Chapter 511 The Possible Culpri

Hearing the voices, Lois looked back and asked in surprise, "Are they fighting inside?"

At that time, Trevor was using his phone. Obviously, he wasn't surprised that they were fighting.

Shaking his head, Trevor explained, "Actually, my cousin knows that I have no knowledge about antiques. So, he tried to trick me with that shop owner. But now that they lost so much money instead of getting some money from me, they would definitely quarrel!"

Hearing Trevor's explanation, Lois burst out laughing.

"You are so mean, Trevor. You knew their plan and tricked them into compensating you eighty million dollars. I'm sure they are regretting it right now."

All the girls looked at Trevor at the same time and smiled.

However, Lois's smile was more innocent and genuine than the other two.

Tasha's smile was one of elegance and calmness.

A gentle smile appeared on Luisa's face as she stared at her boyfriend with admiration.

She had a thoughtful look on her face, as if she was already preparing for the serious test that she had to take.

Since the three beautiful ladies were all looking at him, Trevor felt a little embarrassed.

Fortunately, a phone call from his father saved him from this embarrassing situation.

To answer the phone, Trevor went to a quiet corner.

Once he picked up the phone, he said, "Hello, Dad. I have something to tell you."

In a depressed voice, Ronald replied, "You want to tell me about the test that your grandpa gave to you and Luisa? If that's the case, I have already heard about it. Even I was scolded because of you."

After saying that, he continued, "Don't worry too much. Your sister Evie will take care of her. Luisa will be able to complete her test!"

Hearing this, Trevor made a mental note to call his sister to talk about this matter. He wanted to ask her to take good care of Luisa.

Although the test conditions weren't that strict, it wouldn't be easy to achieve the goal.

Therefore, he felt relieved when his father took the initiative to mention it.

After that, Trevor told Ronald about the setup Lenard made to swindle money from him.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor asked, "Dad, do you think he is the one behind the attack?"

It was the question that the two of them had discussed several times.

All the clues they had found pointed out that the person behind the attack was from the Sanderson family.

They would definitely tell Elwood about it if they weren't worried about his health. They were afraid that the old man wouldn't be able to handle the news.

For now, it was just a secret between the father and son.

Hearing his son's words, Ronald pondered for a while and analyzed, "As far as I know, Lenard doesn't have the ability to do that! The person behind the attack hired the pirates with one billion dollars. Lenard is just a distant relative of the Sanderson family. So, it won't be easy for him to take out this large amount of money in one go. Plus, that Lenard is only good at playing some tricks. He isn't too scheming. Besides, I don't think he has the guts to hire someone to kill!"

As his father's analysis was reasonable, Trevor nodded his head and asked, "Maybe someone told him to do that?"

For a moment, Ronald was silent. Then, he said, "It's possible. We will investigate it secretly. The island is our own territory, Trevor. So, no one can hurt you there. Don't be too stressed. Just go and have fun. Sooner or later, we will find out the snake hidden in the shadow and then we will chop it into pieces. It won't be long."

After having a fierce quarrel, Lenard came out of the antique shop in dejection.

Gritting his teeth, Lenard said, "Damn it! This isn't what my cousin said! I have to ask him about it!"

Immediately, he took out his phone and dialed a number.

"The trick you told me to use didn't work at all! That brat even made us compensate a lot of money and left!"

Just like that, Lenard told everything that had happened to the person on the other end of the phone.

After hearing everything from Lenard, the person on the other end of the phone fell into silence. It took him a long time to reply in a hoarse and low voice, "Don't worry. I'll make it up to you for your loss. But...I need you to do something for me next..."

Chapter 512 A Pervert In The Swimsuit Shop

The next day, Trevor followed his father's advice. He took Luisa to the beach to have fun.

But since their main purpose for coming here was to meet Trevor's grandfather, Luisa didn't bring a swimsuit.

So before going to the beach, they went to the biggest swimsuit shop on the island.

Many styles of swimsuits were available there.

There were one-piece, two-piece, and high-leg bikinis, to name a few. Since there were too many styles and brands, Trevor and Luisa went from one swimsuit display to the next, not knowing which one to choose.

Trevor was also dazzled, especially when looking at those hot swimsuit styles.

Such little clothing was so sexy.

He couldn't help fantasizing how hot Luisa would be if she wore it.

Luisa, who was standing next to Trevor, noticed that his eyes were fixed on a certain swimsuit. Seeing how hot its style was, she couldn't help blushing.

She had always been reserved and conservative. But if Trevor wanted to see her in this kind of swimsuit, she was willing to give it a try.

Luisa patted her cheeks and plucked up the courage to ask, "Trevor, how about I wear that one?"

She pointed at a white bikini.

Trevor's eyes lit up at once. "Luisa, you must be very beautiful wearing it."

"Okay, I'll try it on."

As she said this, Luisa's face flushed even more. She took the white bikini and walked to the fitting room.

