

Blessed 380

Chapter 380 Training Paid Off

Without warning, Trevor threw a punch on Brice's face.

Because of the force, Trevor could even feel the sound of the bones breaking.

The sound of it made his adrenalin pumping and he felt so exhilarated.

Although Brice was much taller and stronger, he was completely unprepared for Trevor's sudden attack! Immediately, two streams of blood directly flowed from his nose.

The bridge of his nose was deformed and his eyes were now filled with fury. Wiping his blood painfully, Brice cursed, "Fuck!

You are dead meat now!"

When Brice saw that all of his men were just standing there, he got so angry that he kicked one of his followers and shouted, "What the hell are you waiting for? Beat this guy to death!"

Hearing Brice's angry voice, all his men trembled in fear.

Immediately, they rushed towards Trevor with fierce looks on their faces.

One of them waved his leg like a long whip and aimed to kick Trevor's waist.

However, before he could, Trevor dodged it and took a step back while grabbing the man's leg tightly.

As he pulled it with all his strength, the man fell to the ground in a splits position.

The man let out a loud scream and Trevor felt a shiver run down his spine when he imagined the pain.

At that moment, another man jumped up from behind and raised his fist to hit Trevor's head.

Sensing the swing from behind, Trevor turned around. He was able to block the man's fist with his palm just in time. Then, he swept his legs to the ground.

Just like that, the battle ended as quickly as it started.

In less than a minute, all of Brice's four men were knocked down. They were now rolling and whining painfully on the ground.

Even Trevor himself was surprised. He twisted his fist and realized that there was no pain.

At that time, he thought that all his strict training paid off in the end.

On the other hand, Brice was furious. He had only recovered from the severe pain of his nose.

When he came back to his senses, he found all his men groaning on the ground.

Spitting out a mouthful of blood, his eyes turned cold. He gritted his teeth with hatred as he said, "You bastard succeeded in infuriating me. Now, I'll personally break every single bone of your body!"

As soon as he finished saying, he fumbled in the pocket of his shirt and took out his weapon which was knuckleduster!

In front of the metal product engraved with a skull, there was a sharp thorn.

If this thing hit the flesh body, it would definitely injure the body and make it bleed.

Seeing the weapon, Trevor's expression became more cautious. However, he knew that he had the upper hand.

After thinking for a while, he decided to fight with him as a test for his skills.

If things got out of control, he could always run anyway.

Since Brice's nose was injured, it would affect his fighting skills.

While Trevor was lost in his thoughts, Brice said in a gloomy voice, "Asshole, I'll let you know the consequences of messing with me today! Just because you have some fighting skills, do you think you can defeat me? I bet you were just a weak boy when I started fighting in the illegal boxing match!"

Just as he finished saying, he roared like a furious bull. Then, he rushed towards Trevor.

Of course, Trevor knew that Brice was much stronger than his men.

After all, he still dared to rush up towards Trevor so fearlessly after Trevor defeated several of his men in the blink of an eye.

On the other hand, Trevor was also ready to fight.

In fact, Bradley had taught him about how to judge the enemy's fighting skills.

Even though Brice was stronger than him, his movements were a little clumsy.

It meant Trevor had a chance to defeat Brice!
