

Blessed 275

Chapter 275 He Damaged His Car

Now Trevor didn't have to worry about what kind of clothes to wear anymore.

After that the two of them went to buy a wedding gift before they parted ways.

On the wedding day of Mona, Trevor had already received the custom-designed suit made by Danna.

The black suit was elegant and it fitted Trevor like a second skin. Although the material seemed to be ordinary, the suit was filled with exquisite workmanship.

On the upper part of the suit, there was a unique logo.

Seeing it, Trevor recognized that it was the signature of Danna.

Satisfied with the suit, Trevor put it on and looked at himself in the mirror.

When Trevor looked at the mirror, he saw a handsome man with striking features which made him a little surprised.

Now that he dressed up, Trevor looked dashing. Even the aura around him changed drastically.

Obviously, Trevor was satisfied with the suit. No wonder Danna was considered as the master of the designers.

The suit fitted him so well and it indeed matched his temperament.

Seeing him, the people in the dormitory laughed and said that he was lucky to date a beauty like Luisa.

In the end, Trevor got embarrassed by their teasing and got out of the room quickly. Driving his Bugatti Chiron, he headed to the destination.

The wedding was held at the West River Villa. Although it wasn't as famous and high-end as the Willard Villa, it was favored by many families in Jork.

Since the villa had beautiful scenery, it was suitable for holding all kind of events. Moreover, the price was relatively moderate compared with others.

In fact, even some ordinary families could hold small weddings there. However, the only downside of this place was that it was located in the remote area.

As it was quite far from his school, it took Trevor nearly an hour to get to the West River Villa.

When he arrived at the destination, the wedding was about to begin and almost all the guests had already arrived.

Therefore, there wasn't much parking space left and Trevor couldn't find the vacant parking space for some time.

Finally, he saw two vacant spots in a corner.

He was about to drive over to the spot when a BMW 7 series drove over from another direction.

Through the car window, Trevor saw the driver's face.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor wondered why he met Howe there.

Of course, Howe also noticed Trevor.

After all, it was hard for others to ignore Trevor's Bugatti Chiron.

When Howe saw Trevor, he cursed angrily, "Damn it! Why is the poor loser here?"

Then, he looked at the parking space aside.

In fact, he was thinking whether he should park his car next to Trevor's or not.

Actually, Howe was still angry with Trevor. Suddenly, he came up with an idea.

Since he was closer to the vacant spot, he drove to it first.

While parking, Howe deliberately didn't follow the driving rules.

Instead, he even tilted the car slightly, occupying the corner of the other parking spot.

After parking the car that way, Howe stared at Trevor who was reversing the car.

With a smirk on his face, he said, "Poor loser, let's see what you can do."

Honestly, he was sure that Trevor would slam on the brakes once he got nearer.

In his eyes, Trevor was just a poor loser who rented a Bugatti to pretend to be rich.

As the car was worth tens of millions of dollars, Trevor would be careful so as not to damage it.

After all, if something bad happened to the car, Trevor wouldn't be able to pay for the maintenance cost.

As if he was watching a good show, Howe sat inside his car with a smug look on his face.

However, much to his surprise, the Bugatti Chiron was getting closer and closer to his car and it looked as if it had no intention of stopping.

In the end, the Bugatti Chiron directly squeezed into the space.

When Howe heard the screeching sound of friction between their cars, he froze. With wide eyes, he watched the Bugatti Chiron squeeze into the parking space.

In the process, the Bugatti Chiron pushed Howe's car aside!

Clearly, Howe was shocked! He didn't expect that Trevor would dare to do this kind of stunt so boldly!

Just as Howe disdained Trevor, Trevor also disliked Howe.

The moment Trevor saw Howe parking his car lopsided, he knew exactly what Howe was up to.

Since it was Howe who asked for a fight, Trevor gave him exactly what he wanted. So, to show that he wasn't a coward, Trevor naturally squeezed his car into the narrow space.

Immediately, Howe got off his car, looked at his BMW 7 Series.

In fact, it hadn't been long since he bought this new BMW 7 series yet his front part of the car was damaged.

Seeing the damage, Howe got so distressed that he angrily rushed towards the door of the Bugatti Chiron and snapped, "Have you gone crazy?"
