Chapter 205 The Exposure Of Trevor's Identity

Smiling contemptuously, Leif said fearlessly, "Then, how much money is your Sanderson family willing to pay?"

After all, they were at a deserted place with no one around. Thanks to Aggy, Leif lured Trevor here so that they wouldn't be disturbed by the other students.

Maybe those stupid guys wouldn't even know that a few members were missing as they were still wandering in the mountain.

Seeing that Leif wanted to negotiate with him, Trevor quickly thought of a plan to lure Leif so that he could buy some more time.

At first, Leif was interested in his words. However, he was an experienced man after all.

Seeing that Trevor was saying useless things, Leif knew immediately that he was stalling for time. Gritting his teeth, he threatened, "Bastard, are you stalling for time? Guys, tie this asshole up! I am going to stab him first to stop him from talking nonsense."

In an instant, Leif's two men followed his order and they stepped up to catch Trevor.

Now that he couldn't stall for time any longer, Trevor's face darkened instantly.

When the two gangsters started to approach him with sharp blades in their hands, he broke out in a cold sweat.

The shining blade was about to fall on his body and Trevor prepared to kick them to resist.

At that exact critical moment, a red dot suddenly appeared respectively on the heads of Leif and his men.

Immediately afterwards, there was a sound of wind above their heads.

When everyone looked up, they saw several armed helicopters hovering above the forest.

The door of the cabin opened, revealing several snipers who were coldly aiming at Leif and his men with their sniper rifles!

At the same time, several ladders were lowered from the helicopters.

Afterwards, the well-armed bodyguards started descending from the ladders in order.

Obviously, Leif and his men were surrounded.

Although they were wanted criminals, they had never seen this kind of scene before. Therefore, they got so scared that they didn't even dare to move.

The bodyguards caught them in an instant.

The rest of the bodyguards rushed towards Trevor.

Once they got to him, the leader of the bodyguards even knelt down on one knee as he bowed his head and said, "Mr. Sanderson. I'm so sorry for being late!"

Seeing the scene in front of her, Aggy finally realized Trevor's identity. However, her heart was filled with regret.

Trevor was Mr. Sanderson... He was none other than the mysterious Mr. Sanderson behind the commercial street!

All of a sudden, Aggy had a strong urge to slap herself hard. This whole time, she had been going against Trevor in various ways.

Although she had countless of chances to stop, she didn't and kept doing something recklessly.

In the end, she fell into an irreversible abyss of wickedness just because of jealousy.

Later, the policemen arrived and took away Leif, his men and Arjun.

Only when the gangsters were handcuffed, Trevor could heave a sigh of relief.

At that moment, he found that Luisa's body became limp and he was quick to hold her in his arms.

On their way back, Trevor noticed that Luisa's face turned paler and paler. Seeing this, he couldn't help but feel a little worried.

In a low voice, Trevor asked with concern, "Are you okay?"

However, he only got a low groan from Luisa as a reply.

Feeling worried, Trevor put his hand on Luisa's forehead.

It was very hot!

In a hurry, he said to the driver, "Hurry up. To the city hospital right now!"

The car roared and headed to the hospital at full speed.

On the way, Trevor called the doctor in advance.

"Hello, is this Dr. Hudson? My very important friend is unconscious right now. Can you come to the city hospital right now to check on her?"
