered at Dragon Emperor City. Even Tong Xuangui, the immortal lord of Five Elements Immortal Palace, was kneeling down outside Dragon Emperor's Pavilion to show his contrition. He had already been kneeling down there for over 20 days. It was hard for an immortal lord to be such humble in order to meet Zhang Tie. Who had ever seen such an occasion before? Who could imagine that Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace could recover its prosperity in Motian Realm one day?

Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace had reinvigorated so fast that those elders couldn't even adapt to it. However, they still formed a strong immunity to this change within a short period of time.

After taking a look at the letter and the list of gifts, Luo Yunshang put them back and said, "Arrange Ji Clan's representatives to settle in Heavenlywind Palace. Tell them that His Majesty is still in secluded cultivation and won't receive guests for the time being..."

After hearing Elder Luo Yunshang's words, the assistant of Qianji Agency left there.

All the envoys of Star Emperor Immortal Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Emperor NvWa's Palace were still waiting for Zhang Tie in Dragon Emperor City. Besides, the envoys of the other supreme-level immortal palaces, even immortal lords were also waiting in Dragon Emperor City. If Ji Li queued up, he might have to wait long. Even though Zhang Tie exited his backroom, he might not have time to meet the owner of Ji Clan in Huitian Medium-sized Domain.

"Which elder would like to meet the owner of Ji Clan in Heavenlywind Palace at night?" Luo Yunshang asked as she looked around the other elders.

"I will go there..." Ying Gucheng said.

It was almost impossible for Ji Li to meet Zhang Tie; however, out of courtesy, given the list of gifts that Ji Clan presented, Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace should at least send one elder to pay a visit to him in Heavenlywind Palace and communicate with him so as to further enhance the relationship between two parties.

Over one month ago, there was only one assistant in Qianji Agency; but now the number of assistants had become five. Even so, they were still too busy in some cases.

After the assistant left there for less than a minute, another one had entered and reported another piece of news, "Those immortal generals and family members of Yun Clan who escaped away were discovered and caught by the owner of Firedragon Sect in Sands Region. They had been taken back to Dragon Emperor City under the escort of the owner of Firedragon Sect. The president of the Supervision Department is over there."

Pieces of good news arrived one after another. Everything was becoming better and better. Everything was vigorous. In the blink of an eye, the wanted circular delivered by Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace had already seen its effect. Those elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace started to understand the proverb that God helps those who help themselves.

"Sigh, if Elder Wang is still alive and could see the prosperity of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, he must be very happy." After that assistant left there, Elder Hou Moyuan heaved a deep sigh.

All the other elders became silent too.

"Elder Wang sacrificed for Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. His Majesty Dragon Emperor has already avenged Elder Wang's death in Deities Plain."

This might be the best form of comfort to the late.

"I wonder when will His Majesty finish his secluded cultivation this time..."

"Don't worry, Dragon Emperor Palace will inform us when His Majesty comes out..."

The Forbidden City was destroyed by Versatile Demon Emperor and had not been restored yet. After Zhang Tie came back, he immediately entered the backroom of Dragon Emperor Pavilion for secluded cultivation. It had been over one month. However, Zhang Tie still didn't come out of there; therefore, the entire Dragon Emperor City, even Motian Realm as a whole were gazing Dragon Emperor Pavilion...

That common park had gradually touched the nerves of everyone in Motian Realm.

When those elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace were in Qianji Agency, Zhang Tie who had exited the back room and came back to the ground with a bit pale look had lightly pushed open the door of Cangxin Pavilion and entered the courtyard leisurely.

The courtyard was fully under the bright sunshine in July. The pond of lotus flowers inside the courtyard was in full blossom. The fragrance of lotus flowers instantly attacked him. At the same time, some birds were twittering in the trees. The entire courtyard was full of vigor.

When he saw this courtyard and sniffed the air which contained various scents of flowers and grasses, Zhang Tie who had not seen such scenery for long really enjoyed it.

When Zhang Tie raised his hand, a bird capered into his palm and started to twitter cheerfully.

When Zhang Tie was playing with the bird and listening to what had happened in Dragon Emperor Palace over these days, he suddenly heard a human voice from aside.

"Your... Your Majesty..." Liu Meng stammered with wide eyes as he couldn't believe his eyes. After rubbing his eyes, he became ecstatic as his voice turned louder. When Zhang Tie wanted to ask him to lower his voice, Liu Meng's eyes turned red at once. Closely after that, he widely opened his mouth and started to scream like a loudspeaker. As a result, the entire Dragon Emperor Pavilion could hear his voice, "His Majesty has returned. His Majesty has returned..."

Chapter 1907: Reunion

nOve.lb-1n

The information that Zhang Tie had finished the secluded cultivation was a big event for everyone else, especially those members of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. As Liu Meng exclaimed, the entire Dragon Emperor City, even Motian Realm as a whole had known that news.

