

BLACK PLAIN 49

Chapter 49: The First Time (18+)

Minos and Elena kissed as if they were completely in love with each other, while their excitement gradually increased. One could hear the sound of their hearts beating rapidly, and certain natural reactions began to appear little by little.

They enjoyed each other's taste as they slowly went to the young Elena's room.

Eventually, Minos and Elena broke their passionate kiss and smiled at each other, breathing heavily. They had arrived at the young blonde's room when she finally said. "Take my clothes off."

After hearing this, Minos watched the young woman in front of him for a second, took a breath, and started to remove her dress.

He was not nervous, even though this was his first time. But this time, it was not because he had the knowledge of the sexual life of the God Henricus Longus. He didn't receive this kind of knowledge...

But because the other knowledge that he had received had transformed him into a more calm person. And even in situations like this, he would not lose that way of being.

Minos slowly pulled on the sexy blonde's short dress in front of him, gradually revealing Elena's flawless body. She wore erotic underwear, in black and red, which further sharpened her partner's instincts.

Meanwhile, Elena slowly unbuttoned Minos' shirt with one hand and removed the belt from his pants with the other. It was clear that she had experience in this matter, given the skill with which she did this...

But Elena was not as easy a woman as it may seem. Initially, she had only played with Elen when she said that about Minos. But after accompanying the young Stuart for two days, she had aroused the desire to sleep with him.

Minos then softly kissed Elena's neck while finally managing to get her bra off.

When he calmly pulled away from the girl's neck and saw the perfect breasts in front of him. It was neither too big nor small, it was just the right size, which felt great when you took them with your hands...

After contemplating the beauty of those pink and medium-sized nipples, he began to massage its. It was delightful to massage breasts like these, which almost fit perfectly in the hands.

"Mmm ~"

Elena let out a slight moan as she felt her breasts stimulated by Minos. At the same time, she noticed a considerable increase in the size of the younger brother of the young man in front of her, to the point of almost jumping out of his clothes.

Minos then released Elena's breasts for a moment, removing his underwear. In doing so, the beautiful blonde almost made a sound of surprise when she saw Minos' stick. It wasn't overly large, but it was still about 7 inches (17.78 cm) long and a suitable thickness. It was definitely a size to be proud of.

Elena then knelt on the bed, showing Minos her beautiful lower cheeks. He could see the beautiful image of her ass, in front of him, still in her red panties, but with a small piece of pink flesh to sample.

Looking at this, Minos couldn't help himself and quickly removed the last piece of cloth from Elena's body.

He finally saw the pink, small flower, which was already dripping with the nectar of love. This view was so inviting that Minos slowly approached to prove it.

He first sniffed it and then started kissing Elena's beautiful flower.

"Ahhh ~" She moaned softly when she felt Minos' tongue touch her intimate part, making her shiver all over her body.

While enjoying the sweet taste of Elena, Minos also gently caressed her breasts, which were already stiff from the excitement caused by the act.

"Huh-huh-huh"

She was breathing erratically when she broke the contact of Minos's mouth with her little sister. "Come on... Huh... Let's change the position."

Soon after, the two were in a '69' position. This position was extraordinary. Minos could prepare the ground, increasing the sensitivity of Elena's flower, while she could lubricate his stick, resulting in a perfect combination.

"Mmmm ~"

"Ahhh ~"

Several sounds could be heard from the couple, who were now tasting each other's private parts.

Soon, a few minutes passed, and both youths were already thirsty to begin the most exciting part of their activity.

It didn't take long, and the beautiful Elena lay on the bed while Minos came over her, in a position where the two could look at each other.

Elena then raised her legs to make things easier for Minos while he slowly rubbed his stick on the mottled flower in front of him.

Minos could feel the heat coming from Elena's body when he slowly started to penetrate her, squeezing the juices of love all the way.

When he saw that part of his member had entered it, Minos looked into her eyes as he sank his rod lower and deeper...

