Chapter 1911: The Invitation of Emperor NvWa

On the second day after he ended his secluded cultivation, Zhang Tie had received the ambassadors from Star Emperor Immortal Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Emperor NvWa's Palace. These people had been waiting for Zhang Tie for about one month in Dragon Emperor City.

Zhang Tie was crystal clear about the reason that the three top forces were eager to meet him so much.

Superficially, the ambassadors of the three top forces were here to congratulate Zhang Tie for his military exploits in Nine Heavens Big Domain; actually, they were here to acknowledge Zhang Tie's current situation and his plan in the future out of fear.

Through the battle in Deities Plain, Zhang Tie's name had been regarded as an unrivaled powerhouse in Motian Realm. Now that he could easily kill two demon emperors and the army of 100,000 demon generals in Deities Plain, Nine Heavens Big Domain, he could also inflict heavy losses on Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Star Emperor Immortal Palace if he wanted. If Zhang Tie was more ambitious, he could definitely break the existing pattern of human forces in Motian Realm.

Therefore, it was reasonable that the three top human forces in Motian Realm would like to care about and confirm his plan. Otherwise, if Zhang Tie really cast greedy eyes on the three top human forces, Star Emperor might have to be in secluded cultivation for a long time.

Actually, not only the three top human forces, at the critical moment when Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace rose and human forces in Motian Realm might face sharp turbulence, the other human immortal palaces, major sects and clans were also keeping a close eye on Dragon Emperor City. They've pricked up their ears and widened their eyes so as to get any intelligence possible from Dragon Emperor City.

As for those supreme-level immortal generals who wanted to join Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace at this moment, some of them might really admire Zhang Tie; undeniably, some of them had a deep speculative incentive. If Zhang Tie wanted to shuffle the human forces in Motian Realm, they would definitely win great benefits by standing on Zhang Tie's side at this moment. Such adventurers were always seen among supreme-level immortal generals in Motian Realm.

If Zhang Tie was born in Motian Realm, he might really have such a plan. Pitifully, Zhang Tie had never intended to be an overlord in Motian Realm. The original intention that he ascended to the throne of Dragon Emperor and safeguarded the benefits of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace was to prevent the properties left by the former Dragon Emperor in Motian Realm from being destroyed; instead of his desire for authority.

This original intention remained unchanged until now.

After ending the battle in Deities Plain, Zhang Tie most wanted to return to Taixia Country; instead of ruling Motian Realm.

Therefore, he cleared the obstacles for those elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace on the way to supreme-level immortal palaces. With the four supreme-level immortal generals on the back of Dragon

Emperor Immortal Palace and the prestige that he had built in Dragon Emperor Big Domain and Deities Plain with the heads of numerous powerhouses, Zhang Tie was firmly convinced that no force in Motian Realm dared cast greedy eyes on Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace even though he disappeared in Motian Realm for 1,000 years in the name of entering secluded cultivation.

The former Dragon Emperor didn't kill Demon Emperors in Motian Realm. Even so, his prestige still safeguarded Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace for over 900 years after he disappeared, during which period, nobody dared attack Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. Zhang Tie believed that the quality guarantee period of his prestige in Motian Realm should not be shorter than that of the former Dragon Emperor.

Before meeting the ambassadors of Star Emperor Immortal Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Emperor NuWa's Palace, also in the early morning of the next day after Zhang Tie finished his secluded cultivation, Zhang Tie received a person in the study room of the former Dragon Emperor Pavilion—Tong Xuangui, the immortal lord of Five Elements Immortal Palace.

Tong Xuangui had been kneeling outside Dragon Emperor Pavilion for over one month. After Zhang Tie killed those immortal generals of Five Elements Immortal Palace and two demon emperors in Dragon Emperor Big Domain, Tong Xuangui had come here alone; instead of being bound or forced.

Besides the two demon emperors, Zhang Tie had killed more than 5 supreme-level demon generals in Deities Plain alone. Therefore, a supreme-level immortal general of Five Elements Immortal Palace was nothing but sh*t in front of Zhang Tie.

The slim chance of survival of Five Elements Immortal Palace and Tong Xuangui was in Zhang Tie's hand. Tong Xuangui's deed might be wise and sincere. Additionally, people could judge how Zhang Tie would treat those people who once offended Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace through Tong Xuangui's result.

As Five Elements Immortal Palace once invaded Dragon Emperor Big Domain. After Zhang Tie's return, even if Zhang Tie killed Tong Xuangui and asked Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace to completely devour all the territories and cities of Five Elements Immortal Palace, nobody dared say no to his decision.

"Your Majesty, I've brought Tong Xuangui here!" a guard reported outside the room.

"Let him in..." Zhang Tie didn't turn around; instead, he just watched the four words "I Die, People Live" on a wall that the former Dragon Emperor once hung. Previously, Zhang Tie took it away; now, he had people hang it over there again.

After the door of the study room was opened from outside, he heard a footstep from behind. Closely after that, he heard someone kneeling down on the ground as someone's quivering and hoarse voice sounded, "My respect to Your Majesty, I'm Tong Xungui, the guilty person of Five Elements Immortal Palace..."

"Do you know why I have people take you here?" Zhang Tie didn't turn around; neither did he feel like looking at Tong Xuangui and his expression.

"I... don't," Tong Xuangui said hardily.

Zhang Tie pointed at the calligraphy on the wall and said calmly, "Raise your head and watch the four words carefully. The four words were left by the former Dragon Emperor. It also explains why I chose to be Dragon Emperor. When I returned to Dragon Emperor Big Domain over one month ago, if you were in Dragon Emperor Big Domain, I would definitely have decapitated you. But now, I will keep you alive because of the four words; neither will I punish the actions of Five Elements Immortal Palace in the past. If you can promote to an immortal emperor in the future, hopefully, you bear in mind the four words which saved your life here today. Okay, you can leave now..."

Tong Xuangui left there. He entered Dragon Emperor Pavilion alive and left there alive too. Finally, he flew off Dragon Emperor City. It was said that Tong Xuangui entered Dragon Emperor's study room. Although nobody knew what had happened in the study room, Tong Xuangui who once knelt down outside Dragon Emperor Pavilion finally left Dragon Emperor City alive.

When many people in Dragon Emperor City were hesitant, they heard another piece of news.

The Supervision Department of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace had received the oral decree from Zhang Tie the incumbent Dragon Emperor—Release all the immortal generals and clansmen of Yun Clan who had been caught and taken back to Dragon Emperor Big Domain. Just drive them out of Dragon Emperor Big Domain.

After hearing the two pieces of news, many human forces were shocked. Meanwhile, the Dragon Emperor City which made numerous people's hearts race finally became tranquil.

After that, all the other domains and forces in Motian Realm which had been restless for over one month also gradually became tranquil.

Closely after that, Zhang Tie sat below the four words in the study room of Dragon Emperor Pavilion and received the ambassadors of Star Emperor Immortal Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Emperor NvWa's Palace.

Facing the ambassadors of the three top human forces, Zhang Tie only said a few words, "Emperor NvWa's Palace, Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Star Emperor Immortal Palace are the pillars of humans in Motian Realm, as a member of humans, I don't expect to see great turbulence in human domains of Motian Realm; neither do I want to see numerous families being destroyed and humans being killed or the fall of the three pillars of humans in Motian Realm. It took me prodigious energy to kill the two demon emperors. I've not fully recovered even now. I might be in secluded cultivation for a long period of time. During this period, hopefully, His Majesty Star Emperor and His Majesty Force Emperor could shoulder the responsibility to deal with demons..."

After hearing Zhang Tie's stance, all the ambassadors of the top three human forces became completely reassured.

"Her Majesty Emperor NvWa asked me to invite Your Majesty Dragon Emperor to meet her when you're free. The gate of Emperor NvWa's Palace will be open to Your Majesty at any time!" Emperor NvWa's Palace assigned a deputy president here, who was a supreme-level immortal general, also a woman with white hair and ruddy complexion who looked pretty noble. She then gave Zhang Tie a space-teleportation finger ring in front of the other two elders of Force Emperor Immortal Palace and Star

Emperor Immortal Palace, “Here’s the item that Her Majesty Emperor NvWa asked me to present to you...”

“Oh, what’s inside it?” Zhang Tie asked out of curiosity when he received it.

“Her Majesty Emperor NvWa said the item inside it should belong to Your Majesty, Your Majesty can take a look at it!”

When he received the finger ring, Zhang Tie casually peeped his spiritual energy into it. Closely after that, he caught sight of the brilliant Heavens-Measuring Ruler...

‘Heavens-Measuring Ruler! It’s Heavenly Immortal Hunyuan’s Heavens-Measuring Ruler?’ This Heavens-Measuring Ruler once disappeared after being involved in the turbulence of time and space with him. Previously, Zhang Tie thought he couldn’t see this rarity anymore. Unexpectedly, it appeared again after so many turns and twists.

‘How did Emperor NvWa know that Heavens-Measuring Ruler was related to me? How did she get it?’ Many questions filled Zhang Tie’s mind in an instant. At this moment, the identity of Emperor NvWa whom Zhang Tie had not seen before instantly became profound and unpredictable...

After being stunned for a few seconds and considering a lot of possibilities, Zhang Tie instantly raised his head and watched the ambassador of Emperor NvWa’s Palace with bright piercing eyes before saying in a muffled sound, “Please tell Her Majesty Emperor NvWa that I will meet her in Emperor NvWa’s Palace in 2 months...”

After seeing off the ambassadors of the three top human forces, Zhang Tie watched the Heavens-Measuring Ruler inside the space-teleportation finger ring in the study room alone. Meanwhile, those familiar yet remote faces started to loom in Zhang Tie’s mind...

...

11 days later, Long Jiutian and Luo Yunshang promoted to supreme-level immortal generals in consecutive two hours on the same day. The abnormal phenomena that they aroused the attention of people within 1,600 miles centered on Dragon Emperor City. As a result, the entire Dragon Emperor Big Domain was shocked.

On the same day, after having a drink with Liu brothers and ending his concerns about Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace, Zhang Tie left Dragon Emperor City alone secretly...

Chapter 1912: Naturesound Valley

“Uncle, do you know where’s Naturesound Valley?”

“Naturesound Valley? I’ve not heard about this place!” The strong uncle took a look at Zhang Tie on the mountain path with a herbal medicine basket on his back. When he found that Zhang Tie didn’t look like a bad guy and was smiling at him, he had a good impression on Zhang Tie; therefore, he asked Zhang Tie impatiently, “Is the Naturesound Valley that you said in the Clouddragon Mountain Range?”

“Yes!” Zhang Tie replied while nodded his head.

“It must be not in the nearby. I’ve picked herbal medicines in this mountain for 60 years. I’m familiar with every place within hundreds of miles. However, I’ve not heard about Naturesound Valley at all!” The uncle then looked up at the sky. When he found the sun had been over the top of the mountain in the west, he warned Zhang Tie, “It’s too late. It would be too dangerous for you to enter the mountain alone. Those fierce beasts in the mountain could not be easily dealt with. The other day, someone saw a huge boa in the valley. It was about 17 m in length. That huge boa must have lived in the valley for long as its already covered with mosses. It could already cultivate battle skills. If commoners saw it, they would be scared to death. There’re many terrifying old things in the mountain, you’d better go down the mountain as soon as possible!”

