

Blessed 126

Chapter 126 We Have Already Broken Up

As Trevor wanted to know what was happening, he squeezed into the crowd and found that it was two people who were making trouble!

Furrowing his eyebrows, he said under his breath, "Is that Dennis and Sylvia?"

Only then did Trevor realize that he hadn't encountered them since the last time they parted ways at the Millennium Hotel.

The "model couple" who always liked to display affection in public to disgust him were now having a fierce quarrel!

In an embarrassed situation, Dennis was standing beside the police car. There were many scratches on his face and elbows which were still bleeding and his hair was in a mess.

Near him, Sylvia was standing with her hair disheveled and a red palm print on her cheek. She was sobbing and giving the police the statements as she was accompanied by several girls.

When Trevor finished inquiring the students around, he found that the girls stated that Dennis was caught while sneaking into the girls' dormitory to steal something.

"Sir, this scumbag took advantage of Sylvia's trust and sneaked into our room to steal things when we went out for dinner. But since I'm having a period today, I asked my roommates to go back early. If it weren't for that, he would have stolen everything successfully."

"She's right, sir. When I entered the room, I saw that Dennis was putting our underwear on his head while holding some in his hands! What a disgusting freak!"

"Oh, yeah! The scene was so terrifying and horrible! This pervert even tried to hide under the bed. I don't want to know what kind of dirty things he was thinking at that time. It's too scary!"

The loud complaints from several girls caused an uproar among the onlookers.

"Damn it! All of you bitches are talking nonsense! I just went there to take back my own things because Sylvia refused to return them to me no matter how much I told her to!"

At that time, Dennis was furious. He didn't expect the girls to slander him like that!

In fact, he had never done such kind of thing. He now knew how Trevor must have felt when he slandered him in the past.

At that time, Sylvia, who had stopped crying, shouted hysterically, "Your things?"

They have become mine the moment you gave them to me!"

With his eyes filled with resentment, Dennis shouted, "I bought them with my own money!"

Gritting his teeth, he continued cursing, "Bitch! When my family went bankrupt, I asked you to bring them back to me so that I can raise some money from them, but you refused! Plus, you even broke up with me in an instant!"

While having a fierce quarrel, the two of them revealed the summary of the whole incident by themselves. Obviously, they were both furious!

Because of rage, Dennis's eyes were red and he had lost his mind.

Raising his hand, Dennis aimed to hit Sylvia while shouting, "Sylvia, you slut! I'm going to kill you."

Sylvia covered her face as she shouted, "Help!"

In an instant, Sylvia's face turned pale with fear. Subconsciously, she stepped back which made her fall to the ground.

Finally, the farce was ended quickly by the police officers.

Seeing the way Dennis was handcuffed by the police, Trevor couldn't help but feel pleased.

When the show was over, Trevor turned around to leave when he felt a heavy stone hit his back only after taking a few steps.

When he looked down, he saw a palm-sized stone.

At that time, Sylvia's voice came from behind, "Trevor, you bastard! You literally saw me being bullied yet you didn't help me. Are you even a man?"

In an instant, anger rose in Trevor's heart. When he turned around, he found that Sylvia was the one who threw the stone.

Clenching his fists, Trevor tried to control his anger and said in a hoarse voice, "You shouldn't forget that we have already broken up!"