

Blessed 234

Chapter 234 Latest iPhone

The truth was Mattie was pretending to admire Drake. Thinking about her master plan, a smile of triumph appeared on her face.

In fact, she was killing two birds with one stone: belittling Trevor in front of Drake, and making Drake buy her the new iPhone.

Taking the iPhone 13, Drake paid the bill and gave it to Mattie.

Taking the phone from Drake, Mattie showed off while saying, "Trevor, the most terrible thing about men is when they are poor and narrow-minded. Drake can buy me iPhone 13 casually, but look at you. You can't even afford an ordinary phone. What a poor loser!"

Hearing it, Trevor looked at Mattie coldly and asked, "What if I can afford it?"

With wide eyes, Mattie looked at Trevor as if he was an alien.

Laughing dryly, she retorted, "You can afford it? Well, if you can afford the iPhone 13, I'll learn how to bark!"

When Trevor heard her words, he smiled and shrugged while saying, "That's what you said."

It had to be said that people had the tendency not to change their mind when they had already made up their mind.

Even though he was now living a good life, people couldn't stop mocking him with a stereotyped impression.

However, since these annoying people just wanted to embarrass themselves, Trevor wasn't going to be polite to them.

Turning to look at the shop assistant, Trevor said, "Hello, get me two of the best mobile phones with top configuration in your shop, one black and one white."

With surprise filled in her eyes, the shop assistant replied professionally, "Sir, the top configuration mobile phone in our shop is iPhone 13 pro max with a maximum capacity of 1TB and the price of it is 12,999 dollars. Are you sure you want it?"

Nodding his head calmly, Trevor said, "Yes, I'll take it and I'll pay it with my card."

Actually, Trevor saw the POS machine once he had entered the shop, which helped him solve the big trouble. Otherwise, he wouldn't have so many cash.

Seeing that Trevor was going to buy the top mobile iPhone 13 pro max, Mattie didn't believe it and mocked, "You don't have to pretend to be rich, Trevor. Everyone knows that you're just a poor loser. If you can't pay for it later, you will have to bark like a dog in front of us until we are satisfied!"

Drake, who was standing beside Mattie, crossed his arms over his chest and said jokingly, "A poor loser like you should know your place. I want to see your face when you don't have the money to pay for the two phones."

Without even looking at the two of them, Trevor turned around and walked straight to the cashier.

Thinking it was a sign of guilt, both Mattie and Drake were about to continue mocking him when they heard something.

A female voice came out from the cashier, "The payment is successful, dear customer. You have spent 25998 dollars in total."

Hearing the voice, Mattie looked at Trevor in shock and the foundation on her face even cracked!

Although she just witnessed it, she couldn't believe that Trevor could really afford the iPhone.

Let alone buying two iPhones at once!

Compared with the ones Trevor just bought, the phone with the basic configuration in her hand was nothing.

After paying the bill successfully, Trevor looked in the direction of Mattie and raised his hand to show the shopping bag in his hand.

The shop assistants here were very professional. In a short time, they had already packed the phones before he even finished paying.

With a charming smile on his face, Trevor looked at Mattie and said, "Since you want to learn how to bark, my requirements aren't that high. You just have to bark once for each phone. Since it is two, you have to bark twice."

Of course, Mattie was ashamed and angry. Although she wasn't slapped, she felt as if someone did slap her.

Even so, she still said stubbornly, "I'm sure you just have a little spare money. Don't think that you are a rich man just because you own some money!"

All of a sudden, Mattie remembered something and she seemed to have found out how to make a counterattack.

In a hurry, she opened her backpack and took out a bottle.

Then, she said, "Look, this is a bottle of perfume that Drake gave me and it is worth twenty thousand or thirty thousand dollars. It's way more expensive than your phone!"