“Thanks for suggesting, Uncle. Oh, is there any town nearby?”

“Besides Brilliantmoon City, the closest town is Plentifulgrains Town. You will get there in this way after crossing three mountains,” the uncle said as he pointed at a mountain peak in front of Zhang Tie, “But it’s too late now. I suggest you to not go there today. If you set off tomorrow, as you’re young, you can arrive there in four hours. Oh, if you want to ask about the location of Naturesound Valley, you can try your luck in Plentifulgrains Town. There’re many herbal medicine traders over there. Some herbal medicine traders have traveled many places and wandered in in Clouddragon Mountain Range all the year round. They might know that place!”

After leaving a few words to Zhang Tie, the uncle went down the hill vigorously. After revealing a bitter smile towards the mountain path, Zhang Tie watched the direction where Plentifulgrains Town was. Closely after that, he disappeared.

As Zhang Tie had just come out of Brilliantmoon City, of course, he didn’t want to go back anymore.

If that uncle saw Zhang Tie’s response, he might have been startled.

It was August 13th, the 3593rd year of Emperor NvWa’s Calendar. It had been 3 days since Zhang Tie left Dragon Emperor City. Over the past 3 days, Zhang Tie actually had not left Dragon Emperor Big Domain. Precisely, he was looking for Naturesound Valley in Clouddragon Mountain Range of Dragon Emperor Big Domain.

Of course, Zhang Tie was not traveling here; instead, he was here to look for the remaining ones of Yin-Yang Sect. Before leaving Motian Realm, he wanted to meet Ji Yuelan, Jiang Ruoxin and their masters Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong for the last time and bid farewell to them in case of concern.

Previously, Zhang Tie asked those women of Yin-Yang Sect to wait for him back in Dragon Emperor City. Unexpectedly, they didn’t take his suggestion. When Zhang Tie finished his secluded cultivation in Dragon Emperor Pavilion, he found that none of these women were in Dragon Emperor City. Only Jiang Ruoxin came to Dragon Emperor Pavilion alone during the period when he was in secluded cultivation and left a message——Naturesound Valley, Clouddragon Mountain Range.

Zhang Tie realized that women couldn’t be judged in normal way again. n)(Ove1bIn Clouddragon Mountain Range was the largest and longest mountain range in Dragon Emperor Big Domain. The entire mountain range lasted over 45,000 miles and had 8-9 branches. However, he couldn't find a place called Naturesound Valley on the map.

This mountain range was vast which contained tens of thousands of hills and valleys. It was not easy for Zhang Tie to find Naturesound Valley in Clouddragone Mountain Range.

During the past three days, Zhang Tie had traveled tens of thousands of miles in Clouddragon Mountain Range and asked numerous people. However, he still didn't know the location of Naturesound Valley.

The 4 hours' foot walk for youths in the mouth of the uncle was only a few seconds' trips for Zhang Tie. With a few flashes, it had crossed some mountain peaks and appeared on a path outside Plentifulgrains Town.

When he arrived there, Zhang Tie found that the entire Plentifulgrains Town was only a small village in the mountain. There was only one street in the village, on both sides of which were boites, herbal medicine shops and various stores. Beside that street, there was an open medicine market, which was close to an open patch of grassland. Some small airboats with symbols of herbal medicine shops parked there.

As the sun was going to set, many people were busy taking the medicines that they put under the sunshine into rooms. Some people were even carrying medicines into airboats.

As the big trading fair would come in 2 days, this medicines market in Clouddragon Mountain Range was very boisterous. The only street was bustling at this moment while being crowded with herbal medicine traders and herbal medicine collectors. The boites on both sides of the street were also flourishing.

Zhang Tie strode over there. When he saw many decent herbal medicine traders accessing to a boite, he thought for a short while before entering it.

It was supper time. It was very boisterous inside the boite. 80% of the tables had been occupied. Over 200 people were inside it.

"Sir, are you alone or having some friends with you?" Watching Zhang Tie coming in, a responsive waiter instantly came forward to greet him.

"I'm alone!"

"This way please..."

The waiter led Zhang Tie to a small table at a corner as he asked with a smile, "Sir, what do you want? Our medicated food is very famous..."

"Just give me 3 or 4 dishes that you're good at!" Zhang Tie said as he threw two purple crystal coins to the waiter and added, "Here's the payment. Keep the change!"

Two purple crystal coins was a large sum of money. It could even afford 10 people to have three meals in this store. Therefore, after taking the two purple crystal coins, the waiter nodded and bent over towards Zhang Tie with a brilliant smile, "Generous, generous, sir, you're really generous!"

“Oh, I wanted to ask you about a place!”

As too many guests who always traveled across the country bragged here, the waiter must have known a lot of information from their mouths.

“Please go ahead.”

“Do you know Naturesound Valley in Clouddragon Mountain Range?”

The waiter scratched his head. After thinking about it for a short while seriously, he replied with a shameful smile, “Erm... erm, I’ve really not heard about it...”. The smart guy then put the two purple crystal coins back as he knew that he shouldn’t take such a great reward without a meritorious deed.

Zhang Tie then waved his hand as he said, “Take them. It’s okay. It’s yours!”

“Thank you, thank you!” The waiter took back the money again with a big smile as he added, “Sir, please wait for a second, I will arrange the cooks to cook you dishes right now...”

After a short while, the waiter had cupped a tray here with 6 dishes and 1 soup. All of them were delicacies, including meat and vegetables and a flagon of liquor.

“Here’s the wild plum liquor that we brewed ourselves. It tastes special. Please have a try...”

After taking the two purple crystal coins, the waiter courteously served Zhang Tie more than he needed.

“I’ve got one blue crystal coin...” Zhang Tie said with a smile as he took out a blue crystal coin and put it under the bowl of soup. Only the waiter could see it. “Before I finish this supper, if you can get the message about the location of Naturesound Valley, you will have this blue crystal coin...”

At the sight of that blue crystal coin, the waiter became stunned at once. A blue crystal coin was equal to 100 purple crystal coins. He might not be able to make so much money after working in this boite for a few years. He even didn’t have a chance to touch a blue crystal coin before. It was even greater than the total amount of money that a drug-dealer used to purchase goods. The tip that Zhang Tie paid him just now had already implied that Zhang Tie was not kidding. He didn’t care about it at all. It depended on whether the waiter could make it.

The waiter swallowed a mouthful of saliva as he gnashed his teeth and spoke to Zhang Tie, “Please enjoy it, sir, wait for a while...” He then hurriedly left there.

The waiter didn’t go to the kitchen; instead, he called the other two waiters and whispered to them.

The other two waiters took a look at Zhang Tie. Closely after that, one of them ran out of the boite. He didn’t come back until a few minutes later.

During this short period of time, when they served water, dishes or drinks for their guests at each table and in each room, all the waiters asked their guests with full respect, “Sir, you must have traveled a lot of places and seen the world. Do you know a place called Naturesound Valley in Clouddragon Mountain Range?”

Many guests didn’t know it. Some guests would even ask them, “Why do you ask about this?”

“Nothing, I’m betting with some people. If anyone knows the location of Naturesound Valley, he or she can enjoy 20% off with their friends...”

Watching such a scene, Zhang Tie faintly smiled as he lightly moved his chopsticks and drank. He just waited for the message from the waiter. On this occasion, the unrivaled battle force couldn’t even match a blue crystal coin...

At sunset, the boite was finally fully occupied as those drug dealers started to talk aloud.

Among those guests, one drug dealer who had just sat down with his friends suddenly spoke aloud, which could almost be heard by all the others in the boite.

“Our boss said a major event happened in Dragon Emperor City yesterday. The two elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace Ying Gucheng and Hou Moyuan promoted to supreme-level immortal generals too...”

Chapter 1913: Discovery

“Ah, haven’t the two elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace promoted to supreme-level immortal generals the other day? I’ve heard this news a couple of days ago. Why did you say it happened yesterday?”

Soon after the loud voice, another guest at the other table had instantly refuted out of curiosity.

The boites and hotels in Motian Realm used to be like forums and bars. When guests ate food here, they would also exchange news with each other. When someone talked about something, the others in the surroundings would join the discussion.

“The two elders who promoted to supreme-level immortal generals the other day were Long Jiutian and Luo Yunshang. Those who promoted to supreme-level immortal generals yesterday were Ying Gucheng and Hou Moyuan...” A guest at a table beside them rectified him at once.

“Does it mean that there’re four more supreme-level immortal generals in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palaces in only a few days?”

“You got it!”

“It’s so strange. The four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace were once fire immortal generals. How could all of them promote to supreme-level immortal generals in such a short period? Does Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace really have the favor of God?”

When they talked about Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace and Dragon Emperor City, all the other guests in the boite were involved in this topic. When they ate and drank, they started to discuss this topic with strong interest. More people pricked up their ears and focused on the others’ talks.

As they were in Dragon Emperor Big Domain, of course major events in Dragon Emperor Big Domain could influence their lives. For instance, when Zhang Tie returned to Dragon Emperor Big Domain and entered secluded cultivation one month ago, the prices of all the ingredients of various herbal medicines and finished drugs in human regions across Motian Realm started to surge. Some even increased by a few times in one month. The rise was stunning. Many drug dealers, who had stockpiles, had made a big fortune in the past one month. When Zhang Tie finished his secluded cultivation, the prices of bulk medicines and various finished drugs started to fall back on the same day. In over half a month, the prices of many ingredients of medicines and finished drugs had reduced to their previous levels.

The reason for the rise and fall of the prices of ingredients of medicines and finished drugs afforded much food for thought. As commoners, their lives were greatly influenced inevitably. Those big drug dealers who had some stockpiles at the beginning had made a big fortune; by contrast, those who rushed in later on and intended to stockpile more ingredients of drugs and finished drugs had suffered great losses. As the participants in this line, of course, these guests in the boite had the deepest feelings.

"It's hard to say whether Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace is blessed by God or not. If it was blessed by God, it would have not deteriorated to such a poor situation!"

"Right, right!"

"It's said that His Majesty Dragon Emperor has just finished his secluded cultivation a few days ago. What a coincidence! Soon after His Majesty Dragon Emperor finished his secluded cultivation, the four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace had promoted to supreme-level immortal generals." A smart drugdealer instantly realized the contact between the two events.

"All the four fire immortal generals promoted to supreme immortal generals in 10-15 days due to different cultivation bases. Given the time, soon after His Majesty Dragon Emperor finished his secluded cultivation, the four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace had already started to promoted to fire immortal generals consecutively. What a coincidence! Four fire immortal generals who had not promoted to supreme immortal generals in hundreds of years suddenly broke their bottlenecks in the same short period of time. There must be some relationship between the two events."

"Yea, yea, you got that!" the one who said aloud just now instantly burst out laughing again as he continued, "The other day, when Long Jiutian and Luo Yunshang promoted to supreme immortal generals almost at the same time, many people in Dragon Emperor City had been discussing it. They all thought it was such a coincidence. After Ying Gucheng and Hou Moyuan promoted to supreme immortal generals in such a short period of time, the entire Dragon Emperor City became quiet. Of course, it's just a superficial phenomenon. Actually, the entire Dragon Emperor City is filled with the gossip that His Majesty Dragon Emperor helped the four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace promote to supreme immortal generals by secret methods..."