"Ahhh ~ Oh my goodness ~"

Elena let out a loud moan at the moment Minos penetrated her deeply. However, before she could continue, the young Stuart held her head and leaned down to start kissing her again.

"Mmmm ~"

The two stayed in that position for a while, while Minos pressed his pelvis to Elena's clitoris. The couple of lovers would break their kisses and breathe intensely, making even more erotic sounds in the air from time to time.

"Ahhh ~ Minos ~ Minos ~"

For some time, Minos' rod continued to pierce Elena's cave in a piston motion while the bed slowly became seeped with the couple's fluids. This was also leaving the room with a dense smell, which was characteristic of this act.

Minos then said in an uneven voice as he stopped for a moment and looked at the sweaty body of the young blonde beneath him. "Huh, you... are... incredible..."

"Huh, let me help you out a little." She said with a happy smile on her face as she pushed Minos down and climbed on him.

Elena took Minos' stick and positioned it at her little sister's entrance while looking him in the eye. She slowly sat down and started to ride, making sounds of pounding meat in the room.

Pah! Pah! Pah!

"Ahhh ~ I can feel it in my belly ~ Mmmm ~" Elena said while having an unholy expression on her beautiful face. She was not used to having partners the size of Minos, so she was making the most of it...

Seeing this, Minos further increased the up and down while gently caressing Elena's pink nipples, making her moan even louder.

"Yes ~ make me ~ come!!" She said, trying to breathe and suppress her beautiful sounds, which expressed all the pleasure she felt.

Meanwhile, Minos' rod was tightened more and more through Elena's hole, further increasing the pleasure for the young Stuart. That way, it wouldn't take long for him to climax as well.

"Huh, huh, huh, I'm... coming... Huh!" Minos said breathlessly, with a look of complete pleasure in his eyes.

"Mmm ~ I can't either ~ Hold on anymore..."

The two quickly reached their climax while she squirted at Minos, with Elena's beautiful hole contracting even more than usual, creating a perfect moment for both of them.

After that, the entire white content of Minos' stick began to fill every space in Elena's uterus, allowing a surplus part to run down the sides of the inner walls of the young woman's hole.

When that happened, Elena slowly started to shake when she finally fell on Minos's bare chest, breathing heavily. The two then began to hug and kiss while they were still connected to each other.

"Huh, huh, huh, how was it for you?" Minos asked, with a satisfied look on his face.

"Huh, huh, very good. You surprised me a lot! I thought it would take you a little longer to get the hang of it, but you were just perfect!" She said, with a sincere smile on her face.

And she told the truth, even in a libertine world like the Spiritual World, it was not all men who treated their partners so well and gave importance to female pleasure.

And for a virgin, Minos demonstrated an even greater than average ability in bed. Even some experienced people with whom the beautiful Elena had already had her experiences...

A few minutes passed, and the two youngsters returned to their pleasure activities, leaving the environment increasingly rich in the two youths' aroma and sounds of pleasure.

And when they finished their last round, Elena's beautiful flower was soaked entirely with Minos' white liquid. However, neither of them would have to worry about an unwanted pregnancy.

This is because, with the advent of spiritual energy, cultivators could easily prevent this from happening. Men could render the released sperm unusable, and women could destroy the oocytes that were released during their fertile period.

And of course, there was another way to prevent pregnancy, which was to have sex with people who are often weaker or much stronger than you.

This is because the body cells carried energy equivalent to the level at which the person was. In other words, the sperm of a God had so much energy that if it were combined with an oocyte from a Spiritual Emperor, even if neither took measures against it, fertilization would still be impracticable.

But for Minos and Elena, who were just having fun, neither of them would allow that to happen since the energy difference between the two was not so great. That way, they were both careful to prevent something unwanted from happening...

And slowly, the night passed, and the sun started to rise on the horizon when Minos and Elena slept comfortably in the young blonde's messy bed.
