

Blessed 241

Chapter 241 Don't Want To See Him

At that moment, the middle-aged vice president felt helpless.

Right now, he was almost scared to death.

All of a sudden, he threw his phone on the table and grabbed the application for expelling which was placed in front of Trevor.

After that, he tore the paper into pieces!

Looking at Trevor, Boris said nervously, "Mr. Sanderson, I'm so sorry. You can't drop out of school!"

Now that Boris' attitude towards him had changed, Trevor glanced at him coldly and questioned, "I thought you told me to sign it and drop out of school as soon as possible instead of talking nonsense."

Boris wore a complicated look on his face. His expression was uglier than crying.

Suddenly, he reached his hand out and slapped himself.

Then, he said, "I was stupid! I talked nonsense. Mr. Sanderson, please forgive me!"

On the other end of the line, Jeanne said in a hurry, "Mr. Sanderson, can you please forgive Keanu?"

However, Trevor had already made up his mind. Lost in his thoughts, he tapped the table lightly with his hand.

Not only Keanu had an arrogant attitude, but also he dared to harass and make things difficult for Luisa. Therefore, he wouldn't let him go no matter what.

In a sincere voice, Jeanne said, "I will take him to apologize to you in person. He is at your disposal!"

After thinking for a while, Trevor scoffed and said, "He doesn't have to apologize to me. But I don't want to see his face at school in the future. I'm sure you know what to do. Besides, both of you have to keep my identity as a secret."

After all, Trevor just wanted to enjoy a peaceful college life. There were many women like Mattie and Aggy.

He wouldn't be able to live a peaceful life if his identity as a rich man was exposed.

Of course, Jeanne knew that there was no turning back. Sighing, she agreed in a hurry.

Hearing this, Boris was overjoyed and relieved.

Then, he thought, 'Thank god. Mr. Sanderson, the boss of the commercial street won't leave my place!'

As for Keanu, not even his sister could object as he had offended Mr. Sanderson.

It was needless to say that Boris wanted to kick Keanu out.

At this moment, there was a commotion outside the office of Boris.

The people who had escorted Trevor were still waiting for the news of Trevor getting expelled.

Once his wound was bandaged, Keanu rushed back here.

As his head was wrapped in white thick gauze, he looked somewhat funny.

However, the people around him didn't dare to laugh at him. Instead, they surrounded him and kept flattering him.

Crossing his arms over his chest, Keanu looked at the office as if he was going to win.

In fact, he wanted to stay here and watch Trevor getting expelled from school.

He wanted to let this loser know the consequence of provoking him!

Since there was no movements in the office for a long time, Keanu became a little impatient.

On second thought, he thought that Trevor was crying and regretting.

Anyway, Trevor was going to be expelled from the school and when that happened, he wanted to see Trevor begging desperately.

Finally, the door of the office opened, revealing Trevor who came out calmly.

Behind Trevor was Boris. Unlike Trevor, he seemed to be uneasy.

When Keanu saw them coming out, he thought that their expressions seemed to be different from what he had imagined. However, he didn't doubt anything.

With a smug look on his face, Keanu questioned arrogantly, "It's just expelling a loser from the school. What took you so long, Mr. Cohen?"

Glaring at Keanu, Boris said seriously, "I have made a decision of dismissal..."

Hearing this, Keanu's face lit up.

Before Boris could say something more, one of the students around Keanu shouted excitedly, "Mr. Brown, finally this idiot is going to leave!"