When the bird was still capering and twittering on Zhang Tie's hand, Long Jiutian, Ying Gucheng, Luo Yunshang, Hou Moyuan, Guan Minjun, Xue Zhongkai, Huang Baimei and the other three new presidents had already come to Dragon Emperor Pavilion.

After hearing the footsteps from outside the courtyard, Zhang Tie pouted his mouth toward the bird on his hand. Closely after that, he raised his hand and said with a smile, "Well, I got it. Many people came to Dragon Emperor City these days. There were many airboats in the sky. Some people even knelt outside the Dragon Emperor Pavilion for many days while being sun-scorched and rain-drenched without eating or drinking anything. They're not even afraid of being starved to death. That's what silly people usually do. You can go and play..."

After getting Zhang Tie's reward, the bird flapped its wings and capered off Zhang Tie's hand cheerfully. In the blink of an eye, it had flown out of the courtyard.

"Let elders and presidents go to Heavenly Safety Building..." Before that footstep entered the courtyard, Zhang Tie had talked to him. The footstep then stopped and left.

'This position of Dragon Emperor is too occupied... now that I'm the incumbent Dragon Emperor, of course, I cannot avoid something; especially that I've just done such an earthshaking thing in Nine Heavens Big Domain.' Zhang Tie muttered as he shook his head. After that, he left the courtyard for Heavenly Safety Building.

Outside this courtyard, Dragon Emperor Pavilion had long been covered with immortal generals on duty in each 3-5 steps. Watching Zhang Tie coming out of the courtyard, those immortal generals immediately straightened up their bodies as they all watched him pass by with great admiration and excitement. This man in front of them was not only the incumbent Dragon Emperor of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, but also a legend and the most revered and respected among humans in Motian Realm.

When he came to Heavenly Safety Building again, he found all the people inside Heavenly Safety Building were standing there and waiting for him. Those elders and presidents inside Heavenly Safety Building looked as thrilled as those immortal generals outside when they saw Zhang Tie again.

"Our respects to you, Your Majesty!"

Those elders bowed towards Zhang Tie deeply with great admiration, excitement and honor.

When he watched them in Heavenly Safety Building again, Zhang Tie felt a bit complex too. A few years ago, when he met these people in Heavenly Safety Building first, he played tricks to confine them as the new Dragon Emperor in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. But now, he didn't need to play any tricks anymore. His great battle force meant everything. At this moment, he became the real undisputed Dragon Emperor of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace.

Heavenly Safety Building remained unchanged. However, the Forbidden City had been destroyed. When he entered Heavenly Safety Building again, he found that most of the people inside there had been changed. Some had already been killed; someone had already sacrificed for Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace gloriously.

Zhang Tie became silent for a short while as he glanced over these faces. Then, he said calmly, "Sit down!"

"Thank you, Your Majesty!"

After those elders and presidents sat down, Zhang Tie also walked to his throne. Watching Zhang Tie who looked such calm, those elders and presidents who were familiar with him felt that their Dragon Emperor was not the same Dragon Emperor a few years ago any more. This Dragon Emperor was really formidable. Nobody had any fluke mind to challenge his prestige.

"Where's Leng Manxue?" Zhang Tie asked Huang Baimei.

"I appreciate Your Majesty's concern for her. Leng Manxue has been in secluded cultivation for many years. She's trying to break through the 7 changes realm of shadow knight. I'm afraid that she will come out in 2 years..." Huang Baimei said with respect.

Compared to Zhang Tie, what Leng Manxue was doing was normal for all the immortal generals on the road of cultivation. Each scale and each change realm forward could only be acquired through hardships and lonely ascetic cultivation.

After knowing that Leng Manxue was still alive, Zhang Tie let out a deep sigh at once as he nodded and said, "Good, good, glad to know she's alive..." At the same time, he took out a vial of medicament from his portable medicament container. Under Zhang Tie's control, the vial of medicament floated to the front of Huang Baimei. Zhang Tie then said, "Here is a vial of regeneration medicament. After drinking it, you can get a new arm. Appreciate your hardwork over these years..."

After hearing Zhang Tie's words, all the others in the surroundings fixated onto that vial of odd medicament with amazement.

Some resources in Motian Realm were not as bountiful as those in that world where Zhang Tie was. For instance, there was no regeneration medicament in Motian Realm at all. Few people in Motian Realm could enable people to regenerate limbs. Bian Heng was one. However, the price was very high, which couldn't be afforded by commoners. After losing his arm, Huang Baimei stuck to his post and continued to safeguard Dragonsea City as the commander-in-chief of Dragonteeth Army. He didn't even have time to receive medical treatment in Emperor NuWa City. Therefore, he had not got a new arm till now.

Huang Baimei's long eyebrows quivered as he took the vial of medicament and said, "Thank you, Your Majesty!"

