

Blessed 214

Chapter 214 A Lie About His Wealth

After some time, the atmosphere in the orphanage wasn't tense and serious like before. It became much more harmonious.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Trevor smiled and played with them happily.

The whole afternoon was spent with the children playing happily and the gangsters cleaning with distressful looks on their faces. It lasted until it started getting dark.

In the end, one of the exhausted gangsters moved over to them uneasily and whispered, "Mr. Ellis, can we leave now?"

Hearing it, Maison waved his hand dismissively and told them to leave.

However, Trevor had other plans as he thought about something and sent Maison a message.

"Maison, ask them why they came to the orphanage to make trouble."

Once Maison saw the message, he stopped the gangster who was walking towards the door and asked, "Who sent you here?"

As he was grabbed suddenly from behind, the gangster was so scared that he couldn't help but confess everything he knew.

"It's the Salazar family. They want this land to build a construction project. So, they asked us to come here and force everyone in the orphanage to leave this place!"

"Salazar family? Why are they so overbearing and greedy?"

In an instant, anger rose in Trevor's heart.

Originally, he thought that Howe was just a pathetic bad guy who liked to take all the credit. However, he didn't expect that they would stoop this low to hurt the orphanage director who had worked hard to run the orphanage just for their own business!

After Maison let the gangsters go, Trevor frowned and said, "When you have time, help me keep an eye on the Salazar family and inform me if anything happens."

When Maison heard his words, he was stunned and overjoyed.

After all, he felt honored that Trevor gave him a chance to work for him.

Then, Trevor took Luisa to say goodbye to the people of the orphanage as it was very late.

After walking around the campus for a while, the two of them said good night and returned to their own dormitories respectively.

Feeling tired, Trevor was about to go to bed when he was pulled over by Rob.

Because of his actions, he looked at Rob in confusion who just chuckled and said mysteriously, "Trevor, Aldrin has been hiding something from us these days."

Since Trevor spent most of his time visiting Luisa, he didn't pay much attention to the situations in his dormitory.

Therefore, he was curious after hearing Rob's words.

After inquiring, he found out that Aldrin had been absent-minded in everything he did recently. The whole day, he just kept sighing but refused to say anything to them.

They didn't like to see him that way.

Trevor frowned and thought about Rob's words. At that moment, Aldrin returned to the dormitory.

Just as Rob mentioned, he looked absent-minded as if there was something on his mind.

Trevor naturally stepped forward and asked, "Aldrin, is there something going on these days?"

Hearing this, Aldrin was flustered and a little bit embarrassed. For a long time, he kept quiet and refused to say anything.

Seeing the distraught look, Trevor walked over to him and patted Aldrin's shoulder while saying solemnly, "It doesn't matter what the problem is. Just know that we will help you no matter what happens."

From the side, Rob nodded his head in agreement.

Aldrin was touched to see that his two roommates cared about him so much.

After hesitating for a while, Aldrin sighed.

In the end, he decided to tell them the truth.

"Actually, I had a crush on Jaycee before. But we didn't end up together because she liked someone else."

Trevor nodded his head. After all, he had witnessed this matter in person.

Of course, Trevor knew that Jaycee was attracted to Aver, which was his another identity.

However, there was no need to mention that to Aldrin.

Then, Aldrin continued, "After that, I met a girl in a culture salon. Her name is Cleo Perez and she is from the next school. I like her very much and we are a perfect match for each other."

Speaking of Cleo, a smile appeared on Aldrin's face.

Then, his face changed and a long look appeared on his face as he said, "Actually, it's all my fault. I really wanted to pursue her and I made a mistake. I bragged to her way too much about my family background and said that I have a luxury car that is worth about three million dollars when I only have a BMW. She is coming to see me tomorrow. What should I do?"