Trevor waited outside, imagining what Luisa would look like when she came out. Then he smiled knowingly.

The place where he stood was the women's wear area, and Luisa was not with him.

Some customers noticed him standing there alone with such a smile on his face. So they felt a little troubled.

"Look at that man over there. Is he a pervert?"

"A big man stands in the women's wear area and smiles obscenely. If he is not a pervert, then something must be wrong with his brain."

"He seems to be looking at us. Will he approach and harass us?"

"Hey, stop it! You're making me feel sick. Call someone to drive him out."

Several female customers in their early thirties wore heavy makeup, but disdain was still apparent on their faces.

They kept whispering to each other, slandering Trevor, and regarding him as a dirty man.

Trevor seemed to feel they were talking about him, so he couldn't help looking at them.

But in the eyes of the female customers, what he did confirmed their speculation.

Among them, a woman with short brown curly hair had the most aggressive personality. She pointed at Trevor and shouted, "Hey, what are you looking at, you pervert!? You get out of here!"

Trevor frowned after being scolded. He was confused.

What did he do to be called a pervert?

But he controlled his anger. He asked, "Why do you call me a pervert?"

"How dare you still play dumb! Don't you know what you have done? Why were you smiling just now? You must have some nasty thoughts!"

The woman with brown hair scolded Trevor with arms akimbo.

Upon hearing her groundless accusations, Trevor got angry at once.

These female customers seemed to be in their early thirties, and they were all wearing heavy makeup.

Not to mention that he already had a girlfriend, he would never be interested in them, even if he didn't have one.

However, before Trevor could continue to refute, the women had already called the security guards.

"Security, it's him! Drive this pervert out!"

Chapter 513 Don't Touch Mr. Sanderson

At that time, Trevor was speechless. He didn't want to be entangled with these ridiculous women anymore.

Waving his hand, Trevor tried to explain to the security guards who came over, "These women are talking nonsense. I'm just waiting for my girlfriend here."

As if she had just heard a joke, the woman with short brown hair laughed and mocked Trevor, "How can a pervert like you have a girlfriend? Don't lie to us! No one is blind to fall in love with you."

After saying that, the lady winked at the security guards in a flirting way.

Seeing her actions, Trevor couldn't help but chuckle.

Although she was over 30, she still tried to act cute like a little girl in front of men.

However, the security guards here seemed to enjoy it!

They were even jealous of Trevor, who had been standing much closer to these beautiful women while they could only peek at a distance.

At that time, one of the security guards flattered the women as he said, "Ladies, don't worry. I'll kick him out of here right now!"

Then, he turned his head to look at Trevor and waved the stick as he said, "Get out of here right now. Or I'll drag you out!"

His words made Trevor so angry that he wanted to slap him hard in the face.

Clenching his jaw, Trevor said angrily, "What the hell is your problem?"

Even if this guy didn't have the ability to distinguish the right and the wrong, he shouldn't treat a customer like this as a security guard!

Then, Trevor turned to look at the women and snorted coldly before saying, "And you guys are thinking too much! I'm not interested in old ladies at all!"

When these women heard the two words "old ladies", they were furious.

Every woman wanted to be called young even if they were indeed old.

Moreover, Trevor was just a pervert in their eyes.

Therefore, they were offended when they were called as "old ladies" by a pervert!

"You brat! What did you call us?"

"Say one more word and I'll tear that mouth apart!"

"Why are you so arrogant? I'll teach you a lesson today!"

The women became so angry at Trevor's words. Soon, the situation turned into a mess!

Without caring about anyone, the women said all kinds of dirty words to Trevor. Among them, the woman with short brown hair even tried to hit Trevor.

If it weren't for the bodyguards who stopped her, she might have hit Trevor.

Soon, the commotion attracted the other customers' attention. Among them, there were a few people that Trevor didn't expect to meet here!

When Dina saw that Trevor was in an awkward situation, her eyes lit up. Immediately, she rushed to him and acted like a human shield.

Once she got in front of Trevor, she turned to look at the woman with short brown hair and shouted loudly, "What are you doing? Whoever dares to make trouble for him, I'll scratch her face!"

At that time, all of Dina's friends rushed over towards Trevor and stood in front of him.

However, Baila wasn't with them today. Obviously, they must have broken up their friendship with her after what happened yesterday.

In fact, all of them wanted to apologize to Trevor. However, they couldn't find a way to do so. Now that they had a chance, they wouldn't let it go.

As many beautiful girls were protecting Trevor, the brown-haired woman and her friends were confused. With a frown on her face, she asked, "Why are you girls defending this pervert?"

Hearing the word "pervert", the other customers who were watching the scene took a step back subconsciously.

"How dare you call Mr. Sanderson a pervert? What makes you think that he likes an old woman like you?"

Dina scolded the woman like a shrew. However, when she turned around to talk to Trevor, her tone immediately changed to a respectful one.

"Did they hurt you, Mr. Sanderson?"