"Your Majesty, you were mired in Infinite Immortal Prison a few years ago. Versatile Demon Emperor raided Dragon Emperor City three times. The presidents of Military Department, Personnel Affairs Department and Supervision Department and Elder Wang fought to death. We couldn't contact Your Majesty at that time. However, given that someone had to take charge of the three departments in case of chaos, we made a decision to appoint Peng Tianwu, Ji Wubing and Ying Teng as the deputy presidents of the three departments without your consent. Please punish us, Your Majesty!"

Zhang Tie was Dragon Emperor. Only Zhang Tie could appoint the presidents and deputy departments of the five departments. Those elders had already acted beyond their authority too much. After Long Jiutian's explanation, all the other elders stood up and asked for Zhang Tie's punishment. Those deputy presidents also stood up and followed Zhang Tie's arrangement.

"Elders, you've been racking your brains for Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. It was an emergency. You had to do that. You're innocent, innocent!" Zhang Tie took a look at the four elders with a smile. Then, he looked at the three deputy presidents who behaved a bit reserved in front of him and nodded, "Now that you were favored by the four elders, received the order at the critical moment and managed the three presidents orderly and conscientiously over these years, I think the word 'deputy' could be removed from the title of Peng Tianwu, Ji Wubing and Ying Teng!"

"Thank you, Your Majesty!"

Although they had already guessed that Zhang Tie would not lose his temper on this event, they had not imagined that Zhang Tie could praise and reward them. Therefore, all the seven people became thrilled as they hurriedly appreciated Zhang Tie for that.

Closely after that, the atmosphere in Heavenly Safety Building became absolutely easy and lively. Those elders then started to report what had happened in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace recently to Zhang Tie and waited for his decisions.

"I will meet the envoys of Star Emperor Immortal Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Emperor NuWa's Palace tomorrow. As for others, I will not meet them!" Zhang Tie flicked at the desk as he continued calmly, "As for the reconstruction of Forbidden City and Dragon Emperor City, I take your advice. The recovery of those cities and land in Dragon Emperor Big Domain and the establishment of the new city in Broken Stars Sea confirm to the routines!"

Zhang Tie fixed the overall plan about the development of Dragon Emperor Big Domain with only a few words.

"Here's the atlas of the 110 cities that Star Emperor Immortal Palace compensated to Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace and the list of populations and resources of these cities. Please take a look at it, Your Majesty..." Luo Yunshang said as she took out a booklet and continued, "As Your Majesty had already made an appointment with Star Emperor on it, soon after Your Majesty returned to Dragon Emperor City and entered secluded cultivation, Star Emperor Immortal Palace had already arranged people to bring the atlas and the list of populations and resources of these cities to us. The 110 cities included 46 cities from Nine Heavens Big Domain which belonged to Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace previously and all the 64 cities in Juntian Small Domain which Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace occupied before..."

It was absolutely a big, glorious event for those elders and immortal generals of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace that Star Emperor Immortal Palace admitted defeat and ceded cities and gave them to Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Even though they had already known that before. When they saw the atlas and the booklet that Elder Luo Yunshang presented to Dragon Emperor, they all became such spirited.

"I don't need to see them. Elders and presidents can make arrangements in receiving them. This time, Star Emperor Immortal Palace definitely dare not play any trick any more. Otherwise, I will break Star Emperor's head!" Zhang Tie didn't even take a look at the 110 cities. He only waved his hand and implied Luo Yunshang to take them back. Zhang Tie even doubted that Star Emperor dared not see him any more. "Oh, what is Star Emperor doing now?"

"Ahem, ahem... it's said that Star Emperor has been in secluded cultivation after the battle in Deities Plain. Those who scrambled for the land of demons in Nine Heavens Big Domain are the grand justices of Star Emperor Immortal Palace!" Elder Hou Moyuan said in a low tone. All the other at present revealed a faint smile.

Since Zhang Tie came back, Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace's immortal generals had already become a big force in Nine Heavens Big Domain. Nine Heavens Big Domain had already been covered with battle flames. By ceding land and giving it to Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, Star Emperor Immortal Palace didn't suffer a great loss; because Star Emperor Immortal Palace had already occupied a lot of cities and land of demons in Nine Heavens Big Domain when demons retreated. As a result, Star Emperor Immortal Palace had almost fixed its loss.

“Do you have any intelligence about Dark Emperor Immortal Palace?”

“It’s said that someone found some human lackeys being wanted who relied on Dark Emperor Immortal Palace after Your Majesty killed Versatile Demon Emperor. However, all of their heads have been blown up. Dark Emperor Immortal Palace is absolutely over...”

That was what Zhang Tie guessed before. However, he had not imagined that Versatile Demon Emperor could be so resolute that it even turned itself into the parent worm of puppet worms. After his death, all the lackeys being affected by Golden-Soul Runed Virus who relied on Dark Emperor Immortal Palace would die. That really saved a lot of trouble.

