

Blessed 344

Chapter 344 An Annoying Wooer

After that, the three of them headed to the restaurant.

The unique features of Scarlet Restaurant must have left a deep impression on Bessie since she decided to bring them there this time.

Of course, Trevor didn't care about where to eat at all. Now that she chose his restaurant, he could even find a way to give Bessie a discount.

When they finished ordering the dishes, Bessie swayed left and right as she waited for the dishes to be served.

Even though it was true that the dishes in this restaurant were expensive, they were very delicious. Therefore, Bessie was looking forward to eating them.

However, Bessie's happy mood disappeared soon.

The look of anticipation on her face was replaced with a cold expression that kept people away.

At first Trevor was confused. Then, he heard a slightly frivolous voice that greeted Bessie.

"Oh dear Bessie, I didn't expect to see you here."

Hearing his endearment, Bessie's expression became colder in an instant. Then, she looked at the man and said, "Erick, please watch your language. I don't think we are familiar to each other, right?"

When Trevor looked around, he found that a tall and strong muscular man with slender eyes was walking towards them. At first glance, Trevor was sure that he was a bad man.

Even after hearing Bessie's sarcastic words, Erick replied shamelessly, "Alas, our schools will be competing the game together. As coaches, I think we should be more familiar to each other. So, why don't we become friends first?"

After hearing the man's words, Trevor realized something.

This man had a crush on Bessie!

However, judging from Bessie's expression, it was obvious that she didn't like the man.

With a cold look on her face, Bessie said, "Erick, we are going to have our meal. You should leave."

However, not only Erick didn't leave, but he even took a seat at their table and said, "I'm going to have a meal too. Why don't we have a meal together? It's my treat!"

Hearing his words, Bessie couldn't help but show a disgusted look on her face as she retorted, "No, thanks. I can pay for the meal by myself."

Seeing Bessie's actions, Trevor didn't want her to feel uncomfortable.

Therefore, he stood up and sat beside Bessie.

In fact, he separated Bessie and Erick. Then, he said stiffly, "I'm sorry, Coach Erick, but this seat is mine. Please go to another table."

Without caring whether she sounded rude or not, Bessie agreed, "Yes, the waiter is about to serve our dishes. Can you leave us alone?"

The two of them had a rare tacit understanding on this matter.

Since none of them welcomed him, Erick couldn't stay any longer not matter how shameless he was.

Feeling annoyed, he sat at the next table.

In order to show off, he shouted loudly, "Waiter, I want to order."

At that time, a waiter brought the menu to Erick. However, he threw it on the table without even looking at it.

Then, he crossed his legs and said in an affected manner, "There's no need to look at the menu. Serve me the most expensive wine and dishes in your restaurant!"

While talking, he looked smugly at Trevor and the two girls.

In his eyes, they were unappreciative for refusing his treat.

The way he was showing off made Trevor frown.

In Trevor's eyes, he believed that falling in love was something that happened naturally. There shouldn't be any force.

If he was a normal person, he would have stopped once he saw that Bessie didn't like him.

However, this man was not only shameless, but also liked to show off.

If he continued to pester Bessie, it would make countless troubles for her.

Therefore, Trevor started thinking about how to solve this problem for Bessie.

After all, Bessie had always taken great care of him. So, he didn't want to see her getting into trouble.

In fact, the reason why Erick was so arrogant was because he was rich.

Since he had just come to Jork, he didn't know much about this Scarlet Restaurant.

He thought that he could afford it no matter how expensive the dishes were. After all, there would be a limit of the price of the dishes.

Without hesitation, Erick ordered. When he saw that Trevor was the only boy among the group, he mocked, "Who on earth is this poor student? Do you think it's okay to be treated by a girl?"

What a pity that you didn't accept my offer. Soon, they will serve me with many dishes and you won't have a chance to taste them."

Hearing that Erick was ordering the most expensive dishes, the waiter was stunned at first.

However, when he heard that Eric was insulting Mr. Sanderson, he frowned.

Gritting his teeth, the waiter thought, 'How dare this bastard mock our boss?'
