

Blessed 340

Chapter 340 Celine's Plan

However, in the face of such a sexual scene, Trevor just let out a light snort.

He didn't even let his eyes linger on Celine.

Just now, the two women were so arrogant that they didn't listen to his explanation at all. They insulted him and mocked him, completely unaware that they were handing their fate to someone who could easily crush it.

After learning of Trevor's identity, they switched their attitudes from arrogant to docile. They even started praising him just to appease him.

Amanda, Celine's agent, in particular, went overboard with the compliments, which disgusted Trevor.

Knowing what Trevor was thinking, Jeanne asked, "What should we do with these two people, Mr. Sanderson?"

The power of the Sanderson family gave Jeanne the confidence to say something like that.

Hearing this, Trevor glanced at Amanda, wrinkled his nose, and replied, "Ban the agent from the industry. I don't want to see her again."

With that, Amanda's face turned deathly pale. She fell on her knees and began crying out for mercy.

"I'm so sorry, Mr. Sanderson. I was wrong. Please don't ban me. This is my livelihood."

Jeanne cringed at Amanda's begging voice that sounded like nails against a chalkboard. She called for security, and the guards came to drag Amanda away.

Then, Trevor fixed his gaze on Celine.

"As for her..."

Being stared at by Trevor, Celine couldn't help feeling flustered.

After all, the man in front of her could decide her future with just a word.

Although she was a famous star in the country now, she still couldn't afford to offend a prominent family like the Sandersons.

Trevor raised his eyebrows and kept silent for a while. After a few heartbeats, he waved his hand.

"Replace Celine in the cooperative commercial with someone else."

Compared to Amanda who was tactless and impudent, Celine's behavior was reasonable.

She might have been disrespectful to Trevor as well, but Trevor had seen her naked.

Trevor thought that they were even. Instead of punishing Celine gravely like he did Amanda, he just decided to terminate their contract and call it a day.

Jeanne nodded and then left with Trevor.

In a flash, Celine was left alone in the middle of the luxurious place, standing there in a daze.

After a long time, she finally snapped back to her senses. She couldn't help feeling a little disappointed.

On one hand, Celine truly regretted that she had missed the perfect opportunity to work with Mr. Sanderson.

If she had known that Mr. Sanderson wanted nothing more than an interview with her, she wouldn't have made so much effort. All she needed to do was act all sweet and innocent.

That was a role she was born to play.

On the other hand, Celine felt relieved that she didn't go to town on Trevor the way Amanda did. If she had insulted him like her agent did, she also would've been banished from the industry.

Her life would've been ruined just like Amanda's.

Celine was an A-list female star. A lot of rich people pursued her, but she didn't really like any of them.

However, the Sanderson family was different. It was one of the wealthiest and most powerful families in the city. Of course, Celine would be attracted by it.

It was her biggest dream to marry a rich man at the prime of her life and lead a luxurious, carefree life.

Celine just witnessed today how one of the Sandersons easily banned her agent from the industry.

Instead of being intimidated by that kind of power, Celine felt excited.

What a loaded and formidable family!

Thinking of this, Celine decided to make up her mind.

She told herself, "Now that I know a member of the Sanderson family, I will stop at nothing to make him mine."

She believed that her sexy figure and beautiful face could attract Mr. Sanderson.

Actually, when Mr. Sanderson saw her naked earlier, his face turned red with shyness.

Now that the advertisement was cancelled and her agent was out of the picture, Celine could make her move to get close to Trevor without restriction.