When he thought about Versatile Demon Emperor, Zhang Tie instantly ran his spirit. Right then, he found the Tadpole Runes Sutra was still floating in his mind sea. Zhang Tie had not imagined that Tadpole Runes Sutra itself existed in the form of golden secret item. As Zhang Tie was in secluded cultivation for recovery these days, he had not got a chance to take a look at the contents of Tadpole Runes Sutra ...

Chapter 1908: Sailing on the Same Tack

When Zhang Tie killed Versatile Demon Emperor in Deities Plain, Zhang Tie had already acquired Tadpole Runes Sutra . Until now, Zhang Tie’s state still told him that he could only gradually recover despite with Tadpole Runes Sutra . His current state was actually much worse than that in others’ eyes.

To a certain degree, everything in this world complied with the law of cause and effect or the principle of equivalent exchange.

The law or the principle was suitable for energy exchange, individual achievements, trade, life for life and the development of a country or a society. If one wanted to acquire great strength in a short period of time, he had to pay a high price for that.

After activating his ancestral bloodline of battle god, Zhang Tie acquired 10 times more battle force immediately. Of course, he felt pretty satisfied killing two demon emperors and so many demon generals in Nine Heavens Big Domain. He even acquired great prestige across Motian Realm due to that. However, he had to pay a high price for that. To be honest, if it were not Zhang Tie, anyone else who could activate his ancestral bloodline to such a level must die together with his opponents in the end. For instance, in the contest for the position of the provincial governor of Youzhou Province, when the elder of Lu Clan was heavily injured in the heavenly treasure ball, he activated his battle god bloodline and killed 6 opponents in a split second; meanwhile, he blew up himself too.

If not Zhang Tie’s abnormal Manjusaka Immortal Fearless Kingkong Roc King Body, his senior recovery body, his superb recovery speed of spiritual energy and battle qi, so many fruits, especially fruits of source that he had taken and everything of Six-Armed Demon Emperor, Zhang Tie might have long left a supreme legend about dying in his prime in Motian Realm.

To a certain degree, Elder Lu's result was normal. By contrast, Zhang Tie's current result was a bit abnormal.

After over one month's recovery, although Zhang Tie had already come out, he had not fully recovered yet. He only got 70% of his overall battle force. It would take him at least 2 more months to completely recover his battle force. Even though he could completely recover his battle force in over 2 months, he could not activate his battle god bloodline in at least one decade. If he had to activate it, he had to face a sharp decline of his overall strength and the collapse of his chakras, in which situation, he would drop to a lower realm.

However, the others didn't know these secrets at all. After seeing Zhang Tie killing two demon emperors in such a short period of time, no immortal emperors or demon emperors dared challenge Zhang Tie anymore. Even though someone had guessed that Zhang Tie had to pay for that to a certain degree, nobody would like to try it at the risk of their own lives. Additionally, it was easy for Zhang Tie to kill ordinary supreme immortal generals even now.

In the eyes of those elders and presidents of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, even though Zhang Tie looked a bit pale, nobody would doubt his battle force. However, if Zhang Tie had to kill another demon emperor at this moment, he might have to pay an unaffordable price for that.

Not knowing why, the Tadpole Runes Sutra floating in his mind sea suddenly reminded Zhang Tie of the bet between him and Feng Cangwu. 'I wonder how Feng Cangwu would look like if the contents of Tadpole Runes Sutra could make my conception come true.'

Zhang Tie then revealed a faintly odd smile.

'Dear friends in Taixia Country, I should come back soon.'

'And Taiyi Fantasy Sect, Heavens Holding Pavilion and Qionglou Pavilion, when they see me back as a sage-level knight, Taiyi Old Man and the other sage-level knights might look very splendid.'

Unconsciously, Zhang Tie became a bit absent-minded...

"Ahem... ahem... there's another thing that needs Your Majesty's agreement!" When those elders and presidents saw Zhang Tie's odd smile, they didn't know what he was thinking about. They even thought that Zhang Tie was confident of completely destroying Dark Emperor Immortal Palace before killing Versatile Demon Emperor. Therefore, they were more in awe of him for his farsightedness and prudence.

"Go ahead." Zhang Tie replied as he watched Elder Ying Gucheng.

"Over the past one month, Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace has already received the requests of many supreme-level immortal generals for joining us. There are three supreme-level immortal generals in Dragon Emperor City who want to join Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Some supreme-level immortal generals have already sent their letters to pay a formal visit to Your Majesty."

When Ying Gucheng spoke, Heavenly Safety Building became quiet at once. They could even hear their own heartbeats. Those presidents moved their eyes onto their own desks as if there was a flower on their desks. Those elders just lowered their eyes and watched their noses.

