Chapter 224 True Confession

In the end, both Platt and Bernard were dragged away by the strong security guards despite their pleas.

Once they went far away, Seth turned to look at the other people in the room and said with a gentle look on his face, "I'm sorry for the inconvenience. I just can't tolerate those kind of scums who like to make trouble by using my name. As an apology, you don't have to pay anything for today. Also, we will serve you some extra dishes for free."

Although his eyes seemed to have swept over the crowd, he was in fact paying attention to Trevor's expression.

After getting a slight nod of agreement from Trevor, Seth said goodbye respectfully.

Once Seth left, the atmosphere in the room became less tense and everyone looked a little relieved.

Well, everyone except for Cassie.

In fact, she was still shocked by Seth's attitude, Why was Seth so respectful towards those people?

It meant there was someone among the people who was more powerful than Seth!

Thinking about it, Cassie shivered with fear.

Looking at each and every one, Cassie tried to observe them.

Obviously, Trevor was Aldrin's follower.

And Rob didn't look like a rich man either.

Therefore, only Aldrin could be that powerful man.

Feeling sad, Cassie thought, 'Why does a rich man like him like my cousin?'

The whole time, Cassie had been against Aldrin and so, she was afraid that she had already offended him.

Even though the table was filled with delicious and expensive dishes, Cassie had lost her appetite.

After taking a few bites, she found an excuse and left the restaurant in a hurry.

Only the four of them left in the room. Looking at them, Trevor was lost in his thoughts.

Actually, he was planning to take Aldrin to a secluded corner outside and persuade him to tell Cleo the truth.

However, to his surprise, Aldrin mustered up the courage and confessed to Cleo.

"To be honest, I lied to you, Cleo. I am not a rich man. My friend borrowed that car for me."

Nodding her head, Cleo said calmly, "It doesn't matter."

Hearing it, Aldrin couldn't help but show a dull expression as he said, "What?"

With a smile on her face, Cleo stared at the look of astonishment on her boyfriend's face and said, "I like you not because you're rich. Don't spend too much money on me in the future."

Hearing the sweet conversation between the two of them, Trevor felt a little embarrassed.

Aldrin's confession didn't ruin their relationship, instead, it even pulled them closer!

Trevor couldn't help but praise Aldrin for being brave and honest. At the same time, he had an inexplicable impulse in his heart!

What if he told Luisa about his real identity? Could the relationship between the two get closer?

At that moment, Trevor wanted to tell Luisa about everything.

He had failed to express his love to Luisa last time. What was more, she even misunderstood him.

However, it made him aware of the status of this girl in his heart!

Even after returning to his dormitory, the thought still lingered in his mind for a long time.

In the end, Trevor decided to call Luisa.

He had made up his mind. He was going to confess to her!

"Hello, Luisa. Since tomorrow is Saturday, would you like to go out with me?"

To his surprise, Luisa didn't say yes. Instead, she said awkwardly, "Umm, I have to attend the raising event of the orphanage tomorrow... How about this? Why don't we go there together, Trevor?"

As Trevor wanted to have an opportunity to be alone with Luisa to confess his identity face to face, he agreed immediately. After all, the place didn't matter to him at all as long as he could confess.

The next morning, Trevor was about to go out when he got a call from Evie.

"Trevor, I have to go abroad to inspect and invest a few oil fields. Now, come to the Willard Villa because I have something to tell you!"