One by one, the girls started to greet Trevor. Some of them even leaned their bodies on him intentionally.

Of course, Trevor knew exactly what they were trying to do. Therefore, he took a step back and said in a cold voice, "I'm fine. You don't have to flatter me anymore!"

Hearing this, Dina seemed apologetic and said coquettishly, "Mr. Sanderson, we know that we were wrong. Please forgive us."

In fact, the sight of many beautiful girls surrounding a young man was already a hot topic.

When they called him "Mr. Sanderson", it caused an uproar among the crowd.

Although not everyone was eligible to attend the party held by the Sanderson family last night, many people had heard the news.

How could they pass up the opportunity to see the young master of the Sanderson family today?

They no longer cared about the fact that the woman called him a pervert and started to get closer to him.

When Dina wearing a sexy bikini greeted Trevor, the others realized that this was a rare opportunity.

In an instant, many beautiful girls in the shop rushed towards Trevor and flattered him!

Seeing the scene in front of them, the brown-haired woman and the security guards were dumbfounded

Chapter 514 Sunscreen

"Trevor..."

When Luisa came out of the fitting room after changing into the swimsuit, she found that Trevor was surrounded by a group of beautiful women. She couldn't help but puff out her cheeks.

When Trevor turned his head and saw her, his anger disappeared at once.

Now that Luisa was wearing the white swimsuit, she looked more attractive.

Her boobs were plump and round, making her cleavage deeper.

Her slender waist and buttocks formed a perfect curvy figure.

Her long and slender legs glowed healthily.

"Luisa..."

Trevor pushed the women around him away and walked to Luisa's side. Then he proudly said to the woman with short brown hair, "This is my girlfriend."

Seeing that Luisa's appearance was as delicate as an angel, the woman with short brown hair who shouted just now was extremely embarrassed.

They regretted having slandering Trevor and calling him a pervert.

With such a beautiful girlfriend, how could he still take a fancy to them?

Besides, the person they provoked was someone from the Sanderson family.

At the thought of this, they trembled with fear.

They even started crying, which smeared the heavy makeup on their faces. They now looked miserable and ugly.

Fortunately, Trevor was now too busy to pay attention to them.

He was looking forward to enjoying a wonderful vacation with his beautiful girlfriend. How could he waste time on them?

So Trevor took Luisa out of the noisy swimsuit shop.

Then the two chose a more secluded place on the beach.

When their surroundings quieted down, Luisa pinched Trevor's waist. She pouted and asked, "Trevor, what happened just now?"

Although she firmly believed that he would not do anything inappropriate with those women, she was still a little jealous.

"Ouch!"

Trevor gasped in pain. But when he saw the jealous look on Luisa's face, he found her cute in a different way.

He couldn't help laughing and pinching the tip of her nose gently. Then he hurriedly explained what really happened.

Luisa patted her chest, breathing a sigh of relief.

However, she still seemed to sense crisis.

Her beautiful eyes wandered, then she suddenly took out a bottle of sunscreen. She said to Trevor like a spoiled girl, "Trevor, please put sunscreen on me."

"Me? You want me to do it for you? Seriously?" Trevor was surprised and delighted at the same time. He suddenly didn't know what to do.

It was a sunny day, and the sun was scorching hot. But he was in a good mood.

"Yes. Come on." Luisa pressed her red lips and lay on her stomach on the beach chair. Then she took the initiative to untie the string behind her swimsuit.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Trevor couldn't help licking his lips. He felt like a flame ignited and started to burn his body inside.

When Luisa didn't feel any movement, she urged him shyly, "Hurry up!"

"Oh, yes. I'm doing it now."

Trevor immediately came back to his senses. He squeezed out some sunscreen nervously, spread it evenly in his hands, and put his hands on Luisa's shoulders.

Her body was so soft, and her curves were perfect.

His movements were slow and gentle as his hands cautiously slid down from her back to her waist. It was as if he was exploring an unknown area.

Touching her skin felt like he was touching a smooth and silky cream.

"It's done," Trevor said in a soft voice, slightly blushing.

"How about my legs?" Luisa asked in an extremely low voice.

In a few days, the two of them would be separated to complete Elwood's test. She couldn't often meet him once they parted this time.

Although they had phones and Internet connections that could help them communicate conveniently, they wouldn't be able to see each other for a long time. Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel a little emotional.

"Okay."

Trevor continued to put sunscreen on Luisa's body, following her instructions.

Touching Luisa's elastic thigh muscles made his Adam's apple bob up and down.

While rubbing her thighs, the back of his hand inadvertently touched her soft and upturned buttocks.

He thought for a while and squeezed out some more sunscreen.

But of course, this wonderful feeling would eventually come to an end.

"Everything's done now," Trevor said, sounding a little regretful.

"Okay. Then... Help me tie the string. It took me a lot of effort to tie it up just now."

Luisa was so nervous that her heart beat abnormally fast.

Trevor's mind went blank when he heard this.