It was a sensitive and tricky problem. Besides Zhang Tie, those elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace were not even supreme-level immortal generals; instead, they were just fire-level immortal generals. Therefore, their positions would be threatened once new supreme-level immortal generals joined them. However, without the help of new supreme-level immortal generals, these elders couldn't win enough respect on some occasions. Actually, their battle forces couldn't even match the current position of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Star Emperor Immortal Palace and Force Emperor Immortal Palace had already absorbed a large number of supreme-level immortal generals. How could Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace lose the battle in talent contest? n-σ-(v/)e.-l(/b--1-.n

Zhang Tie looked around as he became crystal clear about their thoughts immediately. He then asked them, "Elders, what do you think about it?"

"Your Majesty, I remember that you wanted to recruit some supreme-level immortal generals for Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Now that some supreme-level immortal generals want to join us, it symbolizes the rejuvenation of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Additionally, Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace indeed needs more supreme-level immortal generals. We've negotiated with each other about it. We will support Your Majesty's decision!"

"Hahaha..." Zhang Tie burst out laughing suddenly as he said, "Elders, what was true then isn't true now. At that time, Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace indeed needed supreme-level immortal generals' protection. Of course, I dreamed about having some supreme-level immortal generals' help. But now, what those supreme-level immortal generals can do for us? Over these years, when Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace was at the critical moment, it was you who sailed on the same tack and forged ahead with Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace is finally reaching its heyday. Why didn't those supreme-level immortal generals join us at that time but now? Now that they didn't share hardships with Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, why do they ask for sharing happiness with us now? Therefore, it's not necessary for them to join us, not necessary..."

Watching the heroic Dragon Emperor, all the elders almost dropped off tears sincerely. After hearing Zhang Tie's words, they all felt worthwhile about their persistence over these years, worthwhile...

"Your Majesty, you can never do that. We've already known your opinion. We already feel do not regretful after hearing your words. However, we four will never hinder the development of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace and Your Majesty. We've already determined to resign and enter secluded cultivation after Your Majesty comes out and Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace is on the right track so that Your Majesty could choose other capable talents!" Long Jiutian said immediately.

"Capable talents? What are capable talents? You're capable of talents in my eyes. You've been fire immortal generals for hundreds of years. You've long laid a solid foundation. You're only one step away from being supreme-level immortal generals. It's just a piece of window paper. It's easy to break it!" Zhang Tie said decisively with a smile.

After being temporarily stunned, those elders widely opened their eyes at once as they all gazed at Zhang Tie with unbelievable looks.

“Your Majesty, have... have... you got a method to help us... promote to supreme-level immortal generals?” Luo Yunshang asked as her voice quivered.

If others said such words, those elders would never believe in that. However, it was Zhang Tie who said that. Therefore, those elders became spirited at once out of their control...

Chapter 1909: Zhang Tie’s Supreme Enlightenment (I)

Even though those department presidents were more shocked than hearing Zhang Tie’s military feats in Immortals Plains over 1 month ago, not to mention those elders.

In the history of tens of thousands of years in Motian Realm, more than one demon emperor had been killed by human powers. More than one human immortal emperors or powers had gained their supreme honor and dignity through killing demon emperors; however, in Motian Realm, nobody had ever heard that someone could help a power who had been stagnated at the level of fire immortal general for a long time to break through the bottleneck and become a supreme immortal general.

In Motian Realm, if one wanted to be a supreme immortal general, one had to light a complete supreme chakra, also a sage-level knight’s chakra and form four battle formations (realms) by communicating with the Elements Realm through chakra. Many fire immortal generals couldn’t break through this bottleneck in their whole lives. Pitifully, they could only stay on the level of fire immortal generals and suffer hardships for the rest of their lives.

To light supreme chakra was the most difficult pass for a fire immortal general to promote to a supreme immortal general because it couldn’t be made only through ascetic cultivation.

When they lit the chakras of earth, water, wind and fire, they indeed needed ascetic cultivation. However, after lighting the four chakras, if they wanted to make further progress, they had to depend on gnosis; they shall comprehend the universal laws in blooming and fading flowers, billows and moving clouds, mountains and flowing rivers and rising and falling sun and moon; they shall discover intelligence and abilities through forces of earth, water, wind and fire.

The latter depended on one’s fortune and comprehensive ability which couldn’t be expressed in words. Like being enlightened, it was absolutely a process which couldn’t be explained and named. Someone might not think it through even after sitting in a backroom for hundreds of years and reciting numerous books while scratching their ears and cheeks everyday; however, someone could be suddenly crystal clear about the universal laws and feel that evening was as same as that in the daytime only by splitting firewoods, carrying water with a carrying pole, striking a bell and doing farming work everyday.

