

Blessed 201

Chapter 201 Camping

After talking with Luisa, Trevor went back to school with wild thoughts running in his head.

In the dormitory, Trevor was lying on the bed while thinking about the things that had happened today.

Especially the time when he said goodbye to Luisa. Although it was sweet, he was more scared.

In fact, he was afraid of losing a good friend just because of his rashness.

'Maybe it's better if I keep this good friendship for some time than to be a couple.'

With that thought in mind, Trevor took a deep breath and closed his eyes tiredly. Then, he drifted off to sleep.

The next morning, Trevor got a call from Luisa.

Her voice was filled with vitality as she said, "Hello? Trevor, there is going to be a long vacation once the exam is over. Our dormitory is going to organize a trip to the hot spring. Do you want to come with us?"

At first, Trevor hesitated, but in the end, he agreed.

Luisa was so excited to hear his answer.

In fact, she felt excited not only because of her feelings towards Trevor, but also she felt guilty because of what happened a few days ago. Now that he agreed to go with her, it meant he didn't blame her for it. Therefore, she was happy.

Although she was excited, the thought about her best friend, Aggy flashed into her mind.

In her opinion, even though Trevor didn't mean to, he did hurt Aggy.

As Trevor agreed to come, she thought that she could take this as an opportunity to clear up the misunderstanding between the two of them.

After thinking for a while, Luisa called Aggy.

Then she apologized for the things that happened and invited her to the vacation.

Of course, Aggy agreed happily.

However, once she hung up the phone, her face changed drastically. Looking at the phone, she cursed, "Bah, what a bitch! How come she is so hypocritical and pretentious?"

As Aggy knew the identity of Trevor, she was very jealous of the relationship between Trevor and Luisa.

Right now, she was in the bar. After taking a big gulp, she was drunk as she kept complaining to the bartender, "Am I not good enough? Am I not beautiful? Why does Trevor fall in love with Luisa but not me?"

Although the speaker was careless, the listener was anything but.

There was a young man next to her and he rolled his eyes as he suddenly leaned over and said in a deep voice, "Beauty, did you just say Trevor? Isn't he a freshman student of Jork University?"

Drunk Aggy looked at the man and gulped another mouthful of wine before asking, "Yeah, what's wrong?"

If Trevor was here, he would surely be shocked because the guy was none other than Arjun, who was beaten up by Maison that day!

Hearing her answer, a smirk appeared at the corners of Arjun's mouth, but it was quickly concealed.

Faking a kind smile, he got closer to Aggy and said, "Beauty, I'm also a student of Jork University. I was close to Trevor before. Let me remind you he is not only a jerk but also a bad guy..."

As if she had found a companion, Aggy's eyes lit up in excitement. Immediately, she spoke out all her resentment against Trevor bitterly.

The whole time, Arjun listened quietly. When he thought it was the right time, he whispered something in Aggy's ear.

After that, the two of them looked at each other and burst into laughter.

A few days later, the exam was finally over.

To meet the girls, Trevor went to the park outside the school.

As they were going to the mountain area, Trevor left the Bugatti. After all, the Bugatti's chassis was too low to run on the mountain road.

Moreover, Luisa had told him that someone was going to drive so he didn't intend to drive. He just went there while holding a light luggage.

When Luisa's roommates saw that Trevor came by foot, they taunted, "I can't believe that there is this kind of man who doesn't drive when he comes out to travel. Do you want to take advantage of the others this badly?"
