

Blessed 251

Chapter 251 Utter Disappointmen

Finally, Jeanne couldn't bear it anymore.

With trembling hands, she took off her mask and threw it at Keanu.

"Take a good look, Keanu. Who am I?"

Jeanne?

Why was she here?

Keanu was shocked.

Seeing the disappointed expression on Jeanne's face made him panic.

"Jeanne, that's not what I meant. Let me explain..."

Keanu racked his brains for ideas to defend himself but realized that he was at a loss.

When he looked around and saw Trevor, he decided to blame it all on him.

"Everything is this guy's fault, Jeanne. I only said those things because he pissed me off!"

Jeanne was extremely disappointed. She couldn't believe Keanu had the audacity to say something so rude in front of Trevor.

She replied angrily, "Shut up, Keanu!"

However, Keanu didn't stop. Instead, he glared at Trevor.

"Did you seduce my sister, you bastard? Why else would she keep coming to your defense? I'm warning you—stay away from her!"

He even stepped forward and reached out to grab Trevor by his collar.

However, Trevor quickly took two steps back so Keanu caught nothing but air. Keanu frowned even more.

The growing dispute started to catch the attention of the other people on the yacht.

When Gavin saw that Keanu had tried to attack Trevor, he rallied the other rich men.

A group of people surrounded Trevor and Keanu.

Keanu wanted to chase after Trevor, but he realized that all the rich men who mocked him earlier had gathered around them.

He was so stunned that he stopped where he stood.

It didn't make sense because they ignored him earlier. Why were they suddenly surrounding him?

Was it because they saw his sister and that validated his identity?

Unfortunately, the reality was quick to shatter his fantasy.

Gavin stormed over to Keanu and slapped him!

Wendy also gave Keanu a hard kick.

The other rich men followed suit. They too started punching and kicking Keanu.

Keanu screamed in pain as he got beaten up. He then fell to the ground and saw a scene that made his mind go blank in disbelief.

The rich young men moved to stand before Trevor and then bowed respectfully in unison.

"Mr. Sanderson!"

With a guilty look on his face, Gavin said, "I apologize if this incident has shocked you. If I had known that this brat would dare to offend you, I would have thrown him out earlier. How should I deal with him? Do you want me to throw him overboard so that he can become food for the fish?"

Wendy also complained, "I don't know who is in charge of security here. How could they let this bastard in?"

Keanu's stare went blank as he continued to lie on the ground.

Eventually, his face became deathly pale, and his whole body trembled with fear.

It was not until this moment that he finally understood what was going on.

The truth was... Trevor was the mysterious Mr. Sanderson!

Now it all made sense!

The reason why he had gotten expelled from school, why his sister had asked him to go abroad, and why his sister acted so submissively in Trevor's presence...

He had been so proud to be the brother of the Sanderson family's manager.

Now he realized that that connection meant nothing to Trevor.

Now that he had come to his senses, Keanu was terrified.

He shifted into a kneeling position and started begging for mercy.

"Mr. Sanderson, please forgive me!"

But no one cared about his rambling because he seemed like a clown now that he was in an embarrassing situation.