Long Jiutian, Ying Gucheng, Luo Yunshang and Hou Moyuan might have opportunities to promote to supreme immortal generals through ascetic cultivation. Pitifully, over the hundreds of years, before Zhang Tie showed up, due to the disappearance of the Grand Dragon Emperor, these guys who had top powers in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace just controlled a department or a force of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace respectively in a pretty long period. Each of them had their own sphere of influence and plans. They only thought about scheming against each other for benefits inside Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace...

If not Zhang Tie, they might still be the department presidents or grand justices even now. In this way, they would gradually be puzzled about their cultivation and could barely wake up, not to mention comprehend universal laws and the forces of earth, water, wind and fire; in that case, they could never have any chance to promote to supreme immortal generals anymore and would stay in the current level for sure.

After hearing that Zhang Tie could help them promote to supreme immortal generals, they had long been thrilled.

“Elder Long, may I know the secret method that you cultivate?” Zhang Tie asked Long Jiutian under the excited and eager eyes of the other elders.

“I cultivate Heavy Wind Sutra !” Long Jiutian hurriedly answered.

“Do you have it with you, Elder Long?”

Long Jiutian nodded.

“May I take a look at it?”

Everyone across Motian Realm knew that Zhang Tie cultivated an immortal’s secret method Infinite King Roc Sutra ; additionally, Zhang Tie had acquired the World Shocking Sutra from the Grand Dragon Emperor. These two secret methods were both more advanced than Heavy Wind Sutra cultivated by Long Jiutian. Of course, Long Jiutian didn’t think that Zhang Tie would like to take advantage of him. Therefore, soon after Zhang Tie asked for it, Long Jiutian had taken off his necklace and gave the white jade plate on his necklace to Zhang Tie through air, “Here you are, Your Majesty!”

With the control of Long Jiutian’s battle qi, the jade plate slowly flew towards Zhang Tie. Zhang Tie took it as he instantly injected his powerful spiritual energy into it and skimming over the entire Heavy Wind Sutra . After that, Zhang Tie closed his eyes under the eyes of all the others. In less than 2 minutes, Zhang Tie’s qi had started to change. Under their dumbfounded looks, all the elders and department presidents felt that Zhang Tie’s qi was becoming as same as Long Jiutian. However, his qi was more powerful than that of Long Jiutian. All of a sudden, Zhang Tie’s qi became as same as a supreme immortal general.

Not until then did Zhang Tie open his eyes with a faint smile and brilliant light in his eyes.

Although Zhang Tie had admitted that he could imitate the effects of other secret methods through Infinite King Roc Sutra , those elders and department presidents were still petrified, mouths agape as it was their first time to see such a mysterious secret method.

Feeling Zhang Tie’s qi, Long Jiutian instantly stood up with great excitement as he said, “Your Majesty... is... is... this the qi of a supreme immortal general who cultivates Heavy Wind Sutra ...”

“Yes, I’ve almost known the realm of a sa...” Zhang Tie hurriedly pretended to cough twice as he continued, “Supreme immortal general who cultivates Heavy Wind Sutra ...”

Watching Zhang Tie, Long Jiutian who used to be steady couldn’t help but scratch his ears and cheeks as he felt being scratched by cats and bitten by dogs inside due to anxiety. “Your Majesty... could you...

could you release the battle formation of Heavy Wind Sutra and let me experience it so that I can have a goal in cultivation in the future...” n--o/-v//e-(1/(b)).1()n

“Hoho, do you know how to light your supreme chakra only by entering the battle formation?”

“No... no... no...” Long Jiutian didn’t even know what to say. Actually he wanted to say——even though I’ve not eaten pork, I could see how pig walks. But if he really said that at this moment, he would offend Zhang Tie. Therefore, Long Jiutian stammered at a stroke...

At this moment, everyone at present thought that Zhang Tie would let those elders who had not promoted to supreme immortal generals to experience the battle formations of their own secret methods. To be honest, as for fire immortal generals who had not formed their battle formations, if they could experience the battle formations of their own secret methods, they would benefit a lot from it for sure. It was almost the best treatment that they could enjoy with a supreme immortal general as their master.

However, if he could only let them experience the battle formations of their secret methods, how could Zhang Tie say that there was only a small step between them and supreme immortal generals just like breaking paper window? Even though they could experience the battle formations of their secret methods for half a month and see everything in their battle formations, they still couldn’t light their supreme chakras necessarily.

Even though one had seen how pigs walked, how did they know how pigs were raised only through imagination?

Zhang Tie then stood up and walked to the back of Long Jiutian’s seat. Then, he put his hand on Long Jiutian’s shoulder who looked excited, letting him sit down.

When Long Jiutian sat down, his scalp had been covered by Zhang Tie’s hand...

Chapter 1910: Zhang Tie’s Supreme Enlightenment (II)

When Zhang Tie put his hand on Long Jiutian’s head, Long Jiutian quivered once all over. Closely after that, he closed his eyes. By contrast, the other elders and presidents widely opened their eyes as much as possible.

