

Blessed 345

Chapter 345 Excellent Employee

"Sir, the best wine that we have is the Chateau Lafite Rothschild claret in 1987. A single bottle costs around one hundred thousand dollars," the waiter said politely.

Erick was stunned.

He met Bessie on his way and followed her into this restaurant, without expecting that he would get to afford this expensive wine.

Erick hesitated at first then said, "Umm...I don't think I need wine. Just serve me the best set meal here."

The waiter raised his eyebrows and responded, "Our newly added dish, the Royal Supreme Seafood, costs 18, 888 dollars per serving. Do you really want that?"

Erick gasped as he was stunned once again.

"How can it be so expensive?"

"The food of our shop is made of fresh seafood from the ocean. The chef and ingredients are all top-grade, so the food deserves the price."

After hearing the waiter's explanation, Erick was speechless.

He wanted to show off but soon realized how much money he actually had.

His face turned red with embarrassment. He gritted his teeth and said, "I don't want that! I'll just have something on my own. Please give me the menu."

Seeing how embarrassed Erick was, Trevor burst into laughter.

When Erick saw Trevor laughing, he felt humiliated. Soon after, this humiliation turned into anger.

He shouted, "Why are you laughing? Do you think you can afford everything here?"

Trevor was about to say something.

The waiter interrupted quickly, "Sir, would you like me to bring you our new dish, the Royal Supreme Seafood? This set meal has recently been added to our menu. Although it is expensive, the first lucky customer who tries it can enjoy a discount of up to 99%!"

Erick's facial expression changed quickly when he heard that.

He pounded the table with his fists, stood up and shouted, "Why didn't you tell me that earlier? I want this set meal!"

However, the waiter smiled politely and said, "I'm sorry but you just don't qualify. If you still want to buy it, you will have to pay the original price."

Looking at Erick getting angry, Trevor held back his laughter.

This waiter knew how to get on people's nerves. Undoubtedly, he was an excellent employee at the restaurant.

Trevor recalled the time when he had come to the Scarlet Restaurant, this waiter had made up an entire "hidden menu" for him.

Trevor wasn't expecting the waiter to play any new trick this time.

Now when Trevor saw that, he planned to tell the manager to give the waiter a pay rise.

Judging from the waiter's insight and acting skills, he shouldn't just be a waiter.

Trevor was lost in thoughts when he surprisingly said, "This is amazing! Miss Taylor, we are quite lucky. If that is the case, then let's swap the dishes."

Erick had annoyed Bessie for a long time, so she said with a smile, "Okay! Every time I come to the Scarlet Restaurant with you, something surprising usually happens."

Still standing there, Erick turned pale. He didn't move for a while.

Bessie glanced at Erick in confusion and said, "Erick, can you stop standing there like a statue? You're blocking the way and disturbing others!"

Erick couldn't stand it anymore, so he said, "Humph! I will make sure that the basketball team of your Jork University lose in the following basketball match!"

After saying that, Erick turned around to leave.

Before he could, the waiter stopped him.

"Sir, there is the cover charge in our shop, 20 dollars for each. Even if you don't order anything, you have to pay it."

Hearing this, Erick was so surprised that he almost stumbled.
