Chapter 368 An Opportunity For Cooperation

Looking at the receding figure, Trevor shook his head with a smile on his face. However, he didn't take it to his heart.

The moment he stepped into the lounge under the lead of Alicia, he attracted the attention of the other members of the band.

Then, a girl with purple hair winked at Trevor and asked curiously, "Who is this man, Alicia? Why did you go out and bring him here in person? Is he your boyfriend?"

When the other members heard her words, they came over towards Trevor and looked at him up and down.

As they were studying him bluntly, Trevor felt a little embarrassed. Immediately, he explained, "Actually, I've only known Miss Calderon for a short time..."

Before Trevor could finish his words, the girl with purple hair puffed out her chest and said with a smile, "Does that mean I still have a chance, handsome guy?"

Since the girl was too blunt and straightforward, Trevor didn't know what to say anymore. Therefore, he just responded with a bitter smile on his face.

If he remembered correctly, this girl was the drummer of the band.

Fortunately for Trevor, Alicia interrupted in time, "This is Mr. Sanderson. Stop making him feel uncomfortable."

As soon as she finished saying that, she remembered about the message Trevor sent. Then, she looked at Trevor nervously.

When she noticed that Trevor didn't look displeased, she breathed a sigh of relief.

Licking her lips, she continued, "He is from the richest family in Jork."

Suddenly, the lounge became really quiet.

However, after a short silence, the room erupted into uproar.

After that, Trevor got all the autographs of the band members, including Alicia. Everyone treated him with enthusiasm.

Alicia even gave him a T-shirt with her autograph.

The special treatment from the band members made Trevor feel a little embarrassed.

If the other people wanted them to sign, not only they had to wait in line, but also, they needed to prepare items for them to sign the autograph.

On the other hand, Trevor didn't need to wait in line or prepare any item for them.

Obviously, Alicia saw through what was on Trevor's mind.

After chatting for some time, she realized that the rich man in front of her wasn't that arrogant. Instead, he was easy-going and she felt that they were getting along well.

When Alicia found out that Trevor was going to give the T-shirt with an autograph to a female friend, she joked, "Mr. Sanderson, it's just a T-shirt. You don't have to take it too seriously. But...if you want to show your gratitude, I hope you can give our Purple Band a chance to cooperate with the Sanderson family."

Hearing Alicia's remarks, Trevor tilted his head and thought about it.

Not long after, he gave them an answer.

"That's not a problem. I will pay attention to our cooperation opportunities in this area. If there is a chance, I will contact you guys first."

Hearing his reply, Alicia was stunned for a while. She didn't expect that Trevor would give her this kind of reply.

Everyone was surprised.

At the same time, all of them were overjoyed.

Of course, the Purple Band was very popular right now. Therefore, if they got an opportunity to cooperate with a super-rich family like the Sanderson family, they would become even more famous than now!

All of the members of the band were very pleased and they became even more enthusiastic towards Trevor.

On the contrary, Trevor couldn't handle it anymore. Since the band didn't have much time to rest, he took it as an opportunity to get out of here.

Before he left, the purple-haired girl blew him several kisses.

Seeing that Trevor rushed out of the greenroom with a red face, she couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Obviously, Trevor knew that she was just teasing him.

Shaking his head, he quickly closed the door of the lounge.

Only then could he breathe a sigh of relief and muttered, "What a bold girl!"

Suddenly, he remembered something and a smile appeared on his face.

He gripped the T-shirt in his hand tightly and said in a low voice, "Since I've already got the autograph, I hope Luisa is bold enough to give me the 'reward'..."