Heavenlysafety Building was in dead silence at a stroke.

10 minutes later, Zhang Tie’s palm left Long Jiutian’s head. All of a sudden, an earthy yellow light suddenly appeared in Long Jiutian’s central forehead. Closely after that, a light spot as large as a firefly appeared out of nowhere and flew towards Long Jiutian, who was still closing his eyes...

“Eh? How can we see a firefly in the daytime in Heavenlysafety Building?” Xue Zhongkai mumbled out of curiosity as he caught sight of the firefly. Whereas, closely after that, he changed his face and widely opened his eyes at a stroke. “No, it’s not a firefly. It... it’s... it’s...”

Of course, the light spot was not a firefly; because dozens of more light spots appeared in the Heavenlysafety Building right beside those people soon after Xue Zhongkai’s words. Soon after that, they flew towards Long Jiutian like how flying moths darted into the fire.

When they approached Long Jiutian, they gradually gathered there from about 30 cm away.

Only after a few seconds, over 100 firefly-like light spots had gathered there in the eyes of the other elders and presidents. Additionally, the number of light spots was still increasing. After appearing out of nowhere in the lobby of Heavenly Safety Building, they all flew towards Long Jiutian and gathered in front of his chest as large as a mirror.

Those light spots were earth elements swarming out of the Elements Realm...

"They're cocooning... cocooning... cocooning earth element..." Ying Gucheng stammered in a daze as he watched Long Jiutian.

The other elders and presidents had already stood up as they all watched Long Jiutian with indescribable looks.

Cocooning earth element was a response that a fire immortal general would encounter when he or she promoted to a supreme-level immortal general. When a fire immortal general completely realized the rule of forming his fatal formation and started to form his formation chakra, he would encounter such a response outside his body.

In the beginning, earth elements would gather around that cultivator who was going to promote to a supreme-level immortal general and form a thick cocoon of earth element outside that person. Closely after that, the water element, wind element and fire element would be cocooned consecutively layer after layer. When the four layers of cocoons were completed, the cultivator would start to form his formation chakra. After completing forming his formation chakra, he would break out of the cocoons and absorb the energy of these elements before promoting to a supreme-level immortal general.

This process carried a strong bizarre sense of ritual.

Supreme-level immortal generals were new lives!

When a fire immortal general promoted to a supreme-level immortal general, he would gain a new life just like how a butterfly broke out of its cocoon.

Even though those elders and presidents had not experienced this process, they had already heard about it for thousands or tens of thousands of times.

However, none of them had imagined that Elder Long Jiutian who couldn't break through the bottleneck started this process right in the eyes of them.

More and more earth elements gathered in front of Long Jiutian's chest. Gradually, they became as large as a basin. Meanwhile, more and more light spots of earth elements were coming into being.

Among the golden light spots that flew in the air like fireflies, the inside of Heavenly Safety Building became as dreamlike as a world of fairy tales. Meanwhile, those earth elements that gathered at Long Jiutian's chest made his face golden and dignified.

All of a sudden, Long Jiutian opened his eyes with golden flickers. Closely after that, he sprung up and bowed deeply towards Zhang Tie again. Then, he rushed out of Heavenly Safety Building and flew away with a long howl...

The whole process from cocooning to promoting to a supreme-level immortal general would take him at least half a month. As for a fire immortal general, this process was as difficult as delivering a baby. Therefore, Long Jiutian left there at once. When a woman delivered a baby, she might go to a hospital or at least need a midwife; however, fire immortal general had to enter secluded cultivation so as to promote to a supreme-level immortal general. Thankfully, all the elders had some fixed place for secluded cultivation in Dragon Emperor City. After Zhang Tie's return, those elders didn't worry about being raided by demon emperors when in secluded cultivation anymore.

Tens of thousands of fireflies also flew out of Heavensafety Building closely after Long Jiutian like the tail of a comet. Soon after that, Heavensafety Building which had just been dreamlike recovered its original look.

However, at this moment, those people in Heavensafety Building had changed their states of mind.

"Commander Huang, assign a team of Dragonteeth Army to safeguard the backroom where Elder Long was in. Prevent people from disturbing Elder Long for promoting to a supreme-level immortal general..." Zhang Tie sent an order to Huang Baimei. After hearing his voice, all the others in the Dragon Emperor Pavilion had woken up and recovered their composure.

"Yes, I will arrange it right now," Huang Baimei answered as he took a complex look at Zhang Tie. Closely after that, he took out of his token and made an arrangement according to Zhang Tie's order.

"Your Majesty... that was... that was." Luo Yunshang's breasts undulated with a blush on her face. She could barely stay calm anymore.

"It's the Supreme Enlightenment Secret Method!"

'Supreme Enlightenment Secret method?' Everyone in the lobby bore this name in mind firmly.

