

Blessed 211

Chapter 211 The Vicious Gangsters

Almost instantly, Jada's expression changed. Once she hung up the phone, she said to the two children anxiously, "We have to go back right now. Those bad guys are going to make trouble again!"

Sensing that there was something wrong, Luisa asked in concern, "Jada, what's happening in the orphanage?"

Heaving a deep sigh, Jada sighed, "I don't know who the orphanage has provoked when you were in hospital. Every day, some people come to make trouble and it is making everyone scared."

With a frown on his face, Trevor asked, "Did you call the police?"

Nodding her head, Jada replied, "Yes, we did. But it is useless. They are local gangsters. They will be locked up in prison for a few days at most and then they will come out to bully us even more."

Judging by the way she was sighing, it was obvious that this matter was a headache to her!

Hearing this, Luisa said indignantly, "How can this be like that? I can't just sit by and do nothing about it, Jada. Let me help you."

Since Luisa wanted to help them, Trevor thought that he had to stay with her and protect her from all the danger. Moreover, these two sensible children were making him even more feel sorry for the orphanage.

No matter what, he had to meddle in this matter and take care of them.

Hearing that the ones who were causing trouble were local gangsters, Trevor thought of Maison immediately.

Immediately he sent a message to Maison.

In an instant, Maison texted him back.

"Okay, Mr. Sanderson. I'll be there in a moment!"

Once he got the reply, Trevor became more confident. In a low voice, he said to Luisa, "Let's go together so that I can also help you."

After thinking for a while, Luisa agreed.

As it would take too much time to get the Bugatti from the parking lot of the hospital, they decided to take a taxi and went to the orphanage.

It took only about ten minutes for them to get to the gate of the orphanage. After all, it wasn't far from the shopping mall.

Once they got off the taxi, they saw that several gangsters were holding steel tubes and golf sticks while shouting and swearing.

Trevor checked around and found that Maison hadn't arrived yet.

He had planned to keep a low profile just in case something happened.

In fact, what happened to Luisa left a shadow on Trevor's mind and he feared that something unexpected would happen again.

Much to his dismay, the next moment, something unpleasant happened all of a sudden.

At that time, an old man with grey hair couldn't stand their swearing anymore and came out to persuade the gangsters to leave.

However, surprisingly, he was hit on the head by a stick mercilessly!

The old man cried out in pain as he fell to the ground and blood started oozing out slowly from his wound.

The gangsters didn't even care a bit about the old man who was injured. Instead, all of them laughed out loud.

On the other hand, the leader of them still looked angry. Then, he arrogantly stepped on the old man and kicked him a few times while cursing loudly, "You old man are so reckless! You never listen to me, do you? You should be beaten like this so that you will know the consequences for disobeying my orders."

When the children in the orphanage saw that the old man was being beaten, they exclaimed loudly, "Stop!"

Not long after that, several thin ten-year-old boys rushed out and stood in front of the old man while glaring at the bad guys.

Staring at the resentful eyes of the boys, the gangsters started laughing even more unscrupulously.

With a sneer, the leader said, "You guys are just orphans. How dare you glare at me? Beat me if you have the ability!"

After saying that, he swayed the steel bar in his hand and raised it to hit one of the boys!

Seeing this scene in front of him, Trevor couldn't help but shout angrily, "Stop asshole!"