Chapter 207 How Is Luisa

Although Trevor felt a little morose, he wasn't in the mood to argue about who had arranged the ward.

He knew that Luisa's parents didn't want him to stay here. However, he was worried about Luisa's condition.

"Okay, then I'll be waiting downstairs. Call me if you need anything."

At that time, Howe just hung up the phone.

As Rodney and Keyla were so immersed in mocking Trevor, they didn't hear what Jaiden said to Howe through the phone.

In fact, Jaiden refused him with an excuse that he was busy and hung up the phone directly.

Not wanting to lose his face, Howe didn't say anything about Jaiden's rejection.

At least he could call Jaiden unlike Trevor who only had the ability to borrow a Bugatti. After all, he was unable to invite a skilled doctor to treat Luisa!

At that moment, Howe became more confident as he thought that Trevor was far inferior compared to him.

In Howe's opinion, he was the only one who deserved Luisa while Trevor was just nobody.

With a sneer, Howe said in disdain, "Do you really think you are a powerful person? We will never need your help! Get out of here now!"

Glaring at Trevor, Keyla also said with dissatisfaction, "That's right. Luisa has nothing to do with you. Don't be so shameless and get close to her. You should know your place."

Hearing their words, Trevor couldn't help but frown. However, as he didn't want to have a dispute, he chose to leave the place silently.

Just as Trevor stepped into the elevator to go downstairs, Jaiden took the elevator. Therefore, they failed to meet with each other.

When Jaiden came over in a hurry, Howe was still speaking ill in front of Rodney and Keyla.

Seeing Jaiden, Howe was stunned at first. Then, he quickly walked up to him and greeted him quickly.

In an instant, Rodney and his wife smiled and one of them said, "Dr. Hudson, I didn't expect you to come over this soon."

It was only a while that Howe had called Jaiden and he arrived in a short amount of time. What a great honor!

At that time, Rodney and Keyla looked at Howe with enthusiasm and satisfaction!

Although Howe didn't know why Jaiden was here, it didn't prevent him from enjoying the flattery of others.

Without replying anything, Jaiden just nodded and walked into the ward.

A few minutes later, he came out of the ward and said to Rodney and Keyla, "Luisa's fever has gone down now. I've prescribed some medicine for her so, let her take it on time. I'll check her condition later again to make sure she recovers fast."

After that, he left them, without even looking at Howe.

Of course, Rodney and Keyla were so pleased with Howe. Once Jaiden left, they quickly surrounded him and said, "Howe, thanks to you, our Luisa was saved."

"That's right. You really are an excellent young man. I think our families can discuss your marriage with Luisa when she recovers."

Rodney and Keyla kept praising Howe as he could invite Jaiden over to treat their daughter.

It was needless to say that Howe was flattered.

To be honest, he was still confused and wondered why Jaiden was so cold to him while they were on the call but arrived here in the blink of an eye.

In the end, Howe shook his head to put these thoughts behind.

Honestly, he thought that Jaiden was cold through the phone because he didn't like a playboy like Howe, but he helped him because of his family background.

Thinking about it, Howe took the credit without a second thought.

Then, he pretended to be calm and said in the modest voice, "I'm just doing what's the best for Luisa. As long as she is fine, I'm willing to do anything for her."

Nonetheless, he couldn't hide the look of complacency on his face!

On the first floor of the hospital, Trevor was sitting on the chair in the hall. He couldn't help but worry about Luisa.

When he saw Jaiden downstairs, he stopped him immediately, "Dr. Hudson, how is Luisa? Is she okay?"
