Chapter 308 The Loser Will Bark Like A Dog!

When Trevor turned around to look at the intruder, he found that Marlon was standing behind him with three other men.

As far as Trevor could remember, the other three men were members of the school's baseball club just like Marlon.

Looking down at Trevor, Marlon said with disdain, "It's a waste of time for a loser like you to exercise. Why don't you get out of here to make room for us?"

Coincidentally, Marlon came to the budokan with his mates from the baseball club today.

As soon as he entered the place, he saw Luisa.

Originally, he wanted to say hello to her and take this as an opportunity to get close to her.

However, the next moment, he saw that Luisa was helping Trevor wipe the sweat with concern.

Seeing the scene, Marlon's good mood disappeared immediately.

'Why does it have to be Trevor among everyone?' Marlon cursed in his heart.

In an instant, he became so jealous that he wanted to drive Trevor away from here.

After taking a short rest, Trevor regained some of his strength.

When Trevor heard what Marlon said, he looked at him and said, "Every venue in this budokan is free. The one who comes first is the one who owns. Why should I give it to you?"

On the other hand, Marlon smiled viciously. Crossing his arms, he threatened arrogantly, "Well, Trevor, since you said this is a free site, it means it is open for competition. Let me tell you one thing. My friends are not as easy-going as me. Don't force us to beat you. Get out of here right now if you don't want to be beaten!"

Hearing his threat, Luisa looked worriedly at the three strong men, who were standing behind Marlon.

Among them, one man looked incredibly strong with muscles bulging under his shirt.

He looked really cruel.

Seeing the man, Luisa whispered into Trevor's ear, "How about we leave now, Trevor?"

However, Trevor refused to leave and comforted her in a low voice, "Don't worry, Luisa. These people can't make any trouble."

Unlike Trevor, Luisa didn't know that Bradley was good at fighting.

Last time at the banquet, Bradley defeated all the guards of the Duffy family on his own. So, of course, he could easily deal with students like them.

In order to comfort Luisa, Trevor patted her hand gently as if he was telling her not to worry.

Since the time the two of them held hands at Mona's wedding, the physical contact between the two of them became more natural.

However, their actions only made Marlon more furious.

Marlon couldn't help but get angry when he saw that Trevor and Luisa were whispering to each other intimately while holding hands. Gritting his teeth, he said angrily, "Fuck off, Trevor! If you don't get out of here right now, I'll beat you to death!"

The strongest man who was standing behind Marlon also sneered. To look intimidating, he put his arms across his chest.

At that time, Bradley, who had been silent all the time, suddenly said in a cold voice, "Since we are in the martial arts club, let's follow the rules of the club then. Like you said, we will compete on the ring. The loser will have to get out of here."

Hearing this, Marlon and his friends turned to look at Bradley with disdain.

In their eyes, Bradley wasn't strong as he didn't have muscles like the strong man behind Marlon.

Today, he was wearing loose sportswear. Therefore, his muscles weren't obvious. Instead, he looked like an ordinary thin young man.

The strong man stepped out from behind Marlon and stood directly in front of Bradley. Then, he said with disdain, "You are courting death. So, I, Truett Larson, will fulfill your wish and beat you to death. I will crush you on the ground like crushing an ant!"

While the strong man was talking arrogantly, Bradley simply glanced at him and said, "We will just have to fight and find out who is courting death."

After saying that, Bradley walked towards the center of the venue without looking back.

Now that they were really going to fight, Luisa became more and more worried.

However, because of her trust in Trevor, she calmed down and forced herself to stop worrying. To distract her mind, she started cheering up for Bradly.

With a faint smile on his face, Trevor also shouted a few words to support. However, Marlon just smirked and mocked him.

"Pfft, you poor loser. Do you really think that the pathetic idiot there can defeat Truett? Actually, Truett has participated in the unarmed combat of Jork and won the third place. So, I suggest you wait and pay for the medical fees for that guy!"

The whole time, Marlon looked smug as he was sure that Bradly would end up miserably.

On the contrary, Trevor just raised his eyebrows and said indifferently, "Let's just wait and see. The loser will have to bark like a dog!"