"Impossible, nobody in Motian Realm could do that!"

"Everything is possible. Before His Majesty Dragon Emperor came back, who could imagine that His Majesty Dragon Emperor could kill two demon emperors and inflict heavy losses to the army of 100,000 demon generals alone. His Majesty Dragon Emperor is absolutely the No. 1 powerhouse in Motian Realm!"

"It's said that His Majesty Dragon Emperor might not be born in Motian Realm. Perhaps," a person whispered. After hearing his words, the entire boite became quiet in a split second.

However, only after a few seconds, someone had started to refute him,

“Nonsense, of course, His Majesty Dragon Emperor was born in Motian Realm. But you could never imagine where His Majesty Dragon Emperor was born.”

“Where?”

“It’s said that His Majesty Dragon Emperor was actually born in the core region of Mountain Ruins. His Majesty was different than commoners since young. He almost had started to form his chakras when he was still a fetus...”

“Ah, impossible...”

“Nothing is impossible. It’s said that if a pregnant woman could drink Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring, her fetus would be able to cultivate and be different when it comes to this world. It has infinite strength and could tear apart tigers and cheetahs by hand. Additionally, it would never be drowned by water and hurt by fire...”

Just now, they were talking about the major events in Dragon Emperor City and Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace. When they transferred the topic to Zhang Tie, they all started to talk nonsense. Their talks could even be listed as myths or legends. Zhang Tie couldn’t stand that anymore.

Hearing their words, Zhang Tie who was drinking beside them didn’t know whether he should cry or laugh. He had not imagined that he had been said to have drunk Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring and stated to form chakras when he was a fetus in Dragon Emperor Big Domain only after such a short period of time. To be honest, when he was young, he even felt reluctant to drink a bowl of rice brew which could be sold at the price of 3 copper coins. If he drank too much, his mother had to work harder to make the 3 copper coins that he had drunk.

What a familiar trick! When he heard the gossips about him, Zhang Tie immediately remembered those legends about ancient emperors in his world. All the emperors were said to be distinct from others since they were born, such as they were born with glow, their mothers dreamed about the reincarnation of a deity or embracing a meteor, etc...

Zhang Tie had not imagined that he could also become the protagonist of such a story.

Of course, smart ones could discover the subtle relationship between the events that the four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace promoted to supreme immortal generals in such a short period of time and Zhang Tie. However, Zhang Tie didn’t want to care about the affairs in Dragon Emperor City now. There were only four elders of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace whom he could apply the Supreme Enlightenment Method to as of now. He didn’t care about whether the others could promote to higher levels or not; neither was he committed to help all of them do that. He only wanted to find those women of Yin-Yang Sect and press Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong who dared leave him alone onto the ground; then lift their skirts and... slap... their butts ferociously!

According to Zhang Tie’s understanding of Yin-Yang Sect, only Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong could make such a decision. Ji Yuelan and Jiang Ruoxin would never do that; especially Ji Yuelan who must have charged at Zhang Tie if she knew that he had come back. She would never hide herself; because it was not what her personality usually went. Perhaps Jiang Ruoxin wanted to play hide-and-seek with him. Zhang Tie really wondered what were these women thinking of.

Before Zhang Tie finished his supper, the waiter had already come back. After taking a look at the blue crystal coin under the bowl of soup, he swallowed his saliva. Then he became a bit hesitant to say something.

“Just go ahead. I will not blame you even if the message is not precise!”

“Erm, I’ve had a friend ask about it in other boites and inns just now. We’ve got a message. There’s indeed a place being related to Naturesound Valley in Clouddragon Mountain Range. However, it’s not called Naturesound Valley...”

“Hmm?” Zhang Tie put down his glass as he slightly raised his eyebrows and asked, “Go ahead, why that place is related to Naturesound Valley; yet is not called Naturesound Valley?”

“Yes, sir!” the waiter nodded as he plucked his courage and continued, “According to a guest in another hotel, there’s a place called Naturesound Cave in Clouddragon Mountain Range. Naturesound Cave is a marvelous place. There’s a river under Naturesound Cave. On the first day and the 15th day of each month, the water in the subterranean river will surge and run back into the cave. When water surges in the cave, it will hit stalagmites and stony walls and produce metallic sounds and string music at a fixed rhythm just like the sound of nature. Therefore, local people call it Naturesound Cave. Outside Naturesound Cave, there’s indeed a valley; however, it’s not called Naturesound Valley. Actually, that valley doesn’t have a name. Because of Naturesound Cave, local people used to call it Cave Valley or Fish Valley!”

“How did the guest know about that Naturesound Cave?”

“He’s a drug dealer who used to travel across Clouddragon Mountain Range. It’s said that he reached that place when he got lost in the mountain. There was a village. Those villagers lived in half seclusion and were very hospitable. When he reached that village, it was the first day of the month, therefore, the villagers caught much fish outside Naturesound Cave to treat him. Whenever water runs back into the cave, some 20-cm long slim fish will be flushed into the brook in the valley along the subterranean river. Those fish are tender and don’t have fishbones. They’re rare local delicacies. On the first day and the 15th day of each month, local villagers would catch fish outside the cave. He heard all these from local people. Later on, he even took a look outside the cave out of curiosity and found it was true!”

“What about the situation facing the valley?”

“The valley has nice scenery. However, its walls are steep and don’t a path. Ordinary people could barely enter it. A hermit might have built a manor in the valley...”

“Where is that place?”

“It’s over 130 miles away from Yuhua Peak, Clouddragon Mountain Range in the north. Dongliang City is over 250 miles away from that place in the west. Plentifulgrains Town is over 5,000 miles away from that place...”

When the waiter said that, Zhang Tie instantly found Yuhua Peak and Dongliang City on the map in his mind. The two places could be easily discovered on the map. After that, he drew a line from the two places respectively according to the distances between them and that valley. Closely after that, he got the location of Naturesound Cave and the valley out that cave.

“Well, I don’t care whether that place is Naturesound Valley or not, you have that thing on the table...”

When the waiter became thrilled, Zhang Tie had already stood up and walked towards the gate of the boite.

Not knowing why, as he had already found those women of Yin-Yang Sect for a few days, when he heard about Naturesound Cave, he instinctively felt that that valley outside Naturesound Cave was the right place that he was looking for.

After leaving the boite and Plentifulgrains Town, Zhang Tie instantly flew towards the place that he had fixed on the map in his mind at a speed of about 10,000 m per second.

Only after 10 minutes, soon after dark fell, Zhang Tie had already arrived at the air zone which was tens of thousands of meters high above the valley.

The valley was over 30 miles in length. It was verdant and had a great scenery. It was indeed an untraversed region. A brook was winding its way through the valley. Both sides of the valley were steep cliffs. Zhang Tie instantly saw a skyline above a cliff in the east side of the valley.

Soon after he arrived there, Zhang Tie had seen a woman in purple skirt and metal wings flying into the skyline and disappeared...

Zhang Tie had seen that woman in Cyanlotus City. She was a disciple of Yin-Yang Sect.

When he caught sight of the skyline, Zhang Tie rolled his eyes. With a smirk, he instantly activated his Invisible Shen Bead and disappeared into the sky...n//0VeLbIn

Chapter 1914: Taking Them Once In All

After entering the skyline, Zhang Tie found it was such a hidden place. The skyline was not straight, but as curved as a snake. It was a crevice above the skyline. There were some vigorous pine trees in the crevice. Those pine trees were twisting their bodies in the crimson crevice and reached part of their bodies out of the skyline. They desired the sunshine, rain and dew. Those pine needles made this place more hidden. It was indeed difficult for commoners to find this place.

The entire crevice was higher than 20 m. The narrowest place could allow two people to pass shoulder to shoulder. Under the crevice, Zhang Tie could see an artificially paved path and stone stairs. However, the path seemed to have existed for long. Few people might use that path. Therefore, the stone stairs in shadows had been covered with mosses.

After passing by this crevice, Zhang Tie found the scenery suddenly became open. It was another spectacular scenery.

The mountain peaks on both sides formed a huge gap here. Being surrounded by mountain peaks and cliffs, this place looked very tranquil. A patch of pine trees covered hundreds of thousands of square meters on the plain land at the hillside. There was a classical mansion in the pine trees. It contained more than 30 rooms. Trees made pleasant shades; fresh flowers could be seen everywhere. A lively mountain brook flew by the west side of the mansion. It twisted among the rooms like a jade belt, leading to some more classical and natural stone bridges and water ponds in the mansion. After then, the brook flew towards the pine woods in the far. Finally, it turned into a mist and flew off the hillside, spraying over the valley, making this place more mysterious...

This place was indeed a good place for living in seclusion. It was elegant, tranquil and natural. It was far away from bustles. Even Zhang Tie wondered how did these women of Yin-Yang Sect find this place.

At this moment, he vaguely saw some female disciples of Yin-Yang Sect in this mansion and the pine woods.

Some female disciples were playing zither in the patch of pine woods; some were reading books in the pavilion of that mansion. Some were in cultivation with crossed legs. They all looked very leisure...

In such a secluded place, when he caught sight of so many beauties living here, he almost thought they were fairy maidens in the mountain.

After the maiden in purple skirt and metal wings entered this place, she directly landed in front of an attic in the mansion before folding her metal wings.

"Master, I've got back the herbal medicine seeds," the maiden spoke to a person inside the attic with great respect.

When the maiden spoke, Zhang Tie had already secretly followed her to the front of this attic.

At this moment, the gate on the first floor of the attic was opened from inside as a top beauty with a coquettish frame in white skirt walked out of there.

Of course, she was Su Haimei.

"Great. We can plant those seeds tomorrow. Zi Yi, you and Bingbing will be in charge of the herbal garden from now on..."

"Yes, master!"

"Have you met any trouble on the way back from Dongliang City?"

"Smooth on the way. I didn't find being traced by anyone!"

"Hmm, you can leave..."

"Yes, master!"

The maiden called Zi Yi then left there. Su Haimei stood outside the gate and gazed at the valley in the far for a short while. After that, she heaved a sigh slightly before turning around and going back into her room.

Zhang Tie, being invisible, had already flashed into the room before Su Haimei entered her room.

The room was simple, elegant, warm and cozy. It was filled with the special qi of women.

There was another woman in the room——Ying Feiqiong.

Ying Feiqiong was sitting on a soft bed. There was a small teapoy on the soft bed. On the teapoy was a checkerboard. Apparently, the two women were playing the game of go over there.

“Haimei, why do you take the trouble to do this?” Ying Feiqiong sighed as she watched Su Haimei with a complex expression, “You stood 20 seconds outside the door. Haimei, your mind is somewhat unhinged. Now that you miss him so much, why do you insist on hiding yourself from him?”

After returning to the opposite of Ying Feiqiong, Su Haimei sighed slightly and said, “In the eyes of outsiders, Yin-Yang Sect is a notorious heresy that everyone wants to exterminate; you and I are shameless sluts. If we’re on his side, how would the other people judge him? How would those people in Dragon Emperor City and Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace judge him? If he keeps sluts like us on his side, he would become regarded as being indulged in lewdness. After killing two demon emperors in Nine Heavens Big Domain, he has been the No.1 powerhouse in Motian Realm and is going to have his heyday with great prestige and a bright future. At this moment, we couldn’t do any help to him; instead, we could only stain his fame. If so, why not just enter secluded cultivate here? We will stay away from the secular world and don’t have to worry about being chased by others. Neither will we be stained with secular affairs. Isn’t that what we wanted before...”

