

Blessed 348

Chapter 348 Three-Pointer

Several players turned to look at the direction Erick was pointing at and saw Trevor.

At that time, Trevor was talking with Bessie.

Instantly, they understood what was going on.

It turned out that Erick wanted to take revenge on his love rival.

In fact, Erick was very kind to them and he often took them to eat, drink and have fun.

Therefore, most of the players were on good terms with him. They all had vigorous looks on their faces and they intended to help their coach teach Trevor a lesson.

The match was about to start when Trevor finished warming up.

In fact, he was taking advantage of this free time to practice playing basketball. However, his movements were a little rusty.

After all, Trevor was just a basketball lover. How could he compete with the players who had received professional training?

The only reason why he decided to take part in this match was because of Bradley who helped him in training in the past few days.

Because of the training, his physical strength improved greatly and now he had the skill to control his strength.

On the other hand, when the players from the Eastern University saw his unskillful movements, they started ridiculing even more.

"Did Erick want us to teach him a lesson?"

He looks like a total loser!"

When the third quarter of the basketball match officially started, the players of the Eastern University continued to maintain the previous competition tactics putting the players of the Jork University at a disadvantage.

When the players from the Jork University got the basketball, they just passed it to each other quickly as none of them dared to carry it for a long time.

In the end, it turned out to be the way the Eastern University players wanted because the ball ended up in Trevor's hands in the last few seconds.

As soon as the basketball was handed to Trevor, two players from the opposing team came up to him instantly.

Therefore, Trevor had no choice but to shoot at the three-point line.

The basketball drew a beautiful arc in the air... However, it ended up being an air ball.

Seeing the scene, the players of Eastern University burst into laughter.

"Ha-ha, I'm sure that he is playing to bring disgrace on his team."

"This is so hilarious. There must be no players in this Jork University since they let this kind of loser play the match!"

Bertram Hughes, who was the captain of Eastern University team, was also the center of his team.

After saying that, he even bent down and thumped his chest with his hands while making strange screams.

Then, he winked at Trevor like a gorilla which was a blatant humiliation!

He thought that Trevor was even more stupid than a gorilla!

When facing such kind of humiliation, Trevor frowned slightly, however, he didn't take it seriously.

Then, he clenched his fists and judged the strength he used just now.

Just like that, the match went on.

Although the players of the Jork University failed to attack several times, Trevor scored a two-pointer.

Nonetheless, the players of the Eastern University didn't think much of it as they thought that Trevor got lucky this time.

After some time, the basketball was sent to Trevor who was just outside the three-point line again. This time, Bertram was the one who was going to man mark Trevor.

Bertram, who was two meters in height, was like a tall wall in front of Trevor.

However, the thing that surprised everyone was, he didn't move forward to man mark Trevor at all! He just stood there and looked at Trevor with a playful look on his face.

Then, he crooked his finger provocatively, as if he was daring Trevor to make a fool out of himself.

Since he wasn't being man-marked, Trevor made a jump shot without hesitation.

After running back and forth in a few rounds, Trevor felt that he almost mastered the skill of shooting at the basket.

Although his shoot posture was not very standard, the basketball flew out an arc and hit the basket. Then, it rolled a few circles before it went through the net!

Unbelievable!

This was the field goal which was worth three-point shot!

Rubbing his eyes, Bertram looked at the score card. Obviously, he couldn't believe it at all!

Seeing the shoot, all the mocking insults he had thrown at Trevor made him look like a clown.

At that time, Erick got so angry that he called a timeout. Then, he called all the players and criticized them severely.

In the end, he added in rage, "Don't give that loser any more chance. You can use any dirty means if necessary!"

When the Eastern University players came back into the court again, Trevor could feel that they became ruder and ruder.

Even Bertram directly attacked Trevor with his elbow.

This time, he wasn't even playing the basketball. He seemed as if he was trying his best to go against Trevor.

Narrowing his eyes, Trevor glanced at Erick.

Just as he expected, there was a ferocious smile on Erick's face.

It was obvious that Erick was the one who ordered them to play dirty.

Knowing their intentions, Trevor didn't back down.

Instead, he was eager to try colliding with them.

After all, Trevor's physical strength was improved after receiving the strict training from Bradley recently.

Since he was wearing clothes, no one could see the change in his body. However, his physical strength wasn't bad at all!

He had improved in the skills of exerting strength.

The thing that he could feel the most was, there was only a muscle on his belly before. However, now...

He even hoped that he could show it off in front of Luisa when he became more and more intimate with her in the future.

Truth be told, he wanted to show her his six pack abs!
