

Blessed 278

Chapter 278 I Already Have A Boyfriend

When she heard the chatter of her relatives, Luisa looked very helpless.

On the other hand, Howe looked very pleased.

It was needless to say that the Burke family's flattery made him complacent from the bottom of his heart.

Then, Howe looked at Trevor with his eyes full of provocation. Now that Keyla was coming over, he became even more arrogant.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Howe confessed, "Mrs. and Mr. Burke, actually, I want to admit something. I really like Luisa. I hope you can give me the permission to be with her."

The Salazar family owned at least a billion dollars, far richer than the Burke family.

Hearing his confession, Rodney and Keyla looked at each other. When they thought about the Salazar family's wealth, the embarrassment they felt before vanished into thin air.

Seeing the expressions on their faces, Howe took out an exquisite box from his pocket.

Kneeling down on one knee, Howe opened the box and reached his hand out.

Then, he looked at Luisa and said sincerely, "Luisa, I really like you. This is my sincerity."

Inside the jewelry box, a big diamond ring was shining brightly against the red velvet cloth.

Seeing him down on one knee, the Burke family's members were shocked. After all, none of them expected this.

"Wow, it's so big. I think it is at least 5 carats. He really deserves to be called as Mr. Generous!"

"That's right. This is called sincerity. He is nothing like the poor guy with empty hands."

For a moment, Howe's behavior attracted all the people around. What was more, he even overshadowed the protagonist of the wedding.

However, the bride Mona wasn't angry. In fact, she was envious of Luisa.

After all, Howe was richer than her husband. Why didn't Howe like her instead of her cousin?

Of course, Mona wouldn't say that out loud.

Putting on the big smile, she persuaded Luisa.

"Luisa, Mr. Salazar is really suitable for you. You should believe in my judgment on men."

Of course, she said those words only because she knew about the Salazar family.

In fact, her family had a close relationship with the Salazar family and so, she knew how rich Howe's family was.

Actually, the business her husband had been managing was in trouble recently and he needed a lot of investment right now.

If she had the Salazar family by her side, she could take advantage of it and solve the problem of her husband's crisis.

Although all the other members of the Burke family didn't have thoughts like Mona, they wanted to have the Salazar family behind their back. Therefore, they gathered around Luisa to persuade her.

Their pestering words made Luisa feel at a loss. At that time, she became so anxious that tears suddenly came out of her eyes. She didn't know what to do.

Standing beside her, Trevor could feel Luisa's anxiety.

Subconsciously, he approached Luisa as he wanted to support her.

When Luisa saw Trevor, she felt really relieved.

In a moment of desperation, she immediately grasped Trevor's hand and intertwined their fingers.

Her heart was beating so fast in her chest. Then she said, "I... I already have a boyfriend and that is Trevor. So, I won't consider anyone else!"

Luisa's delicate slender fingers slid across Trevor's large palms and finally intertwined with his fingers.

As Trevor wasn't expecting it, he was completely stunned.

He could feel that her hands were cold and shaking a bit.

Looking down at their intertwined hands, Trevor was overjoyed.

Taking a deep breath, Trevor held Luisa's hand tightly and stepped forward, blocking her from the view of everyone.

"You should put away your diamond ring. Luisa doesn't like you."

Only then did Howe come back to his senses.

In an instant, his face darkened and he became furious.

Who would have thought that Luisa would refuse Howe when he was on one knee with the diamond ring?

Moreover, she even chose the loser Trevor instead of him.