

Blessed 277

Chapter 277 The Gap Between People

Since he was ignored by Luisa, Howe felt very depressed.

However, when he heard the voice of the Burke family who were insulting Trevor, Howe felt delighted.

Walking up towards Rodney, he greeted, "What a coincidence, Mr. Burke. Wow, everyone is here."

Sure enough, Rodney and all the others were here. In fact, he was a little annoyed with Howe bragging all the time. Moreover, he almost lost his face because of him.

However, the Salazar family was still a business partner of his company. Therefore, Rodney nodded with a smile and said, "Howe, you are finally here. Let me introduce you to others."

When they finished introducing each other, all the members of the Burke family realized that the man in front of them was the infamous Howe from the Salazar family.

After all, the Salazar family and the Burke family were complementary to each other in the supply chain.

It meant not only Rodney's company, but also all the business of other members of the Burke family was more or less related to the Salazar family.

Because of the way Howe was stealing glances at Luisa from time to time, everyone knew that he had feelings for her!

This must be the reason why he was so enthusiastic towards Rodney!

If only Luisa could marry Howe, the Burke family's business would surely develop in the future.

Thinking about it, all the other members of the Burke family became very enthusiastic and overjoyed.

Of course, Howe enjoyed the compliments he was getting from everyone. With a wide grin, he said arrogantly, "Actually, my father has told me that the Burke family is now our business partner. He even asked me to give a gift to Miss Mona Burke to celebrate her wedding."

As soon as he finished saying that, Howe handed over a thick red envelope.

Then, he said proudly, "Here is 99999 dollars. I wish Miss Burke to have a long and happy marriage."

Hearing the amount of the money, Mona smiled happily.

As expected from the Salazar family, Howe was indeed generous.

At that time, Mona looked at Howe with her eyes filled with enjoyment while hoping that he could be able to get her cousin Luisa.

Obviously, all the other members of the Burke family were amazed. Then, they turned to look at Trevor with more contempt.

The gap between the two of them was so huge. Trevor was nothing compared with Howe.

In their eyes, Trevor was just a poor loser who wore fake goods in order to get close to Luisa.

Their attitude didn't go unnoticed by Trevor. As there was nothing he could do, Trevor sighed helplessly and felt a little depressed.

When he wore ordinary clothes, he was insulted and despised. Now, when he dressed up nicely, they said he was wearing fake...

Damn, the prejudice in people's hearts was extremely terrible.

However, Trevor didn't try to explain things to them. If he told everyone that he was from a rich family, it would be troublesome.

Seeing their reactions, Howe became very proud. Then, he took this opportunity to stir things up.

With a smirk on his face, Howe mocked, "Trevor, where is the gift you prepared?"

When he followed Trevor from behind, he saw that his hands were empty. Therefore, he naturally guessed that he didn't prepare anything.

At that time, Luisa didn't want Trevor to be mocked by others. So, she explained in a hurry, "I bought a multi-functional oven with Trevor a few days ago and I already gave it to Mona."

When everyone turned to look at Mona for confirmation, she nodded.

Luisa breathed a sigh of relief and she was about to thank Mona.

However, before she could say anything, Mona said, "But you bought it with your own money, Luisa. So, it means it is your gift. It has nothing to do with Trevor."

When the people from the Burke family heard this, their expressions changed slightly.

All of them could see that Howe didn't like Trevor. Hence, they immediately agreed with Mona to please Howe.

"She's right. It should be considered as a gift from you, Luisa."

"Did he come here just for eating? How can he not bring anything?"

Because of their words, Luisa froze and looked at Trevor apologetically.

Obviously, she didn't expect that the gift she chose with Trevor would become a tool for her family to insult Trevor.

In truth, Trevor didn't prepare any extra gift. Therefore, he stood there awkwardly.

After all, he only planned to attend the wedding with Luisa. Therefore, he forgot to think about the gift.

Seeing that Trevor indeed didn't bring any gift, all the members of the Burke family despised him even more.

Therefore, all of them tried their best to persuade Luisa.

"Luisa, you shouldn't get too close to poor people. They are not good for you."

"Yes, I think Howe is a good man. You should keep in touch with him in the future."

At that time, Mona also tugged at her wedding dress and showed off while saying, "They're right, Luisa. Just look at me. I found a rich young husband. So, I'm happy now. We women should be careful in choosing a husband."