“He should be crystal clear of our moral standing. How could he mistake us as sluts?”

“I know he won’t mistake us as that kind of person. He saved us once in Cyanlotus City; he saved us in Deities Plain again. From then on, we don’t have to live in such a flurried way anymore. Additionally, he saved you and me for the third time in Mountain Ruins. I don’t know how to pay him back. On this occasion, how could we ruin his reputation?” Su Haimei said as she took a look at Ying Feiqiong.

“Feiqiong, if you want to find him, just leave here. I’m afraid that you might not be able to hold another man in your heart anymore. When in Cyanlotus City, you had already been moved by him. However, you didn’t fall in love with him as deeply as I did at that moment. However, when you and I were saved by Zhang Tie in Mountain Ruins that day, I found you’ve completely fallen in love with him...”

“Haimei...” Ying Feiqiong’s face flushed at once.

“Feiqiong, you don’t have to speak anymore. We’re all women. We’ve been staying with each other since we joined Yin-Yang Sect. I understand you just like how you understand me. If you meet him, don’t tell him that I’m here...”

“Haimei, I’m not that kind of a person. Now that you like to stay here. I would like to stay here too...”

At this moment, the two women both became silent. After heaving a sigh, they both watched the checkerboard with complex looks as they didn’t feel like continuing playing it.

At this moment, Zhang Tie finally knew why those women of the Yin-Yang sect didn’t wait for him in Dragon Emperor City; instead, they all hid here. As a result, Zhang Tie was moved and was at a loss of whether to cry or laugh. He had not imagined that the reason that they left him was for the sake of his fame. They didn’t want his fame to be ruined because of them.

Listening to their talk, Zhang Tie realized that they might have not known that their secluded place had been exposed to the public. ‘Was it Jiang Ruoxin who went to Dragon Emperor City and left those words to him without their consent?’

"It's late. Ruoxin, go to bed first. I'm going back to sleep..." After losing interest in playing the game of go, Ying Feiqiong left the soft bed and picked herself up. Then, she had a farewell to Su Haimei and intended to leave.

"Hmm, I will walk you out..." Su Haimei also picked herself up.

At this moment, Zhang Tie's voice appeared in the room, "Are you going to leave now? But I've just come here!"

After hearing his voice, Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong who had just picked themselves up were instantly frozen.

At this moment, Zhang Tie showed up and stood right in front of them.

"Your... Your Majesty..." Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong almost didn't believe in their eyes. But Zhang Tie was indeed in front of them. They felt like having a dream.

"Hahaha, I'm looking for you hard!" Zhang Tie watched them with a smile as he continued, "Call Ji Yuelan and Jiang Ruoxin here. I've not seen them for long..."

After a few minutes, when Ji Yuelan and Jiang Ruoxin entered this room and saw Zhang Tie, their expressions became frozen just like their masters did.

The door was then closed from inside. At this moment, the other female disciples of Yin-Yang Sect might not have known about Zhang Tie's arrival. As a result, the five people were in weird silence at once. The four women exchanged glances with each other silently as their faces blushed strangely.

Previously, as masters and apprentices, it was normal for the four women to stay together. However, when Zhang Tie was among them, a bizarre chemical reaction happened.

When embarrassment, amorous feeling, restlessness and excitement mixed with the subtlety in the air, the odd atmosphere became as rich as a sage-level powerhouse's realm.

To be honest, it was Zhang Tie's first time to face such a situation. However, as a man, he had to break the silence first.

Facing this situation, Zhang Tie had no other choice but to cut the knot.

"Ahem, ahem..." After coughing twice slightly, Zhang Tie glanced over the four women's faces and said, "I'm going to leave soon. I'm going to leave Motian Realm. I might not come back for a long period of time. I'm especially here to bid a farewell to you. But now I've got a question to ask you. Who would like to leave Motian Realm together with me and be my woman? After marrying me, you have to be contented with me. Consider about it. If you don't like it, just take it as a farewell. From then on, we will separate from each other without any concern. If any of you like it, just go upstairs for me..."

After leaving these words, Zhang Tie went upstairs and left the four women downstairs.

"Master, I'd like to leave with Zhang Tie. I'd like to be with him wherever he goes..." Ji Yuelan instantly stood up and went upstairs with strong will closely after Zhang Tie.

“As a disciple of Yin-Yang Sect, it’s too tired for me to live in Motian Realm. I want to change my living style...” Jiang Ruoxin said with a smile. After stroking the hair near her temples, she stood up and followed Ji Yuelan upstairs too, leaving Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong downstairs.

Faces flushed, they couldn’t move their feet.

Finally, after a few minutes, Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong exchanged a glance with each other. Then, they gritted their teeth and went upstairs at the same time...

When Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong went upstairs, Zhang Tie’s voice finally drifted from upstairs.

Closely after his voice, faint bizarre energy covered the attic immediately. As a result, none of the sounds upstairs could be heard from outside...

At this moment, the moon had already come out; however, it hid in clouds bashfully in the blink of an eye...

Chapter 1915: Returning to Emperor NvWa City

noVe]lb(1n

In Tigerback Town, Emperor NvWa City, at noon of September 21st, the 3593rd year of Emperor NvWa’s Calendar...

Compared to that a few years ago, Tigerback Town seemed to not have changed at all. It was as boisterous as before and was covered with doctors and odd patients from the rest places across Motian Realm. Walking in the streets and watching those roadside clinics and inns, Zhang Tie sighed with emotion. The experience that he received medical treatment here before felt like happening yesterday.

There were so many passers-by in the streets of Tigerback Town. Walking among the people, Zhang Tie drifted with the current. Besides his outstanding personality which could arouse the attention of the passers-by, he was just like a young master of major clan in Motian Realm.

Many people who traveled to Emperor NvWa City like him would come to Tigerback Mountain to experience the exotic local customs and try their luck. They dreamed of making friends with the No. 1 doctor in Motian Realm. Of course, nobody would refuse being enrolled as Bian Heng’s apprentice if possible.

When in Tigerback Mountain, Zhang Tie was very low-key. Many people didn’t even know Butler Jin in Tigerback Mountain who was in charge of the fishing ground at that time, not to mention about 7-8 years later.

After passing by the familiar streets in Tigerback Town, Zhang Tie entered the fish market of Tigerback Town.

The fish market was very boisterous in the morning. When it came to noon; especially near lunch, many stalls in the fish market would be removed.

The atmosphere of the fish market was unpleasant. It was fishy and wet everywhere. There were bloodstains left by aquatic lives on the ground between sewage pools. As a result, people could barely find a clean place to put their feet. Those with a bit of social status would not like to come to this place. However, Zhang Tie didn't care about that. Now that he could come here 7-8 years ago, he would also come here now.

When he strolled in the fish market, Zhang Tie found that more people were watching him than before with curious looks.

"These young masters of major clans must have not seen a fish market. He must be here out of curiosity..."

"Maybe you're right..."

"Perhaps he's here for medical treatment. He might want to take a look at the marine medicines here..."

Many people in the fish market couldn't stand to whisper to each other after seeing Zhang Tie.

Du's fish store was still in the original place as its signboard and layout remained unchanged. The only difference was that there were some more assistants in the sheds whom Zhang Tie had not seen before.

When a waiter saw Zhang Tie walking towards Du's fish store, he instantly approached him and asked politely with a big smile, "Young master, who are you looking for?"

Given Zhang Tie's look, the assistant realized that he was not here to buy fish. Therefore, he directly asked him who he wanted to see.

"I'm looking for Boss Du. Is he here or not?" Zhang Tie asked politely.

"Ah, our boss is inside," the assistant answered as he instantly turned around and shouted towards the lobby of Du's Fish Store, "Boss, someone is looking for you..."

"Who's that? What are you shouting for?" Du Dahai asked as he walked out of the lobby. When he caught sight of Zhang Tie who was watching him with a smile, he was shocked at once as he greeted, "But... Butler Jin..."

"Hahaha, long time no see, Boss Du is still as bright as before."

"Please, please, Butler Jin, please come in." Du Dahai who was denouncing his assistant instantly changed greatly. He immediately invited Zhang Tie to come in as he bowed constantly like a waiter in a boite. After inviting Zhang Tie into his store, Du Dahai asked Zhang Tie to take a seat courteously. Then, he hurriedly made a cup of tea for Zhang Tie and served him a fruit tray and a tray of pastries. He then rubbed his hands before Zhang Tie with tension as he said, "Erm... Butler Jin, please forgive me for that. As I didn't know you were coming, I really couldn't prepare anything good for you. It's too shabby. Please forgive me for that; please forgive me for that!"

"Boss Du, never mind. I will leave after having a brief talk with you!" Zhang Tie said, smiling.

"Ah? Butler Jin, are you not satisfied with what we've done for you?" Boss Du instantly became anxious as he hurriedly explained, "These years, Butler Jin, although you didn't supervise us yourself, Du's Fish Store always set free spike shrimps according to your request these years. We dared never be slack about it at all. I kept a close eye on them here. My eldest son just stayed in the port outside Emperor NvWa City. The money that Butler Jin left to us have not been used up. We've got accounts for trading and releasing spike spears for each month. Butler Jin, do you want to take a look at it?"

"No need. I'm very satisfied with what you've done!" Zhang Tie said as he took off a finger ring from his finger and gave it to Boss Du. He then said, "Here's my bit appreciation. Please take it, Boss Du!"

The finger ring was just an average space-teleportation finger ring; however, it contained a few boxes of blue crystal coins and a piece of silver secret item. All these items were left by Red and Blue Devils. Zhang Tie took a trivial part of them and used them to appreciate Boss Du's hard efforts over these years. Without Du's Fish Store's hard efforts, Zhang Tie could never acquire all the fruits of redemption from the gratitude of spike shrimps over the past few years. Fruits of redemption from the gratitude of spike shrimps were of great significance to Zhang Tie. Therefore, besides meeting Bian Heng in Emperor NvWa City, Zhang Tie came to Du's Fish Store to expression his appreciation to Boss Du by the way.

Boss Du didn't know Zhang Tie's real identity until now. He still thought that Zhang Tie was a butler in Tigerback Mountain. During the past a few years, Boss Du thought that Zhang Tie was in secluded cultivation and went out for other works; he dared not ask about the reason that Zhang Tie didn't come to his fish store anymore.

Watching Zhang Tie giving him a space-teleportation finger ring, Boss Du felt strange about it at the beginning as he wondered why Zhang Tie would gift him an average-looking finger ring. When he took it and injected his spiritual energy into it, his face turned pale with fear at once.

This finger ring and the items inside it were not even a hair off a bull's back. However, Boss Du couldn't make them even in ten generations.

"It's too precious. It's too precious. Butler Jin, please take it back..."

"Just take it. Even over 1,000 times more than this bit of things couldn't match a hair of him. Don't be such polite with him..."

Before Zhang Tie opened his mouth, a weird voice had came out of the gate. Closely after that, Bian Heng had walked in with a painful look with his little eyes on Zhang Tie.

Watching Bian Heng coming in, Boss Du was almost scared daylights out of him. As he had lived in Tigerback Town for many years and even once saw Bian Heng from afar, he had a clear memory of Bian Heng's image. He would never forget Bian Heng's look until death.

