Chapter 299 Sheppard Duffy

The moment Sheppard's name was mentioned, everyone froze.

Especially, all the rich people from Ripon showed fear on their faces.

After all, Sheppard was a cruel and merciless man.

People got that impression of him when he became the leader of the underground in Ripon.

There were theories about how all his enemies disappeared in a short amount of time, which was indeed terrifying.

At that time, a middle-aged man appeared at the entrance of the Season Hotel.

He had shaved his head and had a gloomy face. With malicious eyes, he slowly looked around the hall.

One of his eyeballs seemed to rotate very hard, which looked pretty terrifying.

Seeing the man, Alvaro shouted happily, "Dad, I'm here! Tell someone to kill all these bastards!"

All the rich people from Ripon didn't even dare to take a breath.

The terrifying man was really here!

At that time, someone exclaimed, "This shows the courage of the underground emperor of Ripon! He even came here alone. How confident is that?"

"Yes, even if this young man has powerful subordinates, he will definitely be in trouble. I mean Sheppard has hundreds of goons under his command!"

"Well, now that he offended the Duffy family, he will surely die."

Since his father was finally here, Alvaro regained his confidence and became ruthless again!

After all, his father never feared anything or anyone!

All he wanted was to see Trevor end up miserably.

Alvaro glared fiercely at Trevor with bloodshot eyes.

He looked as if he was going to rush over any time.

Then, he shouted angrily, "Dad, tell more people to come here. I'll torture him hard, remove all the tendons of his hands and feet and make him disabled..."

However, before he could finish his words, he was slapped hard across the face.

A loud slap echoed throughout the hall.

The one who slapped him was none other than Sheppard!

"You ungrateful bastard! How dare you cause trouble everywhere you go?"

In fact, although Sheppard's face was filled with anger, his forehead was sweating a lot.

As most of the people didn't expect this kind of outcome, they bit their tongues in astonishment.

Everyone thought that Sheppard would take revenge on Trevor. Therefore, they couldn't understand why he slapped his son.

On the other hand, Trevor was indifferent because he had already guessed the result.

He only smiled confidently.

In his opinion, he thought that Alvaro had never been afraid of anyone because of his father's background.

Honestly, Sheppard was speechless. A trace of fear flashed in his one sighted eye.

As soon as he heard that his son was crying because he was beaten, he immediately rushed towards the Season Hotel for revenge. After all, he was always the arrogant man.

However, on his way to the hotel, he received a mysterious call.

In fact, he had two mobile numbers, one was dedicated to the closest people and no outsiders knew about it.

Besides, since it was encrypted, it was impossible to call unless it was someone he had verified.

Hence, he was surprised as someone was calling this number.

After hesitating for a while, he answered the call.

Once he picked up, the person on the other end of the phone said, "Your son has offended someone he shouldn't have. So, there is no need for your Duffy family to exist."

The voice on the other end of the phone didn't sound threatening at all. However, it seemed to contain an irresistible authority and dignity.

As soon as the person finished saying what he wanted, he hung up.

Obviously, Sheppard was shocked and confused because of the phone call. He was in a daze when his phone started ringing again and again.

All the messages informed him that all the industries of the Duffy family were seized and frozen.

In other words, it meant that the Duffy family went bankrupt in an instant.

Only then did Sheppard remember what his son had said while complaining to him on the phone.

"Dad, I am getting beaten! He is a trash named Trevor Sanderson!"

He had the surname Sanderson... Did that mean...

Thinking about it, Sheppard's eyes became so wide that his artificial eye almost popped out.

Truth be told, when he sent people to take over the Wright family's business, he had investigated the reason why they went bankrupt.

At that time, he found out that the mysterious Sanderson family had destroyed the Wright family overnight.

Therefore, he didn't dare to offend the Sanderson family!

Suddenly, Sheppard woke up from his memory. Then, he turned to look at Trevor who had a fake smile on his face.

Gritting his teeth, Sheppard slapped his son across his face again!