Luisa didn't urge him anymore. But her tense legs showed that she must be restless now.

Trevor tied the thin string with his trembling hands and helped Luisa up.

Their eyes met. At this moment, they both blushed, and their hearts beat much faster than usual.

However, such a romantic moment didn't last long. Suddenly, they heard the sound of whistles.

Chapter 515 Is It The Feeling Of Being Rich

At that time, two male tourists walked towards Trevor and Luisa while looking around. One of them was holding a volleyball.

After looking around, one of them who had long wavy hair nudged his friend with his elbow. Then, the two of them approached Luisa with a smile.

Once they got in front of Luisa, the guy with the long hair tossed the volleyball back and forth between his left and right hands.

With a smirk on his face, he said, "Hi, beautiful, my name is Ayden Bates and this is Jeff Boyd. How about we play volleyball together?"

They were peeking at Luisa's chest while talking.

So, why would Trevor agree to play with the guys who had impure motive on his girlfriend?

Frowning, Trevor said seriously, "We are not interested. Go away!"

However, the two men didn't give up. Instead, they mocked Trevor, "Why? Are you afraid of losing face in front of your girlfriend? You are just a coward!"

"Beautiful, he can't even protect you. What's so good about him?"

Their words made Trevor even angrier. Squinting his eyes, he said in a cold voice, "Well, if you want to play volleyball, I will play. But my girlfriend won't participate in it. Just call someone else over."

As these two people didn't want to leave, Trevor decided to grant their wishes.

In fact, he thought that it was a good opportunity to teach these two people a lesson!

Of course, these two men had no idea what Trevor was thinking.

Even though Luisa wasn't playing, they could still show off their skills in front of her.

Their strong bodies made them feel confident. As Trevor didn't have bulky figure, they didn't take him seriously.

Not to mention that the two of them had a great partnership.

Moreover, since Trevor asked them to call another one, this game would be three versus one!

If they didn't win this game, they deserved to stand on their hands and eat noodles for the rest of their lives!

After agreeing to play, Jeff went to make a phone call while Ayden set up the net.

After that, he started to play the volleyball with his fingers. He looked as if he was showing off his excellent skills.

Not long after, the volleyball game attracted the attention of some beautiful women.

Actually, Trevor had met them in the swimsuit shop just now. However, he didn't remember their appearance at all.

It didn't take long for a large group to gather around them.

The beauties' attention was on Trevor while men's attention was on the beautiful girls.

Both Ayden and Jeff thought that the girls came to see them. Therefore, they tried their best to show off their muscles.

However, when no one responded to their behavior, they felt embarrassed and naturally stopped their movements.

At that time, Trevor took off his coat to prepare for the game. Once again, he was mocked by the two.

In fact, there were many scars on Trevor's body. Even though they were healed, they still looked a little hideous.

Seeing the scars, Jeff laughed and said, "Did the dogs bite you or scratch you?"

Ayden also laughed and said, "Are you sure you want in? You look like a patient. Don't worry. I will go easy on you."

Before Trevor could retort anything, the beauties around started to shout.

"Oh my god! Mr. Sanderson is so handsome! I love him so much!"

"Those scars are like his medals. You guys are just idiots knowing nothing."

"Mr. Sanderson, beat them hard. Fighting!"

The comments from the beauties stunned Jeff and Ayden.

Hearing this, Trevor couldn't help smiling. There were people on the sidelines willing to help him teach his opponents a lesson.

'Is this the feeling of being rich? It doesn't feel bad, anyway.'

Chapter 516 Good Cooperation

Ayden and Jeff were confused by the reprimand and had doubts that they couldn't follow the trend.

Was this popular this year?

Both men wanted to get some scars.

After some time, Ayden finally shook his head and said, "Forget it. We'll talk about it when Boaz comes."

At this other mention of Boaz, Trevor looked over, his eyebrows furrowed.

Was this the same Boaz he was thinking about?

If so, this man was really out of luck. He was going to teach him a good lesson once again after the incident the day before.

"Excuse me!" At this very moment, Boaz squeezed in from the crowd. "Who wants to team up with me?" he asked.

Boaz had just come in from the opposite direction of Trevor, so he didn't notice Trevor at first.

Upon hearing that familiar voice, Trevor and Luisa looked at each other and smiled.

That guy was really unlucky!

"Boaz, this way!" Ayden shouted, waving at Boaz.

Boaz squeezed his way over to Ayden. However, when he saw Trevor, his legs suddenly became weak.

Just last night, Damari gave him a hard time and then told him Trevor's true identity.

Boaz couldn't afford to annoy Trevor again as Damari would definitely break his legs and kick him out of the family!

He immediately turned around and wanted to run away. However, before he could, Trevor placed a hand on his shoulder, holding him back.

"What a coincidence! How are you doing buddy?" Trevor said with a smile. The whole thing was becoming more and more interesting.

Boaz was faced with two options, either helping his friends or avoiding offending Trevor. Of course he quickly chose the latter.