Watching Bian Heng coming in, Boss Du started to quiver all over as he stammered, "Bian... Bian... Bian Sage..."

"I even want to find you in Tigerback Mountain after leaving here; unexpectedly, you came here first!" Zhang Tie told Bian Heng.

"Qin Mu had known that the moment you came to Tigerback Town. He noticed me instantly. I've only got one head. How dare I let Your Majesty Dragon Emperor come to see me? Of course, I'd come here first!" Bian Heng said in a weird tone. His temperament remained unchanged.

After hearing their talk, Boss Du became petrified.

“Am I that kind of person?” Zhang Tie shrugged as he asked Bian Heng.

“Humph, it’s hard to tell what’s going on in the minds of other people!” Bian Heng replied with a cold harrumph.

“Let’s go. Let’s talk about it in Tigerback Mountain. Don’t frighten people here...” Zhang Tie said as he stood up and walked outside.

“I frighten people or you frighten people...”

“Of course you...”

“Humph...”

When they came outside the fish store, the two people instantly disappeared with a flash.

Watching the two people suddenly disappear, Boss Du quivered once all over as he instantly realized that the finger ring that Zhang Tie gifted him was still in his hand.

Boss Du hurriedly ran out of the parlor and looked around. However, the two people had long gone.

Just now Bian Heng was talking with Zhang Tie secretly with battle qi in the latter half. Boss Du didn’t hear it at all. He only heard that Bian Heng asked him to accept Zhang Tie’s gift...

He couldn’t stand taking a look at the space-teleportation finger ring and those items inside it; closely after that, Boss Du quivered once again, despite at noon, as he hurriedly clenched the finger ring and looked around like a thief. Then, he returned to his fish store and hid the space-teleportation finger ring in his inner pocket...

...

Chapter 1916: Zhang Tie’s Lure

“Are you here for Tang Mei?”

After arriving at Bian Heng’s residence in Tigerback Mountain, Zhang Tie and Bian Heng took a seat in the parlor. Before Zhang Tie had a mouthful of tea water, Bian Heng had turned around and asked him in a sharp tone as if Zhang Tie was a thief.

‘What an old douchebag!’ Zhang Tie swore inside.

“Am I that kind of person?” Zhang Tie refuted Bian Heng. n(.o).v/-e-/ℓ--b-(1//n

“If you’re not such a kind of person, who else in the world is such a kind of person?” Bian Heng “scanned” Zhang Tie from his toe to his head with his shrewd eyes, causing the latter to break out gooseflesh all over. After that, Bian Heng said with a sneer as if he wanted to say ‘don’t try to cheat me!’, “When I was in Emperor NvWa City, I’ve heard that you asked Force Emperor to cancel his wanted circular of the remains of Yin-Yang Sect before showing off your power in Deities’ Plain. Those elders and immortal generals of Yin-Yang Sect must taste good these days. It’s said that all of the women of Yin-Yang Sect are rare beauties. After winning that battle and becoming such prestigious in Motian Realm in an instant, whether did you take in those women of Yin-Yang Sect by the way so that they could marry you for the rest of their lives? Humph, humph, you really have a great appetite. Those women of Yin-Yang Sect are masters and apprentices or sisters. You really didn't care about that?"

"I don't know what you are talking about!" Zhang Tie said righteously with a solemn look.

"Stop talking nonsense!" Bian Heng who had just sat down instantly sprung up as if there was a spring under his butts. He then pointed at Zhang Tie and said with excitement with froth at his mouth corners, "If I am wrong, I will dig out my eyes and gift them to you. Even though you've survived the battle in Deities' Plain, you must have suffered a great loss after activating your battle god bloodline. But look at you, you're glowing with health. Additionally, a fantastic yin qi reaches straight to your skull. The fantastic yin qi could fix the loss of your yang qi. The harmony between yin and yang could nourish your qi and blood, battle qi and guts. You said you had not pushed those women of Yin-Yang Sect onto the bed, tell me where does this fantastic yin qi come from? Did you take any tonic or change your sex? Only virgins of Yin-Yang Sect who have cultivated Three-Lives Sutra could transfer their purest fantastic yin essence of Three-Lives Sutra into your body. Do you think I don't know about it..."

Bian Heng then glanced at Zhang Tie for a short while with his little eyes again as if he was discerning something carefully. Then, he continued, "These wisps of fantastic yin qi should have invaded your body for over one month. Definitely less than two months. Because these wisps of fantastic yin qi have not completely combined with each other. Two wisps of fantastic yin qi are stronger. They should belong to the two elders of Yin-Yang Sect; they're wind immortal generals. The other 13 wisps of fantastic yin qi are relatively weaker; they're between that of fierce immortal generals and water immortal generals. Now there might only be about 10 female immortal generals in Yin-Yang Sect. You've pushed all of them onto the bed and made them exclusive meat to you, leaving no soup for others. How dare you say you don't know about it?"

'F*ck, Bian Heng's eyes are really unusual. I wonder what secret method is this old guy cultivating. How could his eyes be such sharp!'

In Bian Heng's piercing eyes, Zhang Tie's secret was unveiled completely. Therefore, Zhang Tie's face flushed with a tinge of embarrassment. However, Zhang Tie was more shameless than before. No matter what Bian Heng said, he just shrugged and didn't admit it. "No matter what, it's just your guess. I've not admitted it!"

"Humph!" Bian Heng replied with a cold harrumph as he sat back and continued, "When you helped Tang Mei pass my test, I had already realized that you had some purpose. Few women in Motian Realm could match Tang Mei's beautiful look. You're throwing a long line to catch a big fish. Given her physique, if she cultivates secret skills of Three-Lives Sutra, her fantastic yin qi could fix all your losses. However, it's too late for you to come here now. Tang Mei has long left Tigerback Mountain."

Zhang Tie didn't talk about Tang Mei anymore. He didn't even want to know where Tang Mei was. No matter what, if he continued to talk about Tang Mei at this moment, Bian Heng would definitely make it more inexplicable. Zhang Tie was really not here for Tang Mei this time. If Tang Mei was here, he just wanted to bid farewell to her by the way.

Zhang Tie remained silent. After that, he took out a finger ring from his portable container and gave it to Bian Heng.

“What? You want to bribe me?” Bian Heng asked as he squinted at the finger ring.

Zhang Tie said calmly, “Take a good look at this finger ring. It should belong to Zhong Ziqi. He should be one of your partners that you talked about. He dropped it in Infinite Immortal Prison. It contains the secret method that he cultivated, some objects and immortal outfits that he collected. You had him safeguard the entrance of Infinite Immortal Prison and study the magical formation over there. However, when he was raided by Six-Armed Demon Emperor and some demon powerhouses, he might know that he couldn’t survive that disaster. Therefore, he threw this space-teleportation finger-ring into Infinite Immortal Prison in case that these items fell in the hands of demon emperor and demons. I don’t know whether Zhong Ziqi has any descent or apprentice. Please hand these items to proper ones.”

Hearing Zhang Tie’s words, Bian Heng changed his face. He then reached out his hand and took that finger-ring. After taking a glimpse inside spiritually, his hand had started to quiver slightly as he said, “Right... right... these items indeed belong to... Ziqi... besides his secret method of cultivation, there’s also the vial of all-win pills that I once gifted him...”

When he saw the remains of his friend whom he had got acquainted with for half-life and recalled that his friend had determined to fight the demons to death before the fight, he couldn’t help but drop off tears with excitement. Previously, they thought these items had been perished together with Zhong Ziqi or had fallen in the hands of demons. Unexpectedly, they were finally in Zhang Tie’s hand.

“The magical formation at the entrance of Infinite Immortal Prison is just a door leading to Infinite Immortal Prison. There’s a real gate behind this door—the Infinite King Roc Sutra. Only those who have cultivated Infinite King Roc Sutra could enter the gate. Even though you could break the magical formation and enter it, you would also die there for sure. If someone among you has promoted to an immortal emperor, he might be able to stay inside for a short while; otherwise, anyone below immortal emperor who doesn’t cultivate Infinite King Roc Sutra would enter the fatal trap the moment you pass the magical formation at the entrance. You would be crushed into powder by the strength of the net of Infinite Immortal Prison...” After saying these words, Zhang Tie opened his mouth. Closely after that, the Infinite Immortal Prison flew out of his mouth and fell in his hand and started to rotate there. In the blink of an eye, it became about 30 cm in height while giving out odd lights.

“It’s... it’s... it’s Infinite Immortal Prison.” Bian Heng became panic-stricken when he saw the Infinite Immortal Prison in front of his eyes.

“Yes, it’s Infinite Immortal Prison. When I was dragged into Infinite Immortal Prison, I knew that the last King Roc had left some spiritual image in the Infinite Immortal Prison in order to wait for a person who cultivated Infinite King Roc Sutra to be the new owner of the Infinite Immortal Prison.”

Bian Heng finally understood it. Even though they had discovered Infinite Immortal Prison, it was useless. Because they couldn’t enter Infinite Immortal Prison at all. They were racking their minds to work out the solution to enter Infinite Immortal Prison. However, they didn’t know that they would die for sure if they really broke the magical formation at the entrance. Fortunes and misfortunes really coexisted with each other. Commoners could never see it through.

“When you were in Tigerback Mountain at the beginning, why not tell me that you cultivated Infinite King Roc Sutra?” Bian Heng asked with fury when he recalled it.

“When you met me today, you didn’t tell me who’s your wife either!” Zhang Tie replied calmly. Bian Heng then stared at Zhang Tie once. However, Zhang Tie still stayed calm. “Everyone has secrets. You knew my situation at that time. I was chased by Versatile Demon Emperor. If I exposed the secret that I owned Infinite King Roc Sutra, I must be courting death! If it were you, would you say that?”

Bian Heng gradually became reassured before shaking his head.

“I’m especially here to bid farewell to you. After a few days, I will leave Motian Realm!”

“Ah, you can leave here?”

“The others might not make it. But don’t forget what secret method I cultivate. There’s a secret skill in Infinite King Roc Sutra that could help me find the way back. The entrance of the way is in the core of Mountain Ruins!”

“If you want to go back, just leave. Why do you tell me about that?”

Zhang Tie watched Bian Heng as he said with a smile, “I wonder whether you want to take a look outside Motian Realm. It’s a vast world. It owns endless secrets. What Motian Realm to that world was a cup of water to an ocean. Do you feel like staying in Motian Realm for the rest of your life...”

After hearing Zhang Tie’s words, Bian Heng became stunned as he asked, “What... what do you mean?”

“I mean, I can take you away from Motian Realm if you want.”

Zhang Tie finally exposed his purpose. As a top doctor and a sage-level immortal general, if Bian Heng could be bound to his chariot, Zhang Tie would get one more super able assistant and hatchet man when he returned to Taixia Country.

‘I can leave Motian Realm with him?’ Bian Heng became stunned at once...

“Don’t need to answer me now. You can consider it for a few days. If you want to leave here, you can contact me before the first day of next month...”

Chapter 1917: Fathomless Emperor NvWa

‘Busy ones are always vulgar!’

Zhang Tie suddenly muttered on the way towards Emperor NvWa’s Palace incessantly.

