

Blessed 284

Chapter 284 A Simple Wish

Seeing that the poor girl was about to cry, Trevor hurriedly comforted, "Don't cry. You don't have to worry about anything. You will grow up safe and sound."

All of a sudden, Trevor had an idea. During this short period of time, he got to know many children in the orphanage.

All of them were obedient and healthy. It could be said that Stewart Walker, the director of the orphanage had been taking great care of them.

The only thing they lacked was a better living condition.

Therefore, he could do them a favor.

He remembered that her elder sister Evie had told him to use five hundred million dollars as soon as possible.

Since he had to use the money, why not do something meaningful to the society with that?

Thinking about it, Trevor asked, "Noor, do you have any wishes?"

Children were always pure and simple. In an instant, Noor was distracted by this question.

Immediately, the sad look on her face disappeared.

Raising her head to look at Trevor, she said in a childish voice, "I wish the orphanage will not be closed so that we can continue living with Mr. Walker."

Hearing her answer, Trevor was speechless and he felt a little sad.

Of course, the children who lived here wished that the orphanage could continue to operate.

Stroking Noor's head, Trevor got emotional.

Then, he continued to ask, "Do you have any other wishes beside that one?"

Hearing it, the little girl's face lit up with excitement. Tilting her head, Noor thought for a while.

With a sweet smile on her face, she said, "Actually, I want to go to school. Also, I heard that the amusement park is very fun. So, I want to go there too!"

After listening to Noor carefully, Trevor took a deep breath as he got emotional again.

For many average people, going to school and amusement park was probably the most common thing in the world. However, for these children in the orphanage, it was just a wishful thinking.

At that time, he made a pinky promise with Noor seriously.

"Be good. I believe your wishes will come true one day."

Hearing his promise, Noor's grin even got wider. Then, she handed the candy in her chubby hand to Trevor while saying, "Thank you so much, Trevor. I'll give you this candy. I've saved it for a long time."

Without saying anything, Stewart watched the scene in front of him and nodded gratefully to Trevor for comforting Noor.

However, his smile turned into a bitter one in an instant.

Seeing the happy expression on Noor's face made Stewart feel sad all of a sudden.

After all, it was just a white lie. How could it come true?

At that time, Trevor noticed that Stewart's face changed. He knew that Stewart thought that the pinky promise he had just now was an empty one.

However, Trevor didn't mind it because it didn't matter.

When Stewart wasn't looking, Trevor secretly picked up his phone and texted Jeanne. In the message, he told her to come to the orphanage as soon as possible and discuss with the director about constructing buildings in the orphanage.

Moreover, Trevor even specially told her not to reveal his identity.

If the children found out that he was the sponsor of the new orphanage, they would surely be grateful.

When that happened, their relationship might not be as close as it was right now. In fact, they might even treat him with great respect.

Thinking about it, Trevor was more willing to keep the current state.

About half an hour later, Jeanne rushed to the orphanage.

She didn't seem to be affected by her brother's incident and she still looked shrewd and capable.

Once she entered the office, Jeanne went straight to the point, "It's nice to meet you, Mr. Walker. Our boss wants to make a huge donation to the orphanage and build new facilities to improve the living condition of the children here. What do you think?"

As soon as she finished saying that, she stole a glance at Trevor.

In shock, Stewart shouted, "What? Your boss is going to sponsor our orphanage and build new facilities?"

To make sure it wasn't a dream, Stewart even tugged at his goatee.

This whole time, he had been thinking about how to run the orphanage. However, there was a mysterious rich man who was willing to help him out? This is unbelievable!