Even if he were held at gunpoint today, he would help Mr. Sanderson win the competition.

However, Ayden had no idea what was going through the mind of the man they called for help.

When the beach volleyball match began, Ayden and Jeff discussed happily about how they would win the competition.

"That guy was injured. I'll spike to his position hard later. Let him suffer first!"

"Well, there's no written rule, so we can do whatever we want."

Ayden was the first to serve. After a few rounds, Jeff spiked the ball with all his might in the direction of Trevor's face.

Of course, Trevor had seen through their intentions and a sneer appeared on his face.

He had rarely played volleyball before, but thanks to the training Bradley had given him, his physical aptitudes had greatly improved. This game was therefore just a little exercise for him.

Trevor easily blocked the ball.

Getting the passing of Boaz, Trevor jumped high and struck the ball hard in the direction of Jeff's head.

Bang!

Jeff was hit hard on the head.

The blow was extremely violent, considering that Trevor was much stronger physically than Jeff.

Jeff was knocked to the ground at once.

Ayden hurried to help his friend up. Jeff shook his head, enduring the pain, and decided to continue the match.

The second ball was Boaz's serve.

Boaz was now like Trevor's henchman. He served the ball in the direction of Trevor and left it to Trevor to knock the other two out.

Trevor chose to hit Ayden with the ball. The ball came so quickly that Ayden didn't have the chance to dodge either.

After receiving a violent blow to the head, Ayden looked at Boaz gloomily. 'What's wrong with this guy today?' he wondered.

Jeff had been winking at Boaz, but Boaz pretended not to see it.

It was Jeff's turn to serve again. He thought what just happened was a fluke, so he decided to try to hit Trevor again.

This time, he struck the ball harder than the first time. However, Trevor still managed to block the attack.

The longer the competition went, the more Jeff and Ayden were hurt.

They had planned to embarrass Trevor, but they were the only ones to get hurt.

Worse still, Boaz was the one helping Trevor beat them.

Although Trevor was good at this game, Jeff and Ayden wouldn't be so humiliated if Boaz wasn't helping him.

What hurt them the most was seeing all the beautiful women around cheering everytime Trevor hit them.

However, anytime they made a serve, everyone was quiet.

Jeff and Ayden had thought that with their excellent skills and good game tactics, they would defeat Trevor.

Even if it was a little difficult, they could still win!

However, it was clear they had seriously underestimated Trevor.

After several rounds, Jeff and Ayden had been seriously hurt.

Their faces were badly bruised by the ball and they were in a lot of pain.

The game had not gone as they had expected. Trevor had been punishing them all the time.

"Stop!"

After yet another blow to the face, Jeff couldn't take it anymore and stopped the game with a trembling voice.

Jeff and Ayden feared they would have permanent facial damage if they continued the game.

Beyond the physical pain Trevor inflicted on them with each blow, there was the psychological torture of watching the beautiful girls cheer for Trevor each time.

Ayden picked up the ball and pulled Jeff up.

They didn't dare to stay here any longer, so they left with embarrassment.

Chapter 517 The Bonfire Party

After beating the two bastards away, Trevor and Luisa smiled at each other.

Trevor felt a bit depressed as the beautiful atmosphere he had just created was ruined by the two fools.

At that time, Boaz came towards Trevor and flattered, "Mr. Sanderson, do you want to hold a bonfire party here? Just give me the word and I will arrange it immediately."

This was a perfect chance to flatter Mr. Sanderson and Boaz couldn't let it go to waste.

If his father knew about it, he would definitely praise him for his smartness!

Looking at Luisa, Trevor asked softly, "A bonfire party? Luisa, do you want to go there?"

After thinking for a while, Luisa smiled and said, "I think it's interesting. We should give it a try."

As Boaz had done a good job just now, Trevor decided to give him a chance to do the task.

The bonfire party would start only at night.

As it was still early, Trevor took Luisa on a yacht and took a tour around the island.

When the two of them arrived at the beach, the preparation for the bonfire had come to an end.

There were several big freezers that were filled with ingredients needed for the party.

In the middle, there was a big bonfire surrounded by several other small bonfires. None of them wasn't lit at the moment.

Such a huge scene attracted many male and female tourists around the beach.

Once Boaz saw Trevor and Luisa, he rushed over in a pair of beach shoes and said respectfully, "Mr. Sanderson, I've done all the preparations for the bonfire party. I'm just waiting for you to light them and start the party!"

The moon rose from the sea and it was when the bonfire party officially began.

At that time, Trevor lit the biggest bonfire with his lighter.

Accompanied by the rising flames, the orange firelight shone on everyone's face that was filled with joy.

As anyone could come to the party, it was quite lively.

Not long after the biggest bonfire was lit, several small bonfires nearby were set on fire. Everyone sat in a circle happily.

However, since the bonfire party was held for Trevor, everyone around waited politely for him to speak.

Knowing this, Trevor stood up and waved his hand casually as he said, "Everyone, enjoy the night."