Bian Heng didn’t promise to leave Motian Realm with Zhang Tie at once. As he had lived in Motian Realm for so many years, he was nostalgic for the good old days; additionally, there might meet unpredictable great dangers on the way back to Taixia Country. Therefore, it was normal for him to be hesitant before going to the strange world.

Compared to the world where Zhang Tie came from, Motian Realm was indeed too small. It lacked many splendid things. However, the size was just a relative concept. Many people might not leave the village, that city or that palace within many high walls where they were born for their whole lives; however, they could still live peacefully, calmly or happily.

No matter what, Motian Realm was endless compared to a village, a city or a palace within many high walls.

As Zhang Tie understood Bian Heng, he spared some days for him to consider it. They could contact at any time. After Bian Heng made a decision to leave Motian Realm, he could come for Zhang Tie at any time within the time limit.

After doing all these, Zhang Tie left Tigerback Mountain. He didn't have a meal or enough sleep in Tigerback Mountain. Actually, he didn't even have a mouthful of tea water over there.

When Zhang Tie was going to leave, Bian Heng suddenly asked him, "Where are you going?"

"Emperor NvWa's Palace!" Zhang Tie answered.

However, after hearing the three words, Bian Heng who had just recovered his composure instantly jumped up and started to blame Zhang Tie. His froth was almost sprayed over Zhang Tie's face.

"How dare you urge that you haven't cast greedy eyes on Tang Mei? You're going to follow here there soon after she arrives at Emperor NvWa's Palace. Do you think that I don't know what you're thinking about?"

"Old douchebag! I'm not as dirty as you. I'm going there to meet Emperor NvWa. When I finished my secluded cultivation a few days ago, I've already promised Emperor NvWa that I was going to visit her in a few days!"

"Really?" Bian Heng watched Zhang Tie with deep confusion.

Zhang Tie felt unnecessary explaining it to Bian Heng because his moral standing had "gone bankrupt" in Bian Heng's eyes to a certain degree.

"Listen, no matter what, Tang Mei is my apprentice. I can almost decide her marriage. If you want to ask her to be as same as those women of Yin-Yang Sect, I will never forgive you for that. Even though I cannot defeat you by force, I could at least drug you and make you sexually impotent. In the future, you could only watch women helplessly..." no ve-1b-In Seeing Zhang Tie off, Bian Heng continued to threaten him with his battle qi from Tigerback Mountain in case the latter couldn't hear it.

Bian Heng might be the only one who dared "threaten" Zhang Tie in Motian Realm now, but his method of "threat" was too weird.

'What an old douchebag!' Zhang Tie swore inside.

However, although Bian Heng was a bit weird, he was cunning more or less. Additionally, he was one of Zhang Tie's good friends in Motian Realm, despite the great difference between them in age. If he really couldn't meet this man in the future, Zhang Tie would definitely miss him.

...

Emperor NvWa City was large; however, given Zhang Tie's speed, it was not large.

As Bian Heng's weird voice was still lingering in his ears and he was sighing about his vulgar deeds with emotion, Zhang Tie had already seen Emperor NvWa's Palace on the horizon ahead at his terrifyingly high speed soon after leaving Tigerback Mountain. Additionally, Zhang Tie saw two people flying out of Emperor NvWa's Palace towards him, one in red, the other in green.

One of the two people was Shen Bijun, the deputy president of Emperor NvWa's Palace who was a bit fat with white hair and a ruddy complexion. Zhang Tie had met her in Dragon Emperor Pavilion soon after he finished his secluded cultivation. Shen Bijun was wearing a green longuette today.

Next to Shen Bijun was an old man in red clothing whom Zhang Tie had not seen before. Though he was bald, he looked pretty attractive. He was evidently fatter than Shen Bijun. Given his qi, he was also a sage-level immortal general.

A man in red indeed matched a woman in green well.

Watching them flying towards him, Zhang Tie didn't feel unusual. Given the ability of Emperor NvWa, if she didn't know that Zhang Tie was coming, it would be a joke.

When they were approaching each other, Zhang Tie instantly lowered his speed. Finally, he suspended in the air.

"Your Majesty, you're really faithful. Her Majesty Emperor NvWa has known that you're coming here. Therefore, she especially asked us to greet you here!" Shen Bijun instantly greeted Zhang Tie as she bowed towards Zhang Tie with that old man on her side soon after they arrived in front of Zhang Tie.

"Her Majesty Emperor NvWa is too polite. Now that I had promised Her Majesty Emperor NvWa to pay a visit to her in 2 months, of course, I must keep my promise..."

"Hahaha, His Majesty Dragon Emperor killed two demon emperors and shattered the f*cking army of 100,000 demons in Nine-Heavens Big Domain. That's too cool! You've really strengthened the morality of humans. I've long wanted to pay a visit to Your Majesty Dragon Emperor. Your Majesty is really more heroic than your fame." The old man next to Shen Bijun burst out laughing.

After hearing the old man's voice, Zhang Tie instantly recalled something as his heart suddenly palpitated once. Closely after that, Zhang Tie widened his eyes. Watching that old man, he asked Shen Bijun, "This is..."

"This is Xiang Kui the deputy president of Emperor NvWa's Palace!" Shen Bijun introduced.

"Deputy president Xiang, did you find Versatile Demon Emperor's fatal formation accidentally 7 years ago and threw a Formation Broken Mine into its fatal formation to break it?" Zhang Tie suddenly asked him.

"Ah, how do you know that?" Deputy President Xiang watched Zhang Tie with a curious look as he stroked his bald head. "I got a powerful heavenly-level formation broken mine from Mountain Ruins. Soon after leaving Mountain Ruins, I had received the message from Her Majesty. She asked me to go to a region in Brokenstars Sea and break any fatal formation of demons that I found there with the formation broken mine. No matter what, those f*cking demons wouldn't do anything good to humans."

Therefore, I instantly threw the formation broken mine into the fatal formation. Your Majesty Dragon Emperor, if you know it, you must be nearby at that time!”

Zhang Tie became stunned. He instantly recognized Xiang Kui given his voice. However, unexpectedly, Xiang Kui saved him because of the order from Emperor NvWa.

‘How did Emperor NvWa know that I was in danger?’

When he recalled that Emperor NvWa asked Shen Bijun to give the Heavens-Measurement Ruler to him a few days ago, Zhang Tie instantly felt Emperor NvWa was fathomless.

With various thoughts in mind, Zhang Tie heaved a deep sigh and replied Xiang Kui, “I was in the fatal formation of Versatile Demon Emperor at that time. If not for your formation broken mine, I might have already been killed by Versatile Demon Emperor. Soon after hearing Deputy President Xiang’s voice, I’ve remembered the voice that I heard in the fatal formation. Unexpectedly, it was really Deputy President Xiang who saved me at that time...”

After hearing Zhang Tie’s explanation, Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui exchanged a glance with each other as they felt both surprised and undisturbed.

“Your Majesty Dragon Emperor, why were you trapped in the fatal formation of Versatile Demon Emperor at that time?” Shen Bijun asked Zhang Tie.

“I was chasing after Shi Zhongyu and Xia Yangming who joined Dark Emperor Immortal Palace at that time. After killing the two people in Brokenstars Sea, I fell in Versatile Demon Emperor’s trap. If not Her Majesty Emperor NvWa and Deputy President Xiang, I might have already died. After surviving that day, I even thought that it was an immortal emperor who helped me. Later on, when I met Force Emperor and Star Emperor, I found it was not them. Therefore, I became a bit confused. I was worried that the one who saved me could barely escape from Versatile Demon Emperor’s chase. I’ve not imagined that the one who helped me was in Emperor NvWa’s Palace!”

“Hahaha, it’s a coincidence; it’s just a coincidence!” Xiang Kui burst out laughing as he waved his hand and said, “I’ve not imagined that I could save Your Majesty with a formation broken mine. However, to be honest, the one who really saved Your Majesty that day was not me, but Her Majesty Emperor NvWa...”

“No matter what, Deputy President Xiang once saved my life. Please accept my bow!” Zhang Tie said as he cupped his hands and bowed towards Xiang Kui.

“You’re too polite. You’re too polite. Your Majesty, don’t make me embarrassed me anymore...” Xiang Kui was startled as he hurriedly dodged aside and dared not accept Zhang Tie’s courteous appreciation. Given Zhang Tie’s current social status, very few people across Motian Realm could accept his bow frankly.

Zhang Tie didn’t care whether Xiang Kui would dodge away or not. After insisting on finishing his bow, he asked Xiang Kui, “Deputy President Xiang, as you destroyed Versatile Demon Emperor’s plan that day. The latter would definitely take vengeance on you. How did you get rid of its chase that day?”

“Hey, hey, hey, I used to travel outside. With the life-saving heavenly immortal outfit and some other rare artifacts gifted by Emperor NvWa’s Palace, if I want to leave, even Versatile Demon Emperor couldn’t chase me!”

“How did Emperor NvWa know that I was in trouble in Brokenstars Sea?”

“Haha, as for this question, Your Majesty, you can ask Her Majesty Emperor NvWa about this question. Her Majesty would definitely tell you the answer!” Shen Bijun said with a smile.

Zhang Tie realized that Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui should know the reasons; however, they wouldn’t like to tell him here. Therefore, Zhang Tie didn’t ask them about it anymore. No matter what, he would meet Emperor NvWa after a while. He could ask her about that.

After greeting each other for a short while, they instantly got acquainted with each other. Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui then led Zhang Tie to Emperor NvWa’s Palace.

Emperor NvWa’s Palace was a city in Emperor NvWa City. It was such magnificent. Even though they were flying in the sky, they could still see the brilliant skyscrapers and crowded people on the ground. This place was the most excellent place in Motian Realm.

There were many layers of immortal generals in the periphery of Emperor NvWa’s Palace. With the guidance of Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui, Zhang Tie passed many layers’ guards in the air and came to the core region of Emperor NvWa’s Palace only after a short while.

Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui directly landed at the entrance of a palace with Zhang Tie. At the entrance of the palace, there were two fire-level immortal generals in golden immortal outfits who served as guards.

“Your Majesty, Her Majesty Emperor NvWa is waiting for you inside. Please come in!”

Chapter 1918: Drinking Tea

Shen Bijun and Xiang Kui were only responsible for greeting Zhang Tie. It was the treatment that Zhang Tie, as the incumbent Dragon Emperor and the No. 1 hero among humans in Motian Realm, should enjoy.

When he found that the two people didn’t intend to enter the palace in front with him, Zhang Tie realized that Emperor NvWa must want to have a talk with him alone. Therefore, he stepped onto the stairs and walked to the gate of the palace leisurely.

The two fire-level immortal generals who served as guards at the gate just pushed open the gate silently and allowed Zhang Tie to walk in.

The moment Zhang Tie entered it, he had become temporarily stunned. He felt like coming to another world. While being brilliant and magnificent from the outside, its inside was like another world. There was a beautiful garden inside the palace. Birds were chirping everywhere. The entire palace was filled with the fragrance of flowers with brilliant spring sunlight. The moment Zhang Tie entered the palace, he had seen some colorful butterflies flying round and round beside him. Some birds were chirping on those huge trees beside him.

Due to the sharp difference, Zhang Tie almost felt like entering the palace tree of Castle of Black Iron from the wild.

