

Blessed 216

Chapter 216 Nobody

While waiting, Cassie thought to herself, 'Even I haven't met a rich man until now. How could Cleo meet one? I'm sure he must be a liar!'

Jealousy was burning inside Cassie's heart and her mind was filled with malicious thoughts. In her heart, she believed that Aldrin was just a poor loser who was pretending to be rich.

If Aldrin revealed any sort of clue, she would definitely expose all his lies!

Looking around, Cassie seemed to be searching for someone. Then, she turned to look at Cleo and said, "One of my high school classmates also attends their school. Now that we're here today, I invited him to hang out together."

At that time, an Audi A8 slowly stopped in front of the two of them.

The car window was rolled down, revealing a young man who had purple hair. He was wearing Versace's casual clothes and he greeted them with a smile, "Cassie, sorry to keep you waiting."

Once Cassie saw the man, her eyes lit up and said in surprise, "Wow, it's been a long time, Platt."

In fact, she didn't expect that Platt Chavez would be a rich man who owned an Audi A8 that was worth one million dollars.

As soon as Platt parked the car, Cassie walked up to him and asked, "Platt, have you ever heard a man who named Aldrin in the first year of your university? I heard that he comes from a rich family."

After thinking for a while, Platt shook his head and answered, "No, I've never heard of him. Why do you ask?"

Hearing his reply, Cassie became suspicious. After all, her cousin told her that Aldrin was quite famous in the school.

Then, she patiently explained, "He is going with us today."

The expression on Platt's face changed slightly and he became vigilant.

Well, the reason why he came here today wasn't that simple.

In the past, Cassie was the most beautiful girl in their high school. Therefore, he wanted to take this as an opportunity to pursue her.

Besides, he also heard that her younger sister was even more beautiful. So, he thought that he could get at least one of them today.

Now that he knew that there was some other guy, he naturally didn't want to give his opponent a chance.

With a frown on his face, he said, "I think the man called Aldrin is just bluffing. I've met a lot of people like him. If he is really rich like you said, I should have heard about him."

His words only pleased Cassie and made her even more suspicious of Aldrin.

Nodding her head, she said to Cleo, "You have to be careful! Even though Platt and Aldrin are from the same university, he has never heard of Aldrin's name. I feel like this person isn't reliable!"

Cleo was about to say something when a Mercedes-Benz with top configuration steadily stopped in front of everyone.

Obviously, the car looked really expensive and it was higher than the Audi A8 of Platt.

The car door was opened and three boys got out from it.

When Cleo saw the familiar face, she waved her hand happily and greeted, "Aldrin, you're here!"

On the other hand, both Platt and Cassie's faces changed.

At that time, they felt so embarrassed.

Just now, they said that Aldrin wasn't rich, but now, he appeared in front of them with his Mercedes-Benz.

After a brief introduction, they finally got to know each other.

Seeing that two beautiful women, Cleo and Cassie, were standing beside Aldrin, Platt gritted his teeth with hatred.

Not wanting to let Aldrin continue to be in the limelight, Platt took the initiative to attract the ladies' attention as he said, "Beauties, there is an international flower show today. I have booked the tickets. Do you want to go there together?"

Honestly, Cleo and Cassie were really interested in the flower show.

After all, girls liked romance and flowers were very attractive and romantic.

Raising his eyebrows in surprise, Trevor thought to himself, 'This guy is obviously trying to compete with Aldrin. Thank god the people arranged by my sister is also at the international flower show.'

