Chapter 105 Planning A Camping

Forcing a smile on his face, Trevor took the wet tissue from Estrella's hand and wiped the sweat from his forehead while saying, "Thank you for your help, but I can do it by myself."

Taking out two bottles of water from her bag, Estrella said in a shy voice, "Then, are you thirsty? I still have two bottles of water." Swaying her body like a lovely girl, Estrella held up two bottles and said, "This one is new and I have drunk two sips of water from the other one."

Which one do you want to drink?" Although she wasn't as beautiful as Corrie and Jaycee, she was considered as not bad.

Actually, in other's eyes, she was a beauty. Many boys who passed by stared at her.

In fact, if Trevor hadn't seen her disgust and contempt she had for him before, he would be attracted to her.

The whole time, Trevor was confused because of the way she was acting.

He couldn't help but think that her behavior was completely different from before.

Furrowing his eyebrows, he thought to himself, 'Why is she acting strange all of a sudden? I can't stand this.'

In a hurry, Trevor took the unopened bottle of water from her hands which made Estrella laugh out loud.

When their fingertips brushed a little, Estrella overjoyed and thought, 'Humph! It won't be long before you become mine, Trevor.'

The truth was, she had been thinking about the reason why Henson acted against her since she came back from the Scarlet Restaurant.

She couldn't let go of the matter so easily.

Therefore, she kept thinking about what happened that day while recalling the small details from the beginning, including the attitude of the security guards, the waiters and Henson at that time.

In the end, she came to an astonishing conclusion.

Trevor might be someone from a wealthy family who was keeping a low profile. Even if he wasn't from a wealthy family, he must have a big sum of money judging from the way Henson showed respect towards him.

Looking at Trevor with a smile on her face, she said, "Trevor, the class lessons are easy and we don't have exams these days. Why don't the members of our two dormitories go out for a picnic together this weekend?"

Looking at Trevor and Estrella, Jaycee teased with a smile, "Oh, no wonder you suggested for all of us to go out and have fun. It seems like you have already made a plan."

At that time, Aldrin agreed, "Good idea. I think camping is pretty good."

Of course, he was willing to go because he wanted to get a chance to spend more time with Jaycee. While talking, he secretly stole a glance at Jaycee with his eyes filled with excitement.

Everyone looked excited for the camping.

In fact, they didn't spend a good time at the party last time because of Xavier, who messed things up.

Now, as the beautiful girls took initiative to invite them, they couldn't pass the chance.

Even though Trevor had no idea about what Estrella was planning, he nodded in agreement as he didn't want to disappoint his excited roommates.

Eventually, the members from the two dormitories decided to go camping on the coming weekend.

Since Estrella was the one who suggested it in the first place, she was even more excited than anyone else.

Honestly, it was mainly because she thought that her plan of pursuing Trevor and figuring out about his real background would officially begin in a few days.

If Trevor turned out to be a man from a rich family, she would sleep with him immediately.

Even if he wasn't a rich man, she could still spend the large sum of money that Trevor had and leave him.

Either way, there was nothing for her to lose.

After discussing about the camping and making some arrangements, all of them went back to their own dormitories.

At the moment, Aldrin, Rob and the others were discussing about all kinds of things that were needed for camping. All of them wanted to show off their masculine demeanor in front of the beauties.

To discuss about the camping, Aldrin created a group chat and invited the people of the two dormitories to discuss what to prepare.

After collecting almost all the opinions from everyone, Aldrin winked at Trevor, as if he had some sort of plan, and said, "Trevor, how about you and I go shopping this afternoon?"

Although Trevor had already drunk a bottle of water, he was still a little thirsty.

Holding a glass of water, he laughed and replied, "Okay, let's go after class in the afternoon."

Hearing this, Aldrin agreed with joy and informed the others in the chat group.

"Trevor and I are going shopping this afternoon. Is there anything you guys want to add?"
