Chapter 322 Revealing The Truth

Once he got the answer from Danna, Trevor couldn't help but chuckle.

After that, he explained the whole situation to Danna through his phone.

Originally, Danna was a little excited when she got the message from Trevor.

However, when she found out the whole story, she became serious and sent him a message.

"Mr. Sanderson, I only have one disciple named Isla and she is a teacher in your school this year. Where are you? I'll tell her to come to you right now!"

Just as Trevor sent his location to Danna, he heard a sneer from Mattie.

"Humph, don't pretend to fiddle with your mobile phone, Trevor. You don't want to compensate me for ruining my dress?"

In order to please Mattie, many members of the student union echoed.

"Trevor, why are you wasting time? Hurry up and compensate her for the dress!"

"Yes, he's right. Raise money and give it to Mattie."

However, Trevor ignored everyone and stared at Mattie. Then, he said, "We only cleaned like you ordered. You fell down because you didn't walk carefully. It has nothing to do with us. So, why should we compensate you?"

After saying that, he looked up and down at Mattie's dress and said in a calm voice, "Besides, your dress is made by a fake designer. It isn't worth several thousand dollars."

His words made Mattie furious.

"You know nothing, Trevor! My dress is designed by the disciple of Danna. Look, do you see the logo here? Don't talk nonsense!"

Just as she finished saying, an attractive female voice sounded from behind, "This is impossible."

The woman was wearing a large black and white shirt with a pair of designer trousers. She looked very stylish.

Panting slightly, she frowned and looked at Mattie. It seemed that she had trotted all the way here.

Only Trevor knew that the person in front of him was Danna's disciple, named Isla Quinn.

Mattie didn't like that someone interrupted her. Therefore, she said discontentedly, "Who are you and what does this matter have to do with you?"

When Isla heard her words, she sneered and said, "You don't even know me. How dare you say that I designed this dress?"

In fact, she rushed over here as soon as she saw the message from her teacher.

As a fashion designer, her reputation was the most important thing to her. So, she couldn't tolerate when someone said that she designed such kind of cheap dress!

Without showing slightest politeness, Isla looked at Mattie with disdain and said, "This dress is made of inferior materials and it isn't even dyed properly. The color matching is worse too. How dare you say that it is designed by me?"

Isla's words made Mattie feel embarrassed.

Only then did the onlookers recognize Isla.

"Oh my god, she is really Danna's disciple, Ms. Quinn. She was hired as a teacher by our school this year. She is the famous new designer in our country and she has won in the young designer contest!"

The students around finally understood the situation and looked at Mattie with a strange look.

It turned out that Trevor was right. This dress wasn't designed by Danna's disciple!