Hearing this, Boaz, who was standing beside Trevor, added hurriedly, "Tonight's bonfire party is for Mr. Sanderson. I'll pay the bill. So, everyone, enjoy yourself."

The crowd erupted into laughter of joy and the atmosphere became more relaxed.

With a smile on his face, Trevor sat next to Luisa. Then, he started roasting the meat and a bunch of chicken wings for Luisa.

When he was poor, he had to cook for himself.

He gradually mastered some cooking skills in the process.

Soon enough the aroma of chicken wings permeated the air.

Trevor brushed the chicken wings with the oil and sprinkled some spices on them before they were done.

Once they were grilled perfectly, Trevor blew them carefully and placed them in front of Luisa's mouth.

Luisa looked at the steaming chicken wings in front her and smiled. She took a bite of one.

With wide eyes, Luisa exclaimed, "This is so good!"

After that, Luisa also roasted some chicken wings for Trevor.

Without caring about the other people, the couple was affectionate towards each other.

After grilling a few rounds of barbecues, passionate music sounded.

Smiling, Trevor stood up and extended his hand to Luisa like a gentleman.

"Will you dance with me, my beautiful lady?"

Luisa smiled sweetly and stood up. Then, the two of them danced along the music.

Although they couldn't dance well, they just enjoyed dancing in each other's embrace.

When the sound ended, someone from the crowd shouted, "Kiss! Kiss!"

Soon, the crowd chanted the word over and over again.

With his eyes filled with expectation, Trevor whispered, "Can I?"

With a blush on her face, Luisa replied, "Okay." Then, she raised her head with her eyes closed. Their hearts were beating so fast at the moment!

Without wasting another second, Trevor kissed her passionately.

Just like that, the atmosphere was pushed to a climax again!

Chapter 518 Be Invited To The Racecourse

When another song started playing, some people stopped dancing and went back to their places while some joined the dance.

At that time, Luisa shyly pulled Trevor out of the crowd.

Immediately, Trevor followed her lead since he was already satisfied.

At that time, the voice that was telling people to kiss sounded again. When Trevor followed the sound, he found an unexpected person.

"Yes. Kiss! Kiss her!"

In fact, Lenard kept shouting and applauding to make the atmosphere more lively and exciting.

Once he saw Trevor and Luisa, he patted Trevor's shoulder warmly and said, "Wow, Trevor! I really envy your relationship with your girlfriend."

Trevor raised his eyebrows at his strange behavior.

If he remembered the sound correctly, Lenard was the first one who told him to kiss Luisa.

Even though there was no restrictions on the participants, Trevor didn't expect to see Lenard here.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor thought to himself, 'Doesn't he feel embarrassed about what happened yesterday? Or did someone ask him to do something today?'

Although he looked kind outside, Trevor was on guard against Lenard in his heart.

Faking a smile on his face, Trevor teased, "Oh, you are here too, Lenard. Are you here to make money like you did yesterday?"

Hearing this, Lenard smiled awkwardly.

"This is a rare occasion. By the way, do you want to go to the racecourse with us tomorrow?"

Raising his eyebrows, Trevor asked in surprise, "There is a racecourse on the island?" Trevor didn't expect that there was such thing on this island.

Nodding his head, Lenard said, "Yes, it's on the other side of the island."

At that time, Trevor remembered the large empty place he saw when he took a boat around the island in the daytime.

As there were only a few buildings there, Trevor thought that it was difficult to develop that kind of land.

With a thoughtful look on his face, Trevor thought to himself, 'That land must be the place for racecourse.'

Nodding his head, Trevor agreed, "Okay, I'll go there with you."

In fact, Trevor didn't have the chance to investigate whether Lenard was related to the person behind the attack or not. There was no clue right now.

Since the members of the Sanderson family were on the island, they wouldn't have the guts to kill him.

Or so he thought...

The next day, Trevor and Luisa dressed up and went to the racecourse.

When they arrived at the gate, Lenard was already there. He seemed to have been waiting there for a long time. Once he saw them, he greeted them kindly.

People who didn't know them would think that they were on good terms.

With a smile on his face, Lenard happily led Trevor and Luisa into the racecourse.

Inside, there were many people.

At that time, a young man who was about the same age as Trevor was riding a white horse and he was coming over from the stable.

Pointing his finger at the young man, Lenard introduced, "You might not know him. He is Terrance Sanderson and he is only a year older than you. He is considered to be the most outstanding member of Sanderson family's collateral branch."

Terrance was wearing very formal jockey suit. The way he was riding the white horse showed that he was fearless and valiant.

Some of his female fans were screaming on top of their lungs from the spectator seats.

To keep his composure, Terrance just waved his hand with a smile.

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor looked at Terrance and thought, 'Terrance? The most outstanding member of the Sanderson family's branch?'

From the distance, Trevor studied Terrance. He was so lost in his thoughts that he didn't know that his arrival had attracted attention from many people.

