

Blessed 360

Chapter 360 How Dare You Offend Mr. Sanderson

When Angie heard Trevor's laugh, she glared at him with her eyes filled with hatred.

After all, it was really shameful that her idol acted like a clown in public.

However, even if he did something embarrassing, an ordinary boy like Trevor didn't have the right to mock him.

Thinking about it, Angie said rudely, "Loser, why are you laughing so hard? No matter what happens to Damon, you are nothing compared with him."

On the other hand, Damon didn't dare to say any rude remarks in the face of two big celebrities.

He could only glare at Trevor maliciously and said while gritting his teeth, "Humph! You are just a guy who came out of nowhere. Do you think that you can attract Miss Barnes's attention by wearing fake designer clothes? A loser like you shouldn't be so flamboyant because I don't want Miss Barnes's eyes to be polluted."

In Damon's opinion, he couldn't think of a reason why an A-list star like Celine would take the initiative to greet Trevor.

He didn't look anything special, except for his handsome appearance.

Therefore, he thought that Celine had mistaken Trevor for someone else and greeted him.

Hearing his words, Trevor couldn't help but chuckle.

Truth be told, he didn't expect to meet Celine at the gate of the theater.

Since Celine was dressed too much, he couldn't recognize her at first.

Actually, Trevor didn't have a good impression of Celine either.

Therefore, he didn't want to talk to her yet the other people thought that he deliberately accosted her.

At that time, he felt so aggrieved.

Trevor took a look at Celine and cursed in his heart.

Raising his eyebrows, Trevor shook his head and uttered, "Oh, yeah. You are right. I shouldn't have attracted the attention of a big celebrity. I'll be going now."

As soon as he said that, Celine became anxious.

Ever since she found out about Trevor's real identity in the Willard Villa, she had been finding an opportunity to get in touch with him every day.

It wasn't easy for her to meet him. Therefore, now that she met him, how could she let him leave like this?

At that time, a loud slap could be heard clearly.

It was Celine who slapped Damon across the face.

"Who the hell do you think you are? How dare you talk to Mr. Sanderson like that?"

Covering his burning cheek, Damon was too stunned to say anything. He simply looked at Trevor and Celine in disbelief.

Mr. Sanderson? Did that mean that the boy in front of him was a rich man?

No matter how much he thought about it, he couldn't understand what was going on.

Although, he was flattering Celine, she slapped him instead of praising him.

In fact, Damon had never been slapped or beaten ever since he was a child. Now that he was slapped, tears gathered in his eyes as he started crying like a weak pitiful girl.

Facing this kind of embarrassing scene, all the people around couldn't help but get goose bumps. Even the fans of Damon were shocked.

On the other hand, the other celebrity, Alicia, had been thinking a way to put in a good word for Trevor.

Looking at Trevor's clothes carefully, she said with a smile, "Actually, this gentleman's clothes are not fake designer clothes. The suit of his logo is a little different because it was made by the famous costume designer, Danna. I know about it because I was lucky enough to wear a dress designed by Danna."

As soon as she finished saying, the crowd erupted into uproar.

If what she said was true, that meant Trevor's suit was really expensive.

In conclusion, it meant that Trevor was a super-rich young man who had a strong background.

Otherwise, why would a famous celebrity like Celine show respect for him?

Thinking about it, Angie's face turned pale and her legs went limp with fear.

Among them, Damon was even more scared. He just simply stared at Trevor as if he couldn't believe his ears. A few seconds later, he fell to the ground.

Celine looked at Damon with her eyes filled with disdain.

An idea flashed in her mind and she went straight towards Trevor.

Then, she asked respectfully, "Mr. Sanderson, what do you want to do with this guy? I will help you deal with him. In the entertainment industry, my words carry a certain weight."