Cyan slabs extended to the deep place of the garden. Zhang Tie wanted to look inside with his lotus-flower eyes. However, after triggering his lotus-flower eyes, he found his lotus-flower eyes suddenly lost their effect here. The entire palace appeared to be filled with a mysterious space strength, which prevented him from peeping it with lotus-flower eyes. It felt like that he couldn't see through others' space-teleportation finger rings with his lotus-flower eyes.

'Is this palace a bizarre space-teleportation item?'

Although being a bit amazed, as he had Castle of Black Iron and seen too many odd similar rarities, Zhang Tie still stayed calm as he walked towards the deep place of the garden leisurely.

Autumn was going to come outside the palace; however, it was spring scenery in April inside the palace. Songs and flute tones could be heard everywhere among the flowers.

As he walked along the winding path, he saw a pavilion in a patch of apricot woods with fiery flowers. A woman in a snow-white skirt and black, smooth hair was sitting in the pavilion on her feet. She was fiddling with a small stove, boiling water and preparing a tea set...

When he caught sight of that maiden, Zhang Tie felt familiar with her although she didn't raise her head. As he gradually approached her, he saw the maiden raising her head and looking at him.

When the maiden raised her head, she dwarfed all the flowers in the garden at once.

That was a superbly beautiful face that could enable all the flowers to envy and cause all the men and women to fall in fascination.

'Tang Mei!'

'It's Tang Mei!'

Previously, Tang Mei was as beautiful as a fairy maiden. With delicate make-up, she even caused Zhang Tie to hold his breath slightly at this moment.

Zhang Tie was stunned as he came to a stop at once. Although he had already known that Tang Mei had returned to Emperor NvWa's Palace after leaving Tigerback Mountain, he didn't imagine that he could meet her here. What a coincidence!

"Ah, it's you?"

"Brother Jin, you called me Xiaomei in Tigerback Mountain. Only after a few years, you've become Your Majesty Dragon Emperor and shocked the entire Motian Realm with power. However, when you saw me again, you even don't feel like calling my name." Tang Mei instantly lowered her enthralling face. Following after, she heaved a sigh slightly with a plaintive expression. Watching her response, Zhang Tie felt pitiful of her.

When he saw Tang Mei at the beginning, he didn't look like this. After hearing that Tang Mei called him Brother Jin, Zhang Tie thought that Bian Heng had told Tang Mei all of his secrets.

Zhang Tie instantly felt a bit embarrassed. Her plaintive look made Zhang Tie feel guilty. He directly walked over there as he greeted, "Ahem... ahem... Xiaomei, why are you here?"

Zhang Tie said as he looked around. However, he could see nobody in the vicinity except apricot blossoms. "Does Emperor NvWa want to play any trick through Tang Mei after knowing that I got acquainted with her?" Zhang Tie mumbled inside as he stayed alert at any time.

"Of course, I'm here to wait for you, Brother Jin. Am I still Brother Jin's Xiaomei?" Tang Mei raised her face as she watched Zhang Tie with great expectation. At this moment, she was far from being plaintive; instead, she revealed a bit sly smile elegantly.

"Erm, of course, you're..." Zhang Tie didn't ask her about the whereabouts of Emperor NvWa when he found Emperor NvWa was not here. He just sat down opposite to Tang Mei and watched her seriously with the attitude "since I am already here in this situation, just take it easy". Perhaps because of her cancer, Tang Mei always looked a bit frail before. However, after being cured, she gave out brilliance all over just like morning glow. She was vibrant and healthy. Additionally, besides her health, given Zhang Tie's sensitive perception about women, he could even feel that Tang Mei's temperament had experienced subtle changes. She appeared to be a bit sly and profound. As a result, even Zhang Tie couldn't see through her.

"Brother Jin, do you like me to call you Brother Jin or Your Majesty Dragon Emperor?"

"Haha, I've told you that was not my original look at that time. Of course, that name is not my real name either. As we're frank and honest with each other now, my real name is Zhang Tie, But Xiaomei, you'd better not call me Your Majesty Dragon Emperor. As I'm a bit elder than you, just call me brother!" Zhang Tie said straightforwardly. n/-Ove13In

"Fine, I will call you brother then!" Tang Mei giggled pleasantly. Then, she elegantly made a cup of hot tea for Zhang Tie after finishing a set of procedures as she said, "Brother, please have a taste."

Even though Zhang Tie had no knowledge in this, he knew that the tea that Tang Mei made for him was absolutely not average. When the tea leaves were rolling in the cup of water, the mist that rose out of the cup formed a wash painting of a myriad of mountains, billows, clouds, sun and moon above the cup. Zhang Tie had not even heard about such a kind of tea, not to mention see it.

After seeing Tang Mei's eye hint, Zhang Tie picked his cup and had a mouthful of tea. Closely after that, he widened his eyes and revealed an unbelievable look.

Only after a small mouthful of tea water, Zhang Tie had felt a wisp of indescribable energy and Reiki spreading over his body through his throat, arousing resonance between his battle qi and the essential spiritual energy in his mind. At his chest, he felt as light as mixing water with milk as he almost floated in the air. Only with one mouthful of tea, he had almost been fascinated by it.

Zhang Tie had eaten various fruits. Many fruits tasted special and indescribable. However, after having a mouthful of tea, Zhang Tie felt that none of the fruits that he had eaten could match this tea water.

Watching the remaining tea water in the cup, Zhang Tie had another sip.

This time, the 15 wisps of fantastic yin qi inside his body which had been discovered by Bian Heng immediately integrated with each other with the effect of the tea water and spread over his guts, blood, veins, tendons and bones all over his body. The extreme Yin qi started to generate Yang qi and nourish all the cells over his body.

With another mouthful of tea water, Zhang Tie felt his body which had been suffering a loss after the battle in Deities' Plain because of triggering Battle Deity Bloodline was slowly recovering. Wisps of surging strength of qi, blood, veins, tendons, bones, marrows and spirit started to reappear inside his body and integrated with his body.

Watching Zhang Tie finish the cup of tea so fast, Tang Mei looked very happy. Before Zhang Tie asked for it, she had made the second cup of tea for her.

At this moment, Zhang Tie appeared to have forgotten about being reserved. Since he took the first cup of tea, his inexplicable instinct and aspiration had been awakened. He wanted to have some more. Therefore, when he saw Tang Mei make another cup of tea for him, he instantly took it and drank it up...

After the second cup of tea, the bright moon and the stars in his mind sea became 10 times more brilliant in a split second. He even felt the sun in his qi sea breaking out of his body and illuminating everything in the world...

Zhang Tie's body experienced a great change while being flushed by the tea water. At the same time, Zhang Tie's awareness sublimed to a bizarre ethereal realm.

Third cup...

Forth cup...

Fifth cup...

...

Eighth cup...

Ninth cup...

Unconsciously, Zhang Tie had already taken 9 cups of tea water. All of a sudden, he felt the hard city wall or invisible barrier in his head breaking into pieces and collapsing facing the impact of the surging tide...

Zhang Tie's awareness instantly entered a bizarre world.

That world was filled with colorful light balls, red, black, green, blue, grey and golden; some were like fireflies; some were like jade plates; some were like silk balls; some were like spraying rain drops; some were like hazy clouds. They all floated beside him, looming and changing at any time; some were appearing; some were disappearing; some were changing their shapes.

Those things in the world were definitely not be composed of four elements. Although Zhang Tie didn't know what those things were, he felt that those things might... might be... edible—Yes, edible; those things are like some food, which adapts to my current state. Different lights represent different energies. As long as I could eat them, I will become more powerful.

However, Zhang Tie didn't eat them; because he was shocked by this idea.

After being spirited, Zhang Tie opened his eyes at once...

In the blink of an eye, the brilliant garden had been in the dim light of night and covered with stars over the sky.

Zhang Tie instantly realized that he might have stayed for long in that state. He couldn't even sense time elapse...

However, Tang Mei was still there. Cupping her face by hands on the teapoy, she just watched Zhang Tie while flickering her eyes like a girl who was in her puberty.

When Zhang Tie opened his eyes, he instantly noticed that Tang Mei was watching him.

Zhang Tie blinked his eyes. Tang Mei imitated him and blinked her eyes too...

"Ah, how long I've been in this state?"

"Not too long. It's just one day and a half!" Tang Mei replied with a smile.

'One day and a half?'

Zhang Tie became stunned for a short while. Then, he looked at the empty cup before him and Tang Mei. He couldn't help swallowing his saliva and stammered, "What do I...drin...drink?"

"Nothing serious. It's just some tea leaves of Far-ancient Enlightening Tree being flushed with Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring..." Tang Mei said casually.

Chapter 1919: Unimaginable!

'Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring? Far-ancient Enlightening Tree?'

After hearing his words, Zhang Tie became stunned at once.

He had not imagined that he had drunk 9 cups of Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring which could help a sage-level immortal general promote to an immortal emperor just now unconsciously. No wonder the tea tasted such weird. It turned out that they were made with Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring. Although Zhang Tie had not heard the name of Far-ancient Enlightening Tree, he thought it must not be average.

Zhang Tie widened his eyes and watched Tang Mei was who smiling right in front of him, he felt that Tang Mei's image became blurry. This fascinating face appeared to be both close to him and far away from him. It was blurry and absolutely untouchable.

In an instant, Zhang Tie couldn't even utter any voice.

"Brother, will you blame me for having you drink Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring?" Tang Mei asked elegantly and bashfully as she watched Zhang Tie with her bright eyes, "But you've already promoted to a supreme-level immortal general now. If you don't drink Nine-Heavens Immortal Spring, you cannot break the deity-human barrier. If cannot break the deity-human barrier, you will not be able to sense the existence of the realm of thoughts and couldn't form your first immortal chakra."

'Deity-human barrier? Realm of thoughts? First immortal chakra?'

After hearing Tang Mei's words, Zhang Tie's head almost blew up. After a few seconds, Zhang Tie recovered his composure as he asked her in a muffled voice, "Did Emperor NvWa ask you to do that?"

After hearing Zhang Tie's question, Tang Mei suddenly smiled. She just watched Zhang Tie silently.

'Did Tang Mei hide some words or feel inconvenient to say it here facing the coercion?'

When he thought he was in Emperor NvWa's Palace, the nestle of Emperor NvWa, Zhang Tie's face turned gloomy at once as he instantly sprung up. After circling around the teapoy, he came to Tang Mei's side and instantly grasped Tang Mei's hand. Under Tang Mei's amazed eyes, he pulled her up to his side and stood in front of her with half of his body as if he was protecting her. After that, he looked around and said aloud with sparkling eyes, "Now that Her Majesty Emperor NvWa invited me here, why not deal with me aboveboard? Why do you have a girl as your shield? From now on, Tang Mei is my woman. She's under my protection. If Your Majesty Emperor NvWa doesn't show up and clarify it, I will take Tang Mei away from Emperor NvWa's Palace!"

As her hand was grasped by Zhang Tie, Tang Mei's cheeks suddenly turned red bashfully. She then couldn't help approaching Zhang Tie as she whispered, "Brother..."

"Don't be afraid. You don't have to say anything about it. I will help you solve your trouble. Emperor NvWa is strange and unpredictable. It's not a good idea for you to continue to stay here. I will take you away from here. Who dares to block me!" Zhang Tie said as he squinted his eyes and looked around while being ready to release his battle qi at any time.

