

Blessed 361

Chapter 361 Punishmen

Hearing Celine's words, Trevor just glanced at Damon indifferently.

However, a single glance from Trevor made Damon even more scared.

With a trembling body, he crawled to Trevor.

Then, he held one of Trevor's legs and began to cry while saying, "M-Mr. Sanderson... I shouldn't have looked down on others. Please forgive me this time!"

Finally, Damon realized that he couldn't afford to offend Trevor. Now, he deeply regretted about what he did. He even wished that he hadn't come to the theater in the first place.

How reckless he was to insult Trevor when Celine was treating him with respect?

He must have gone crazy!

This kind of big shot could end his acting career just by saying a few words.

The more Damon thought about it, the more frightened he became. Therefore, he immediately begged for mercy.

His actions annoyed Trevor. As if his touch was disgusting, Trevor kicked him away.

Looking at Damon who was now crying like a little girl, he shook his head in disappointment.

He really didn't know what was wrong with the current entertainment industries. How were they training such kind of weird star?

Originally, Damon acted arrogantly because of his identity as an idol. However, when he encountered problems, he was like a weak cat.

Trevor didn't want to let him go as he felt disgusted with him.

After thinking for a while, the corners of his mouth lifted as he smiled at Celine.

"Well, I think the lady's idea is good. Just let Damon play as a clown in the circus. If he can't make people laugh, drive him out of the entertainment industry!"

Hearing Trevor's words, Alicia asked curiously, "Then, what if he can make people laugh?"

With a bright smile on his face, Trevor answered, "Well, it means he at least has the talent in this aspect.

Just let him continue to play as a clown. After all, it's better than crying like a little girl."

Damon was thunderstruck by Trevor's words. Immediately, he felt dizzy.

In a hurry, he composed himself and wiped his tears away. He crawled towards Trevor again and reached his hands out to hold his legs.

"Mr. Sanderson, please, I am begging you. Please don't punish me in this way! I don't want to become a clown in the circus!"

Taking a clown as a job was completely different from playing a clown in front of Celine.

Instead of becoming a clown, Damon would rather get beaten by Trevor.

Why did he become an idol in the first place? It was because he wanted to have a chance to meet many female fans.

In addition to the support from his fans, he could also choose some beautiful girls to have sex willingly.

However, if he became a clown in the circus who had to perform in front of the children all day long, how was he going to find an opportunity to get a beautiful female fan?

Again, Trevor moved aside quickly. Then, he looked at Damon with cold eyes as if he could see through his mind.

In a flat voice, he said, "You don't want to do that? Well, I think you still want to deceive girls by using your identity of a star. It will make things easier then. Now, you are banned from the entertainment industry. In that way, you can't do any evil things anymore."

After hearing his words, Damon felt depressed. However, he quickly composed himself and uttered in a hurry, "M-Mr. Sanderson... I-I will work as a clown!"

However, Trevor decided not to say anything to him anymore.

He turned to look at Celine and said calmly, "Then, I'll leave this guy to you. If you find out that he dares to play any tricks..."

While talking, Trevor paused and smirked. Then, he made a gesture of the shape of scissors with his fingers as if he was cutting something...