"Supreme Enlightenment Secret Method? Did... did Your Majesty create this secret method?" Ying Gucheng asked as he watched Zhang Tie with deep shock. In the history of tens of thousands of years of Motian Realm, there was never such a secret method. Therefore, Ying Gucheng made such a wild guess.

"Yes. I created it!" Zhang Tie admitted it frankly.

Before promoting to a sage-level knight, Zhang Tie had not imagined that he could create such an amazing secret method. After promoting to a sage-level knight, he easily created it. As the old saying goes—when water flows, a channel is formed.

— Infinite King Roc Sutra could simulate the sage-level state and realm of each secret method.

— With LV 1 consciousness of universal laws, the rules of sage-level realms and the changing patterns of four elements of secret methods under emperor-level classics became crystal clear.

— The enlightenment method in the No-Hatred Sutra of Yin-Yang Sect was unrivaled across Motian Realm.

— Zhang Tie had mastered Bloody Soul Sutra, which contained some numinous secret skills and powerful spiritual energy...

With the above four conditions, Zhang Tie could integrate his abilities to create the Supreme Enlightenment Method. In this secret method, Zhang Tie could directly impart the most important gnosis that he had acquired from those classic secret methods about how a fire immortal general promoted to a supreme-level immortal general and formed his sage chakra into the consciousness of the person who cultivated this secret method in terms of powerful spiritual brand and soul seed.

On this occasion, the one receiving the enlightenment would feel like tracing in black ink over words printed in red. Even though they couldn't display the charm of those words and even didn't need to understand those words, as long as he could use a pen, he could also imitate the complete words. In this way, the receiver could integrate with the spiritual brand and soul seed and smoothly promote to a sage-level knight.

The reason that the Grand Dragon Emperor borrowed Yin-Yang Sect's No-Hatred Tortoise might be because he was absorbed by the enlightenment skill of No-Hatred Sutra. However, Grand Dragon Emperor didn't meet the above four conditions like Zhang Tie. Even though he could figure out No-Hatred Sutra of Yin-Yang Sect, he still couldn't create the Supreme Enlightenment Secret Method.

It was a secret method that was really exclusive to Zhang Tie. It was famous throughout the ages.

"I wonder whether I... could also... promote to a supreme-level immortal general like Elder Long after receiving Your Majesty's supreme enlightenment?" Luo Yunshang asked shamefully.

"Of course you can. Through my supreme enlightenment, fire immortal generals who had a solid foundation like Elder Long could smoothly promote to supreme-level immortal generals!" Zhang Tie replied with a smile, "Elder Luo has also accumulated on the level of fire immortal general for hundreds of years. If Elder Luo doesn't mind it, you can show me the secret method that you cultivate. After that, I will carry out enlightenment for you here!"

"Here's my Smoke and Rain Sutra. Please take a look at it, Your Majesty..." Luo Yunshang instantly took off a blue bracelet and gave it to Zhang Tie.

Watching all these, Ying Gucheng and Hou Moyuan finally couldn't stand anymore.

"Your Majesty..." Ying Gucheng also asked as he watched Zhang Tie bashfully.

"If you don't take your secret methods today, it's fine. I will be in Dragon Emperor Pavilion these days. You can come for me with your secret methods at any time..."

"No need, although I've not taken it with me now, I can take it back in half an hour as my secret method is not far from here..." Ying Gucheng hurriedly explained.

"Me too. I can also come back in about half an hour!" Hou Moyuan answered closely after Ying Gucheng as though he was afraid of being forgotten.

"Hmm, you can go take them..." Zhang Tie said as he waved his hand.

"Thanks, Your Majesty!"

"Thanks, Your Majesty!"

Ying Gucheng and Hou Moyuan instantly became thrilled. After apologizing to Zhang Tie for their rudeness, they immediately rushed out of Heavenly Safety Building.

In the following 2 hours, Zhang Tie accomplished supreme enlightenment for Luo Yunshang, Hou Moyuan and Ying Gucheng consecutively. Closely after receiving the supreme enlightenment, the three people had left Dragon Emperor Pavilion rapidly and returned to their own backrooms for secluded cultivation in Dragon Emperor City.

After accomplishing supreme enlightenment for the four elders and encouraged those presidents and Huang Baimei, Zhang Tie had let them go.

When those presidents and Huang Baimei left Dragon Emperor Pavilion, they had been utterly different spiritually although it was not them who accepted enlightenment.

——As His Majesty masters the Supreme Enlightenment Secret Method, as long as I work in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace diligently and make meritorious deeds for it, I will definitely promote to a supreme-level immortal general in the future. Only a few fire immortal generals in Motian Realm were confident to promote to supreme-level immortals in the future.

After all of them left there, Zhang Tie also walked out of Heavenly Safety Building. He felt like lacking something. Therefore, he asked a guard about the whereabouts of those women of Yin-Yang Sect. He was told that they were not in Dragon Emperor City...
