

Blessed 34

Chapter 34 Trevor'S Scandal

May I borrow the perfume box, Miss Taylor? I want to take a short video of it and then post it on TikTok.

Jaycee was an online celebrity on TikTok, a short video platform.

She often shared selfie videos and, as of date, had accumulated tens of thousands of followers.

Of course. Go ahead.

Bessie thought it was just a box.

It was not a big deal if she gave it to Jaycee.

Thank you, Miss Taylor, Jaycee said gratefully and took the box.

After walking out of the luxury store, the girls went shopping for more than an hour and, at the end of the day, got exhausted.

Bessie drove them back to the dormitory and then went home.

After Corrie and her roommates returned to their dormitory, Jaycee immediately opened a conversation about Trevor.

Wow, I didn't expect Trevor to be so rich. It must be the reason he keeps a low profile.

If he's willing to buy me a bottle of perfume that's worth three hundred thousand dollars, I may consider being his girlfriend.

You'll just consider being his girlfriend? I think if he really gifts you with something that expensive, you'll let him do whatever he wants to you.

You're so mean, Jaycee! I'm not like that!

The girls teased, tickled, and chased each other around their dorm room.

After a while, they were panting and disheveled like fourth graders running around the schoolyard. The entire scene was amusing.

Corrie still could not believe what they found out.

She had always looked down upon Trevor.

But Trevor really spent three hundred thousand dollars on a bottle of perfume for Bessie, which made her a little jealous.

Sylvia, who lived in the dorm room next door, came back from her class.

When she overheard Corrie and the other girls talking about Trevor, she ran over and joined them.

Seeing Sylvia walking over, Jaycee stopped playing around with her roommates and addressed her.

Hey, Sylvia. Have you heard? Trevor gave Miss Taylor a bottle of perfume that's worth three hundred thousand dollars. We just came from the shop to verify if it was real, and it was. Can you believe that?

After saying that, Jaycee proudly showed off the box in her hand.

Of course Sylvia knew about it.

This morning, she saw Trevor buy the perfume with her own eyes.

How could the perfume be a fake?

Is that so? Well, let me tell you something about that. I talked to him just now about the perfume, and I asked him how he was able to afford it. He told me that he won three hundred thousand dollars at the lottery and spent it all on that bottle of perfume.

What? Are you serious? He just won the lottery? I thought he was really rich!

Jaycee and her roommates were disappointed, and their fantasy of having a rich boyfriend like Trevor got squashed under the weight of Sylvia's words.

Trevor was still the poor Trevor.

What an idiot! How could he blow his lottery winnings on a single item that he wasn't even buying for himself?

Corrie sneered.

Knowing that Trevor was still a poor and apparently mindless young man, she felt much better.

Trevor is a fool. Why don't we spread his stupidity to the school group and let everyone know what he did?

As soon as Sylvia finished her words, she immediately sent the message to the group that read, 'Trevor won the lottery and spent all the money at once.'

Today, Trevor made her waste her tears, and she must revenge.

As soon as the message was delivered to the school group, it immediately caused a heated discussion.

Many people laughed at Trevor and called him a brainless simp.

I'm going to post about this on my TikTok. Maybe it can help me gain more followers.

Jaycee took out her phone and shot a video of the perfume box.

Then, she aimed the camera at her face and said, "My dear fans, this is Hermès' new limited edition perfume.

It's worth three hundred thousand dollars, and only two hundred bottles of this beauty exist around the world.

There's also a surprising story behind it because the person who bought this bottle of perfume is the poorest student in our school."

While aiming the camera back to the perfume box, Jaycee made an amazed expression and continued.

"My friends and I thought the perfume was fake, but when we had it checked, it was indeed real.

It made me wonder if the poorest student in our school was actually rich and was just keeping it under wraps."

Jaycee went on to narrate exaggeratedly the story about Trevor winning the lottery and spending all his prize money on the perfume.

In order to keep her wholesome Internet personality she had worked so hard to build, Jaycee did not belittle Trevor in any way, but she did tell the story with many twists and turns.

After that, she added several special effects on her video to make it look attractive and interesting.

A few moments after the video went live on TikTok, the comments started pouring in.

Jaycee also told her classmates in the group to watch her latest TikTok video.

At this time, Trevor just returned to his dormitory and saw his roommate, Rob, looking at something intently on his phone.

Curious, Trevor approached to look at what he was watching.
