Chapter 394 The Professional Quality Of The Waiter

Orion didn't notice that there was something wrong with the waiter. He simply thought that it was because the Blue Lake Restaurant required them to have such kind of high professionalism.

Then, he pursed his lips and muttered in a low voice, "Humph, let's see how you are going to deal with it!"

In fact, it was because he didn't dare to make trouble in this Michelin 3-star restaurant.

Just like that, under the guidance of another waiter, Orion and Tillie followed him to their table they had booked.

On the table, silver plates, knives, forks and exquisite food mats were laid out. They felt as if they were treated the way the aristocrats were treated in the old age.

A few minutes later, several delicate dishes were served. Honestly, this was the first time that they had been treated like this.

Among the two, Tillie was so surprised. At the moment, she felt very happy.

So what if Luisa was more beautiful? She couldn't feel the happiness or advantages of the rich since she had chosen the wrong person.

Immediately, Tillie picked up her phone and started taking pictures to post them on the internet.

Of course, she didn't forget to show off her boyfriend. While posing the photos, she even made some remarks to praise Orion for his generosity. She even mocked Trevor and the others for coming to the Blue Lake Restaurant.

Even when they were enjoying their delicious food, the two of them didn't stop mocking Trevor. Orion didn't notice that there was something wrong with the waiter. He simply thought that it was because the Blue Lake Restaurant required them to have such kind of high professionalism.

Among the two, Tillie was so surprised. At the moment, she felt very happy.

So what if Luise was more beautiful? She couldn't feel the happiness or advantages of the rich since she had chosen the wrong person.

Immediately, Tillie picked up her phone and started taking pictures to post them on the internet.

Of course, she didn't forget to show off her boyfriend. While posing the photos, she even made some remarks to praise Orion for his generosity. She even mocked Trevor and the others for coming to the Blue Lake Restaurant.

Even when they were enjoying their delicious food, the two of them didn't stop mocking Trevor.

The two of them looked at the counter and wondered when Trevor and the others would be driven out of the restaurant!

After all, Trevor and the others had been standing by the counter for a long time yet the waiter still hadn't taken them to their seats.

In Orion and Tillie's eyes, Trevor and the others would be driven away as they couldn't afford to pay for the food there.

After all, the waiter guided them to their table as soon as they came. This was the difference.

They thought that the waiter didn't kick Trevor out rudely in order not to ruin the reputation of the restaurant.

Both Orion and Tillie thought that way.

Of course, the Blue Lake Restaurant did pay attention to their reputation. However, it wasn't the way they thought.

The waiter who was in charge of serving Trevor asked Orion and Tillie to go to their reserved table before apologizing to Trevor respectfully.

"Mr. Sanderson, I'm sorry for letting a VIP customer like you hear such kind of words in our restaurant. Please allow us to apologize to you properly. We will send two desserts to you after the meal. Please think of it as a compensation. Plus, we will add that two customers to our blacklist and we won't accept any reservation from them in the future!"

This Blue Lake Restaurant was committed to one principle which was the concept of service first. The waiters would always try their best to give the best service to every guest who came to the restaurant.

If it weren't for that principle, the waiter would have asked the security to throw Orion and Tillie out of there.

If it weren't for that principle, the waiter would have asked the security to throw Orion and Tillie out of there.

After all, Trevor was a VIP customer. How could they insult him blindly?

With a nod, Trevor smiled faintly and said, "I understand. I don't have any other requirements. So, can we go to our table to have a meal?"

Actually, Trevor was talking with the waiter for a long time because of some special arrangements he had made.

After saying that, he walked towards Luisa and the kids who were waiting nearby.

However, at that time, Luisa looked annoyed as she looked at something on her phone.

When Trevor took a look at her phone, he saw the screenshot of the photo and remarks that Tillie posted.

It seemed that Luisa's friends knew Tillie.

Therefore, when they saw that Tillie talked bad about Luisa, they sent a screenshot to her.

At that time, Luisa didn't notice Trevor who was now near her and muttered to herself with dissatisfaction, "These people are really annoying. Not only they look down on people, but also they make rude remarks just to show a sense of superiority."

Hearing her words, Trevor smiled a bit.

Then, he put his arm around Luisa's shoulder and said confidently, "You don't have to be angry, Luisa. We are going to make them lose their sense of superiority soon."