After the blind date party on the cruise, Trevor didn't show up in public.

However, the news still spread among so many people.

Therefore, now, almost all the people on the island knew about the most honorable young master of the Sanderson family!

Immediately, there was an uproar in the crowd.

Many people excitedly looked in the direction of Trevor.

Even Terrance's female fans who had been shouting and screaming loudly started to cheer Trevor.

"Mr. Sanderson, I am willing to be your lover!"

"Oh my god, Mr. Sanderson is so handsome! He is really young and rich. If only I can have him for one day, I am willing to give up three years of my life!"

Many bold remarks were thrown towards Trevor and the crowd surged towards him.

Terrance, who saw the scene, stopped smiling and his face became expressionless in an instant.

His face darkened when no one paid attention to him anymore.

After taking a deep breath to calm himself down, Terrance turned his horse around and moved towards Trevor.

Squinting his eyes, Terrance smiled and said arrogantly, "Hey, Trevor, this is your first time to come to the racetrack, right? Do you want to ride a horse?"

A frown appeared on Trevor's face when he heard his invitation.

Ever since he received the training from Bradly, his observation skills got better.

Although there was a smile on Terrance's face, it looked a bit bitter, which made his expression look stiff and cold.

As it hadn't been long since Trevor got this upper class lifestyle, he didn't have a chance to come into contact with horse riding.

Staring at Terrance, Trevor said frankly, "I don't know how to ride a horse."

Terrance still had a fake smile on his face as he said, "It is fine, Trevor. No one knows how to ride a horse since birth. You can learn right now.

Don't you think it will be a little humiliating if people find out that the members of the Sanderson family don't know how to ride?

Now that I am here, you can always ask me for help!"

In fact, Terrance's words were filled with sarcasm.

However, the outsiders, who didn't pay much attention to their relationship, would think that Terrance was being kind to Trevor.

Of course, Trevor could feel the provocative tone in Terrance's words.

But, if he refused his offer, people would think of him as an arrogant person who was difficult to get along with.

Therefore, Trevor gave him a smile and said, "Well, although I'm not interested in it, I might as well give it a try since you invited kindly."

Hearing this, Terrance grinned as he clapped his hands and asked someone to bring a chestnut horse over.

The chestnut hair of the horse was smooth and bright. It had a strong body and the way it was holding its head high showed that it was energetic.

Seeing the horse, the crowd started to discuss about it.

"Wow, this is an Akhal-teke horse!"

"What is Akhal-teke horse?" Since some of them just came here to watch what would happen, they didn't know much about horses.

At that time, the one who knew about horses replied, "It's a rare good breed. Mr. Terrance Sanderson is so generous!"

When Terrance heard the discussion, he smiled.

Why would he let someone bring such kind of famous horse for Trevor?

The truth was, although the horse was expensive and famous, it was wild and strong.

Even Terrance couldn't tame this horse. So, how could someone like Trevor, who had never ridden a horse, ride it?

Obviously, he wanted to humiliate Trevor in front of everyone.

The whole time, Trevor was studying carefully at this chestnut horse. He found that it was very restless when the breeder was leading it. It even tried to get rid of the saddle on its back several times!

Once the horse arrived in front of everyone, Terrance raised his head and said proudly, "Actually, I spent a lot of money to get this famous horse. I'll give it to you if you can tame it. What do you think, Trevor?"

Honestly, Trevor was surprised. He didn't expect Terrance to be this hostile towards him.

Even though Trevor had told Terrance that he had never ridden a horse before, Terrance asked him to try to ride a wild horse once he got here.

Therefore, Trevor could easily guess Terrance's intention behind his behavior.

Frowning, Trevor thought to himself, 'Is Terrance the one behind the attack?'

However, after thinking for a while, Trevor decided to give it a try since he was very confident in his physical fitness.

Looking at Terrance, Trevor said calmly, "Okay. I will have a try."

When Luisa heard his words, she became a little worried.

In a hurry, she held his hand and said nervously, "Trevor, this horse looks so fierce. Why don't you ride a docile horse first?"

Many people present didn't believe that Trevor could tame the horse.

None of them thought Trevor would succeed as this was his first time riding a horse. Some even thought that Trevor was foolish to take up the challenge.

Trevor gave Luisa a reassuring smile before looking at Terrance and said in a firm voice again, "I'll have a try." After saying that, he walked towards the horse calmly.

Seeing this, a sneer appeared on Terrance's face. Obviously, he didn't think that Trevor would succeed either.

Under the witness of everyone, Trevor quickly grabbed the rein from the breeder and jumped onto the horse.

As everyone suspected, the horse was very resistant. It started to struggle and move violently before Trevor could stabilize. It bounced back and forth, trying to throw Trevor off his back!

Although Trevor had mentally prepared for this, he didn't expect the horse to be this strong.

Therefore, he could only pull its reins with one hand while gripping its mane with the other. After that, he firmly pressed his legs against the horse and leaned his body tightly against the back of the horse!

