Chapter 331 Trevor Is Courting Death

As soon as Alvin finished his words, the people standing behind him burst into laughter.

The girls standing in the room looked pale. They were obviously scared and angry.

Luisa also felt the same way, and she couldn't help but tremble.

Alvin was from the Harper family, which was one of the most powerful families in Jork.

Although her family had faced a conflict with the Harper family before, the crisis was solved inexplicably in the end. Would she be safe now?

Trevor seemed to have sensed Luisa's nervousness, so he used a bit more strength.

His warm touch made her feel a little better.

Seeing that the other girls were still trembling, she plucked up her courage, gritted her teeth, and hissed, "Mr. Harper, we cannot accompany you for a drink! You are the one who came here to make trouble first, so why are you asking us to apologize?"

However, to her surprise, Alvin's expression darkened.

And before he could say anything, Marlon scolded, "How dare you talk to Mr. Harper like that? Apologize to him at once!"

Luisa looked at Marlon in surprise. She did not expect him to be so ruthless and irresponsible.

The next second, Marlon pretended to be nice as he tried to persuade, "It will be bad for all of us if you offend Mr. Harper, so just consider it as a favor and have a drink with him."

All the other boys who had started the fight suddenly came to their senses and echoed with him.

"Yes, it's just a drink. It's not going to hurt you!"

"Luisa, do you really want all of us to get into trouble?"

They just said some bold words, mocking Trevor for not hitting Alvin.

And now, they were sucking up to Alvin, to curry favor with him.

At the same time, everyone else lowered their heads and remained silent, not daring to make a sound.

Seeing that, Luisa was disappointed.

Did they not know the reason why a playboy like Alvin would ask a girl to join him for a drink?

They probably made a mistake, but it was not right for them to put the blame on the innocent girls, asking them to take responsibility.

How could those boys be so nasty?

The other girls were also feeling very helpless. Who else could help them get out of the situation?

Would they really join Alvin and the others for a drink and let them take advantage?

That moment, a calm voice came.

"Mr. Harper, for my sake, please let the girls go."

To the girls' surprise, it was Trevor who stood up for them.

Looking straight at Alvin, he tried to stop him.

Actually Marlon had fought Alvin and the others because of his personal anger.

Even if the other boys were involved in the fight, Trevor had nothing to do with it.

But Alvin was insatiable and he was trying to force the girls to join him for a drink.

Hence, Trevor stood up for them and put forward his calm request.

Trevor actually still wanted to solve the problem peacefully because he was the kind of person who did not like to get into unnecessary conflicts.

But his restraint only made Alvin think of him as a clown.

With a suspicious look in his eyes, Alvin was stunned.

The next second, he laughed at Trevor contemptuously and cursed, "For your sake? Who the hell do you think you are?"

Marlon and the others became even more anxious after hearing Trevor's words.

They were thinking of using the girls to solve the problem.

And they didn't expect Trevor to speak up so boldly.

Hence, they all looked at him with resentment in their eyes.

"Trevor, if you want to court death, then do it alone! Don't get us involved!"
