

Blessed 28

Chapter 28 I Will Commit Suicide

Once Grant heard the receptionist's words, he said angrily, "What the hell do you mean?"

With respect, the receptionist turned to look at Grant and said, "Well, Mr. Norris, the Norris family no longer has the qualifications to be our members now. That means you can't afford to spend here anymore."

In fact, she just heard that Evie punished the Norris family in a matter of seconds.

Therefore, now, the Norris family had completely gone bankrupt!

"Stop talking nonsense, bitch! What do you mean I can't afford to spend here? I have a lot of money!"

While talking, Grant took out his bank card and inserted it into the ATM nearby.

However, the moment he saw his money on the bank card, he was dumbfounded as he couldn't even believe his eyes.

There was only thirty-three cent...

Not only Grant but also Bernard and the others were shocked.

The young master from a rich family became poor in the blink of an eye.

Once Trevor saw the balance on his bank account, he was shocked too. Furrowing his eyebrows, he thought to himself, 'Did my sister do it? Well, whether she really did it or not, it's good to see him like this. Let's see if he can still mock me for being poor.'

Poking his head from the side, Trevor smirked and said, "Grant, considering that you are kind to take me here to broaden my vision, I can introduce you to some part-time jobs. I'm sure you can buy enough bread for each meal if you work hard."

Grant's eyes turned red as he roared, "Are you asking for death?"

He looked as if he had lost his mind.

Clenching his fists, Grant looked at Trevor and he was about to punch him when his phone rang.

As if it was his life-saving straw, Grant immediately picked up the phone and asked, "Hello, Dad.

What is happening? Why is there no money in my bank account? Where did all the money go?"

From the other end of the phone, a furious roar came, "Little bastard! Who the hell did you offend outside?"

The voice was so loud that even Trevor and the others could hear it. Then, the voice continued, "Our family went bankrupt because of you! We don't have any money now, you bastard! Come back right now!"

His father's words seemed to have drained all the strength from Grant's body. His whole body was stuck to the ground like a puddle of mud. No matter how much he tried, he couldn't stand up again.

In a daze, Grant gave up and just sat there for some time.

After some time, Bernard said in a cautious voice, "Mr. Norris, can we still go to the manor?"

Once Grant heard his words, he slapped hard on Bernard's face and said angrily, "Fuck! My family went bankrupt and I don't have any money now! Do you think we can still go there?"

In an instant, his eyes turned red and tears started to flow down.

Not wanting to embarrass himself anymore, Grant left the manor with a depressed look on his face.

Who would have known that the celebration would turn into a farce?

All of them looked at each other in dismay.

Among them, Corrie was the one who was disappointed the most.

After all, it wasn't easy for her to hook up with such a rich guy. She had tried so hard and now, her plans went down the drain completely!

Staring at the luxurious gate of the Willard Manor, all of them heaved a dreamy sigh before turning around to leave the place.

The whole time, Trevor stood there without moving. In fact, he was thinking if he should call his sister, Evie, and ask her about the Norris family's bankruptcy.

As soon as he checked his phone, he found that there was an unread message from his sister which said, "Brother, I let go of Maison because he is still useful to me. As for the Norris family, I made them go bankrupt."

Seeing his sister's quick resolute method, Trevor couldn't help but sigh in his heart. Then, he said under his breath, "It's so good to have a sister like Evie even though she scared me for a bit. Damn. My family is richer than I imagined. My sister can even make the Norris family valued more than a hundred million dollars in the market, go bankrupt in less than an hour."

All of a sudden, his phone vibrated, indicating the arrival of a message.

A thought flashed in his mind, 'Is my father going to tell me that our family has gone bankrupt too?'

Shaking his head, Trevor laughed at his thought. However, the moment he saw the message, the smile on his face disappeared and his face changed into a serious one.

It was a picture of a large amount of sleeping pills.

Under the picture, there was a tnumberext message which said, "I am going to commit suicide if you don't come right now! It's up to you to believe it or not!"

The sender of the message was none other than his ex-girlfriend, Sylvia!