

Blessed 323

Chapter 323 Using Fake Goods

However, as Mattie was the president of the student union, the students around them didn't dare to point anything out.

So, they chose to keep silent as if they knew nothing. After all, none of them wanted to be on bad terms with their president.

Only then did Mattie realize that the one who was standing in front of her was the apprentice of Danna.

In fact, her dress was given to her by a rich young man who told her that it was very expensive.

Because of this dress, Mattie flirted with that man for several days. She didn't expect that she would be insulted because of this dress which was labeled as worthless.

Although she was frustrated, she still argued stubbornly, "I just said that it was designed by Danna's apprentice. It might not be you. Why do you say that this dress is fake?"

Hearing her words, Isla rolled her eyes and said coldly, "Don't you know that I'm the only disciple of Danna?"

In an instant, Mattie's face turned pale. This time, she couldn't say anything back.

No one had thought that Mattie's lie would be exposed mercilessly like this. This was absolutely humiliating.

At that time, the members of the student union present tried their best to hold back their laughter.

On the contrary, Trevor didn't care about her anymore.

Looking at Mattie, he burst into laughter as he said, "You always use fake stuff, do you? You really are a queen of using fakes. I mean it's not a big deal to use a fake item. Just stop pretending and showing off."

In the past, when Trevor bought a cell phone, Mattie showed off with a fake perfume. Today, she showed off her fake dress.

For Trevor, this kind of person was undoubtedly a joke.

Hearing his words, everyone couldn't hold back their laughter anymore and burst out laughing.

At that time, Mattie was so angry that she gritted her teeth and glared at the crowd.

Because of the look she was giving, everyone shut up again and pretended as if they hadn't laughed just now.

However, some people couldn't control their laughter and covered their mouths to hide their snicker.

For everyone, the situation was a little amusing.

Even Luisa was trying her best not to laugh. However, the smile on her face was still visible.

Then, she pulled Trevor's sleeve quietly, indicating him to leave with her right now.

In fact, Luisa was afraid that she would burst out laughing if she stayed here any longer.

Now that Mattie got the punishment she deserved, Trevor didn't want to waste his time on her anymore.

He thought it was better if he studied with Luisa for the final exam.

When people saw that both Luisa and Trevor left the scene, the onlookers hurried to disperse too.

Once the crowd got far away from the classroom, they burst into laughter.

However, since they didn't get any further, Mattie also heard their laughter which made her face paler than before.

Clenching her fists, Mattie looked at the retreating figures of Trevor and Luisa with her eyes filled with resentment. Then, she said under her breath, "Trevor, just wait and see. I will revenge!"

Two days later, the final exam came.

Because of his effectual review before the exam, Trevor finished the test without any difficulties.

After checking the examination paper, Trevor prepared to hand it in.

However, before he could, a bald middle-aged fat man suddenly walked into the classroom.

Seeing the man, the invigilator walked up towards him and asked, "Mr. Lopez, what's the matter?"

The director whose name was Hans Lopez shouted, "I was reported that someone in this classroom cheated in the exam. So, everyone, stop writing and don't move."

Originally, Trevor didn't take his words seriously.

However, what happened next made him confused.

The director walked to the back row and stood directly in front of his table while looking down at him.

Suddenly, he thought, 'Did someone report Hans that I cheated in the exam?'