

Blessed 309

Chapter 309 Sneak Attack

With a smirk on his face, Marlon said excitedly, "Well, Trevor, you are the one who asked for it!"

In fact, Marlon thought that Luisa would be disappointed in Trevor as long as Truett defeated his opponent.

If he lost, he would have to bark like a dog and it would surely be embarrassing. If he didn't, he would be breaking his promise.

Thinking about this, Marlon felt the need to win. In his eyes, Luisa would choose a better man like him over a poor guy like Trevor.

However, things would be different if Truett lost. But how on earth could that happen? How would a thin young man defeat someone like Truett?

Shaking his head, Marlon looked at the battle ring confidently.

At that time, Bradley was standing in the center of the battle ring. Putting his hands behind his back, he studied Truett calmly.

On the contrary, Truett was bouncing left and right irritably, as if he was venting his exuberant energy.

The atmosphere between the two of them was serious and tense. They looked as if they were about to fight at any time.

Finally, Bradley stretched out his fist to fist punch, indicating that he was indeed ready.

After all, this action was a common greeting on the battle ring.

When Truett saw his gesture, he smiled evilly.

Then, he stretched out his hand as if he was going to greet.

However, when he got halfway through, he took back his fist and kicked at the vital part of Bradley.

Seeing the scene, Marlon laughed smugly.

In his eyes, this was a foregone conclusion that Truett would defeat Bradley in the end.

When that happened, he could force Trevor to bark and even let Truett beat him up.

When Luisa saw the sudden change in his way, Luisa couldn't help but gasp loudly.

At that time, she didn't dare to look at the scene anymore. Instead, she closed her eyes tightly.

The next second, a muffled sound came from the battle ring.

It was the sound of someone being knocked down to the ground.

Luisa reluctantly opened her eyes slowly. She couldn't bear to see Bradley in a miserable situation.

Most of all, she was worried that Trevor would be forced to bark like a dog later.

However, when she looked up, she couldn't believe her eyes!

Inside the ring, Bradley was standing there indifferently.

What surprised everyone was, Truett was on the ground as he held his knee and cried in pain.

His knee was bent very irregularly as if it had just been run over by a car!

Seeing the scene, Luisa was surprised while Marlon became scared.

In fact, Marlon watched the whole scene without even blinking his eyes.

He saw with his own eyes that Truett changed his move to launch a sneak attack.

Of course, Bradley also saw that he changed his move. Therefore, he turned his fist into a palm and looked at Truett's leg that was about to kick him from a tilted angle.

After that, Bradley hit Truett's knee with his palm heavily which dented the knee joint in the opposite direction!

The whole venue was dead silent!

Truett could only groan for a while holding his knee before he fainted in pain.

With a cold look on his face, Bradley said indifferently, "He doesn't even have a good skill yet he dare to sneak attack. So, he deserves it."

After saying that, he jumped off from the battle ring and walked towards them. Marlon was so frightened that he beckoned to the other two companions behind him to sneak away from here.

His actions didn't go unnoticed by Trevor. Before he could sneak out, Trevor reached his hand out as he stopped him and said with a smile, "I thought someone said that the loser would have to bark like a dog."

Hearing his words, Marlon's face turned pale and blue as he stuttered, "W-Who said that..."

He was about to go back on his words when he found that Bradley was looking directly at him with burning eyes.

His eyes made him shiver with fear.

Facing someone who could beat Truett with one move, Marlon didn't dare to break his promise.

With pain written all over his face, Marlon closed his eyes tightly and cried out bitterly.

"Woof! Woof!"

"Woof, woof, woof!"

His strange actions attracted everyone's attention and they stared at him with amused expression on their faces.

In the end, he felt so humiliated that he didn't dare to stay here any longer.

Therefore, he quickly asked the other two companions to drag Truett away. Because of the laughter from everyone, Marlon got so angry that he thought he was going to pass out there and then. After that, he fled the place in a hurry.

Looking at the retreating figure of Marlon, Trevor smiled triumphantly.

His happiness didn't last long as Bradley came over towards him and told him to continue the last training.

Everything that happened just now seemed like nothing to Bradley.

Although Trevor's expression turned sour, he still tried his best to concentrate on the last round of training.

After all, he had chosen Bradley as his coach and so, he had to follow his orders.

One!

Two!

While breathing heavily, Trevor gritted his teeth and completed the action. However, a smile was still attached on his face the whole time.

Moreover, the way Bradly just defeated Truett made him look forward to his skills in the future!