Soon after waking up, Zhang Tie found that he had recovered the strength that he had consumed during the battle in Deities' Plain. Additionally, he even felt he was much more powerful than that in Deities' Plain before he activated his Battle God Bloodline. In the current state, he could activate his Battle God Bloodline at any time. He didn't believe that Emperor NvWa could defeat him in this state.

Zhang Tie thought Emperor NvWa who was hiding somewhere should show up and clarify everything at this moment as he had already been ready to overturn the table. However, unimaginably, after waiting for quite a while, he still didn't see anybody else in the vicinity of the pavilion. He didn't even hear any human voice.

Therefore, Zhang Tie's face flushed with embarrassment!

'Did Emperor NvWa really think that I dare not take Tang Mei away from here? Let's see it...'

"Let's go..." Zhang Tie's muffled voice broke the silence as he drew Tang Mei out of the pavilion towards the gate of the palace. When they walked out of the pavilion, Zhang Tie even released his protective battle qi to protect Tang Mei. Meanwhile, he warned her with battle qi, "After a while, if the battle breaks out, you just stay beside me. I will never allow the people of Emperor NvWa's Palace to hurt you. If they dare fight me and make you embarrassed today, I will destroy this f*cking palace..."

When being drawn away by Zhang Tie, Tang Mei just stayed with him with a blush like a young wife. Not until Zhang Tie said that he wanted to destroy this f*cking palace did Tang Mei lower her head and whisper shamefully, "Brother, don't you like this Four-Season Palace..."

“Oh, is this Four-Season Palace?” Zhang Tie answered casually as he drew her hand and walked in the garden. He didn’t notice Tang Mei’s odd expression; because he was focusing on the surroundings. He couldn’t even see through this garden with his lotus-flower eyes. If Emperor NvWa played any trick inside here, it was time for her to do it now. Although Zhang Tie appeared to walk here casually; actually, he was intense all over. He was not worried about it if it were him alone; however, with Tang Mei on his side, he had to behave meticulously.

“Hmm, we’re in Four-Season Palace; because the season in this palace could alter casually. Brother, don’t worry about that. Nobody dares raid us here...”

Zhang Tie instantly stopped his footsteps as he turned around and took a look at Tang Mei before asking her, “Why?”

“Because there’s nobody else in this Four-Season Palace except you and me. Nobody else in Motian Realm could enter this palace either...”

Zhang Tie became temporarily stunned as he asked her, “Doesn’t Emperor NvWa live in here?”

“Yes, she does...”

“Why did you say nobody else was here then?” Zhang Tie asked as he instantly became silent. He then watched Tang Mei with great shock in a daze.

At this moment, even an idiot could get Tang Mei’s point. Additionally, Zhang Tie was smart. He just had never thought about that possibility...

‘How could Tang Mei be Emperor NvWa?’

“I didn’t mean to cheat you, brother. I’ve already known you since you came to Motian Realm. As you came from an alien world, I was curious about you and always observed your traces and actions. When you were trapped in the fatal formation of Versatile Demon Emperor, as I couldn’t leave Emperor NvWa City, I could only have Deputy President Xiang go to save you. However, I’ve not imagined that you fell into the Yaohai Ocean after the fatal formation of Versatile Demon Emperor was broken and came to Emperor NvWa City after getting rid of the chase of the grand owner of Si Clan. In the beginning, I was just curious about you and wanted to observe you from a short distance; therefore, I especially encountered with you at the city gate of Emperor NvWa City...”

“That’s incredible!” Zhang Tie became dumbfounded. According to Tang Mei, she had known him since he entered Motian Realm; additionally, she was observing him all the way without being discovered. Although Tang Mei spoke it calmly, her words sounded almost shocked Zhang Tie to death. n((σ)-v/-e(-ℓ-(ℓ--l(.n

Tang Mei watched Zhang Tie with a smile quietly. Then, she casually waved her hand. Zhang Tie immediately felt the whole space was revolving; meanwhile, the surrounding scenery was changing in a split second. He instantly came to a room that covered hundreds of square meters. There were odd reliefs that were humans in the upper bodies and snakes in the lower bodies on the four walls. Additionally, a bizarre rune was flowing over the walls. Besides, a huge mirror higher than 5 m which appeared to be made of bronze was standing in the middle of the room...

Chapter 1920: Bloodline of Space Spirit

When they appeared in the room, they were standing in front of a huge mirror shoulder to shoulder. When Zhang Tie was guessing about the secret of this mirror, Tang Mei lightly reached out one fair finger and pointed at the mirror. Closely after that, the mirror started to give out the brilliance and revealed different scenes...

It revealed the image when Zhang Tie entered Motian Realm at the beginning. Back upwards, he was lying on the ground in a coma. Besides Zhang Tie himself, the surrounding scenery was also very clear.

When he gradually woke up, Zhang Tie attempted to move his hands and body. He then turned over himself hardly so that he could face the sky. The glaring sunlight instantly caused him to close his eyes. Zhang Tie then raised one hand and put in front of his eyes so as to cover the strong sunlight. n.)o(-v/-e.-l-.B(-1-)n

After a short while, an airboat appeared in the sky.

“Ah, boss, someone is downside there...”

“Make it clear whether he’s a human or a demon...”

“He’s a human. He’s definitely a human...”

“Carry him in. Check whether he’s still alive or not. A war broke out in Greenglaze City a few days ago. This man might have escaped out of there...”

Zhang Tie and Tang Mei could even hear clearly the sounds in the mirror...

Closely after that, Zhang Tie was carried in the airboat. Zhang Tie and Tang Mei could even see clearly the situation inside the airboat.

Zhang Tie was dumbfounded as he felt that he was watching a movie starred by him before the Catastrophe. Precisely, it was a 360-degree 3D film whose lens could be changed at any time.

After this scene, the fast forward mode was activated. It was not ordinarily fast, but relative to Zhang Tie’s strong spiritual energy. Almost in the blink of an eye, thousands of pictures had flashed by the mirror. Besides Zhang Tie, who could see the scenes in the mirror, ordinary supreme immortal generals couldn’t even see the scenes in the mirror at all.

Zhang Tie watched how he joined Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace; however he made a massacre in Heavenly Square City; how he flirted with Ji Yuelan in an air-floating mountain; how he left there with the others people of Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace in Heavenly Square City by airboat; how he killed red and blue devils in Brokenstars Sea; how he acquired the secret methods of Dragon Emperor and how he ascended to the throne of Dragon Emperor in the mirror...

Then, his trade with Star Emperor Immortal Palace in Dragon Emperor City, his cultivation in backroom, the first trial of strength with Star Emperor, saving the remains of Yin-Yang Sect in Cyanlotus City, cleaning the moles of Dark Emperor Immortal Palace in Dragon Emperor Immortal Palace and falling in the trap of Versatile Demon Emperor...

The scene that Zhang Tie was in the battle formation of the Versatile Demon Emperor was not displayed in the mirror. However, he could see how Versatile Demon Emperor applied its battle formation.

Then, Zhang Tie fell into the Yaohai Ocean and came to Emperor NvWa City, etc...

Watching these scenes, Zhang Tie felt like recalling his entire experience in Motian Realm. He was watching all that he had done in Motian Realm as an outsider. Therefore, he got an indescribable feeling.

The mirror could display too many details. Except for those periods when Zhang Tie was in Castle of Black Iron, in others' realms, and in Infinite Immortal Prison, everything about him could be reflected in the mirror.

Zhang Tie saw himself showing off his power in Deities Plain and coming out of Dragon Emperor Pavilion after secluded cultivation. When he saw him coming to Naturesound Valley, he almost broke down...

"Stop..." Zhang Tie couldn't help shouting aloud as he pinched Tang Mei's hand once.

The scene on the huge copper mirror came to a stop at once. In the mirror, Zhang Tie was staying upstairs with Ji Yuelan, Jiang Ruoxin, Su Haimei and Ying Feiqiong.

He couldn't watch it anymore. If not, Zhang Tie felt that he was going to be the hero in a legendary AV which had long disappeared in the long course of human history.

Although Zhang Tie was still confused and didn't know the details, he had already believed in Tang Mei's words——Tang Mei is Emperor NvWa; Emperor NvWa is Tang Mei.

"Brother, now do you believe my words?" Tang Mei still called Zhang Tie "brother" at this moment. Therefore, Zhang Tie felt a bit odd about it.

"Ahem... ahem... how... how could this copper mirror display these pictures?"

"This copper mirror is called Magical Motian Mirror!" Tang Mei explained with a faint smile while covering her small mouth by hand. After taking a look at Zhang Tie whose face blushed heavily due to embarrassment, she added, "Before being completely destroyed, it could display everything, everyone and everything that people do in a certain period of time. However, after the catastrophe in Motian Realm, it has lost such a holistic capability. It only keeps two abilities now: monitor the situation facing the chance of the space of Motian Realm; monitor everything that enters the Motian Realm from the other spaces, people or object. Without the Magical Motian Mirror, I cannot find Heavens-Measurement Ruler. Brother, I think you have already known it..."

"Erm... haven't you seen what happened in the following?" Zhang Tie asked her with fear. At this moment, Zhang Tie really hoped this odd copper mirror could divide movies into different classes like those before the Catastrophe. Although human society was bizarre, those kind of films with naked bodies and sex were not allowed to be broadcast in cinemas.

"No, I haven't..."

After hearing her simple reply, Zhang Tie heaved a deep sigh of relief at once as he said, "Glad to hear that. Glad to hear that. Erm... leave out of here!"

In the next second, Zhang Tie and Tang Mei reappeared in the pavilion of the garden where they were just now. This scene was also displayed in the mirror.

After coming back to the pavilion, Zhang Tie found he was still holding Tang Mei's hand. Therefore, he instantly loosened his hand. Tang Mei didn't mind that at all.

Zhang Tie and Tang Mei then returned to their seats.

"Tell me, what are all these?" Zhang Tie said with a helpless look as he scratched his head.

"Before telling you about that, I wonder whether I'm still that Xiaomei in your heart or not?"

"Is that your real name?"

"Previously, I only got one name——Emperor NvWa. But now I've got one more name——Tang Mei!"

"Why it's that name?"

"Brother, do you remember how you disguised as Donder and saved people in Cyanlotus City?"

"You mean you've imitated my family name?" Zhang Tie asked with eyes wide open as he had not imagined that Tang Mei got her name in this way.

"Hmm. I name it for myself. I feel it sounds good!" Tang Mei said with a smile.

"What about your parents and master? Haven't they given you a name?"

"Brother, does that space spirit in your private space have any master and parents?"

"You mean... you're a space spirit? The space spirit of Motian Realm?" At this moment, Zhang Tie was even more stunned than that when he heard that Tang Mei was Emperor NvWa. Meanwhile, Zhang Tie also knew why Tang Mei could have such a perfect look. Besides living beings like Heller, who else could look such perfect?

"Precisely, I'm a human, also the 6th generation of space spirit of Motian Realm. After Motian Realm was broken, starting from the second generation of space spirit, no pure space spirit could be produced in Motian Realm. Therefore, from then on, all the space spirits of Motian Realm had been mixed with the bloodlines of humans and become Emperor NvWa. We all shoulder the responsibilities of ruling Emperor NvWa City and protecting all the humans in Motian Realm..."
