

Blessed 298

Chapter 298 Who Is Mr. Sanderson

At that time, Gerry couldn't care about Alvaro's safety anymore. The only thing he wanted to do right now was to run away and escape this place!

However, when he glanced at the door to seek an opportunity to escape, his expression became stiff. He froze once he saw the sight.

He was so shocked that he couldn't say a word!

From the door, more than a dozen men walked in.

All of them were wearing black suits like Bradley.

Although they looked calm, their aura wasn't inferior to that of Bradley, who just fought against him!

The group of strong men came towards Trevor as they bowed and shouted in unison, "Mr. Sanderson!"

In the middle of the group, there was a strong man who looked like the leader of the group. He was tall, at least over two meters! He looked at Bradley who was holding the car door and said in a deep voice, "No. 6, you did a great job. You can come back to the team now."

Nodding his head, Bradley threw the car door on the ground!

Because of the impact, the car door hit the ground with a loud thud.

Everyone was shocked!

All of them just witnessed that Bradley defeated more than 10 people by himself.

Such a powerful and ruthless character was only ranked sixth in this group of people!

They couldn't help but wonder how terrifying the people above his ranking would be.

Thinking about it, all the guests felt extremely respectful to that young man.

Who the heck was Mr. Sanderson?

As the rich people didn't know Trevor, it was natural that they were shocked.

However, in this case, even Selman, who had already known Trevor's identity was shocked!

With her eyes filled with awe, Selma refreshed her cognition.

Of course, it was a well-known fact that the Sanderson family was powerful and rich.

However, she didn't expect that so many powerful characters were willing to follow Trevor!

Selma once again realized that the Sanderson family was indeed unfathomable! Thinking about it, she looked at Trevor with astonishment.

However, what she didn't know was that even Trevor just came into contact with these men.

After introducing with each other, he finally found out about the background of these men.

The leader at the front was called Abbott. He was the No. 1 fighter in the group. Bradley was No. 6.

Each of them had their rankings.

They devoted themselves to the Sanderson family.

After brief introduction, Abbott walked towards Gerry, who was now slumping on the ground.

The top fighter of the Duffy family was no longer arrogant as before. Instead, he was trembling and his face was full of panic.

When Abbott got in front of Gerry, he grasped his neck and raised him up as if he was lifting a cat. Then, he threw him in front of Trevor.

Pressing Gerry's head with his strong hand, Abbott said coldly, "Now, kowtow to Mr. Sanderson and apologize!"

Even though Gerry was trembling, he still held his head high and raised his voice, pretending to be confident.

"Do you have any idea who I am? I'm from the Duffy family! Let me go right now, or the Duffy family won't let you go!"

Hearing his words, Abbott chuckled dryly and said, "The Duffy family is powerful? Really? Show me then."

After saying that, he pressed Gerry's head and smashed it heavily to the marble floor.

Bang!

A loud bang echoed throughout the hall.

Just like that, Abbott smashed more than ten times until Gerry's face was covered with blood and twisted in pain.

In the end, Gerry could no longer hold on and begged for mercy. "I was wrong. Please forgive me!"

As if he was afraid that his sincerity wouldn't be enough, he even tried to move towards Trevor and beg for mercy. However, he was firmly held down by Abbott.

The struggling Gerry looked like a bug that was drowning.

Waving his hand dismissively, Trevor said coldly, "Forget about the apology. Just detain him first."

The truth was, Trevor didn't want to waste his time on a thug like Gerry. After all, there was more important things to solve, like Alvaro. Thinking about it, he turned to look at him coldly.

In fact, Alvaro knew that things wouldn't end up well when he saw Bradley beat all his men to a pulp.

Since everyone's attention was on Gerry and the others, Alvaro took this as an opportunity to escape this place. Thinking about it, he tried his best to retract his head and bend his body.

However, he had no chance to escape.

As soon as Abbott finished ordering others to keep an eye on Gerry, he walked towards Alvaro step by step.

The more Abbott got closer, the more Alvaro got scared! Each step the man took was like a death note ringing in Alvaro's ears.

At that time, Alvaro was so scared that he thought that he was going to pee in his pants.

"D-Don't... I'm warning you, don't come over! You don't know my father? His name is Sheppard, the underground emperor of Ripon! He is coming to save me now! If you dare to hurt me, my father will never let you go!"
