

Blessed 362

Chapter 362 The Top-level Rich Family

Celine wasted no time and immediately made a phone call to deal with the matter.

The situation had become so tense that Damon was ultimately hurriedly taken away by his agent.

As he left, he walked strangely, pigeon-toed. It looked like he was scared that someone would suddenly rush in and cut off his penis.

What had just happened had completely destroyed Damon's perfect image in the hearts of his female fans like Angie.

As for Trevor, he didn't want to talk to any of these women. He waved his hand impatiently, signaling them to leave.

This whole matter wasted a lot of time. Now the time for Trevor's date with Luisa was already there. Trevor looked around the crowd for a familiar face.

However, Celine and Alicia, who hadn't left yet, had no intention of leaving him alone.

Celine was quick to take advantage of the fact that they were now alone. She gently touched her lovely breasts highlighted in her plunging neckline and smiled charmingly.

"Don't worry, Mr. Sanderson. I will definitely send someone to supervise Damon. He will never have the chance to annoy you again."

Trevor's patience was seriously beginning to wear thin. He was stunned at how fast this woman's attitude changed.

He just couldn't stand such a flattering attitude.

However, since Celine had helped put Damon in his place earlier, Trevor felt he could at least be kind to her. He looked away and nodded quickly.

"Okay."

Celine was overjoyed that Mr. Sanderson had deigned to answer her.

She quickly added, "Mr. Sanderson, I guess you are also here to go to the concert, right? Can I invite you to sit next to me?"

When she said that, she blinked her big round eyes. At the same time, she leaned forward in an extremely seductive posture.

As a famous star, Celine believed that her beauty was such that no man could resist her.

Faced with the provocative attitude of the star, Trevor could not help blushing.

He coughed a few times and then politely declined her invitation.

"Sorry. I have an appointment with someone else tonight."

Of course, Celine was rather disappointed by Trevor's refusal.

However, she was savvy enough not to let her disappointment show. She kept her chin up and said in a sad tone, "Oh, I see... Mr. Sanderson, can I at least have your contact information?"

This time, Trevor didn't have any good reason to refuse. He added Celine and Alicia on the account that he used to chat with those rich people.

In all honesty Trevor was not completely indifferent to the charms of these two women. They were really very beautiful.

Celine in particular was simply stunning. She had a perfect figure and a pretty face. Trevor was so embarrassed he had to look away.

In order not to have to watch these stunning women who did everything to seduce him, Trevor turned his attention to the passers-by at the entrance of the theater. Suddenly he saw Luisa in the distance.

The moment Trevor spotted Luisa, his face lit up with joy.

Without turning around, he said to the celebrities, "My friend is coming, so I'm leaving now."

Then he ran straight to Luisa.

Celine gritted her teeth in anger as she saw Trevor leave hurriedly.

She had pulled out all the stops today to seduce Mr. Sanderson. She had even gone so far as to make poses of which she was ashamed!

And despite all that, she was still unable to stay with Mr. Sanderson just for a few more minutes!

Seeing Trevor and Luisa join excitedly, Celine couldn't contain her frustration any longer.

Luisa might be a cute girl, but so what?

She was just a little girl. Her breasts were not as large as Celine's, and her buttocks were not as big either. Celine couldn't understand why Trevor was more willing to stay with Luisa than with her.

Of course, Alicia noticed that her friend was in a bad mood. She smiled and joked, "Celine, it seems that the guy you fell for fell for someone else!"

Celine turned to her friend and said coldly, "How dare you make fun of me?"

The two ladies joked for a while. Suddenly, Alicia became serious and asked curiously, "How come you fell for such a young man? Who is he?"

Celine was silent for a while and then whispered something in her friend's ear.

Celine knew Alicia was a simple-minded woman and wouldn't try to compete with her. So she told Alicia about Trevor's true identity.

To say Alicia was shocked by what her friend told her would be saying the very least. She exclaimed in a low voice, "Did you just say the Sanderson family? The mysterious Sanderson family? I heard that family owns all kinds of industries in Jork alone. And that's just the tip of the iceberg!"

Alicia had already guessed that Trevor was from a rich family. However, she didn't expect him to be from such this super-rich family.