For almost five minutes, the horse kept struggling violently and gradually, it got tired. When it still couldn't get rid of Trevor, it had no choice but to stop struggling.

When the horse stopped struggling, Trevor led it trot around the place.

When Luisa saw that Trevor had successfully tamed this wild horse, she felt relieved.

On the other hand, Terrance was glaring angrily at Trevor, who was on the back of the horse.

Clenching his fists, he cursed in his heart, 'Fuck! How can he hold on for so long?

The horse is now submissive.'

At that time, Trevor turned the horse around and led it trot to the place where Terrance was.

Once he got in front of him, he teased with a smile, "Well, you said you would give me this horse if I could tame it, right?"

Right now, Terrance was fuming with anger.

This horse was worth more than one million dollars.

It was definitely a huge amount for the members of the Sanderson family's branch.

Even if he was the best among everyone from the branch of the Sanderson family and he owned the most among them, he still didn't want to give the horse to Trevor.

However, he couldn't go back on his words in front of everyone either.

Therefore, he had no choice but to accept the result.

In a muffled voice, Terrance said, "Yes, this horse is yours now!"

After saying that, Terrance turned around and rode his white horse towards the stable.

When he turned his back on everyone, the corners of his mouth twitched and his face turned ugly.

He decided to leave the place as he was afraid that he would lose control if he stayed any longer!

Chapter 520 Before The Interview

A smile tugged Trevor's mouth as he stared at Terrance's receding figure.

Going here was not a mistake. As a matter of fact, he had gained something.

Not only did he find a new suspect, but he also won a majestic horse without paying a penny.

Lenard, however, felt that something was not right, so he hid somewhere quickly.

Well, the joke was on him as Trevor did not care about him at all. Instead, he asked Luisa to ride the horse with him.

Sadly, their happy moment had to come to an end. After spending a couple of days on the island, it was now time for them to part.

Although they were reluctant to part with each other, they had no choice but to do so in order to complete Elwood's test.

This was a sacrifice they had to take so as to have a better tomorrow.

On the wharf, Trevor wrapped Luisa in his tight embrace for the last time.

Luisa would take the cruise ship back to Jork.

Trevor, on the other hand, would take a private plane to Dreles, in which he would join the company owned by Toby's family and complete his training in accordance with his Grandpa.

"Trevor, I have to go now. Please always take care of yourself at Mr. Byrd's place."

Luisa buried her head in Trevor's shoulder and tried her best not to cry.

"I know. Take good care of yourself too. I won't be able to go back to Jork during the test. If anything happens, go to my sister. I let you two talk on the phone last night."

As Trevor spoke, he patted Luisa on the back reassuringly.

A whistle sounded at the cruise ship, signaling the passengers that it was the last call. Luisa had to board the cruise ship now, or else she would miss it.

Standing on the side of the ship, Luisa could only watch as she and Trevor became farther away from each other. She wiped her tears away and promised to herself that she would do her best to pass the test.

Trevor only turned around to leave when he could no longer see Luisa. At last, it was time for him to embark on his journey.

He could not just rely on Luisa and make her work hard on her own. He should also do the same.

Trevor got off the plane ten minutes before 10 a.m. He planned on using the rest of the day to prepare everything.

Trevor's admission to Bella University, which was one of the top universities in the world, had already been arranged by Elwood.

After registering at the said university, Trevor decided to rent an apartment outside the premises in order to balance his work and study.

With his wealth, it should be easy for him to buy a villa in Dreles.

But if he did buy one, the essence of the training would be lost.

Thanks to the agency, Trevor managed to find a satisfactory apartment.

It was a high-end apartment building with only two units facing each other on each floor.

With his luggage in tow, Trevor eyed the unit opposite his.

The door was locked, and there were several garbage bags by the door. It looked like the owner had not taken out the trash for a long time.

Could it be that the owner was an otaku who could not be bothered to go out?

Trevor glanced at the trash and shook his head.

To his surprise, the door of the unit opposite his slowly opened.

The first thing Trevor saw was a pair of long and beautiful legs in cute slippers.

Trevor felt a little embarrassed for making groundless speculations. It turned out that the person who was living opposite his unit was a beauty.

He slowly raised his head and was even more shocked.

The lady in front of him was Vida. The two of them had just gone through a difficult time.

Vida rubbed her sleepy eyes and asked, "What are you doing here?"

It was only then that Trevor came to his senses. He hurriedly cleared his throat and answered, "Uh, well, my family asked me to come here to... study, so I rented an apartment here. I didn't expect that you live here too."

He and Vida chatted for a while until it was time for him to go to the company.

Truth be told, Trevor had an indescribable feeling when he saw Vida suddenly appear.

In his eyes, she was mysterious, even when they were together on the uninhabited island.

Anyway, now was not the time to dwell on the past. He had to go to Toby's company for the interview now.

Toby and Elwood were good friends. In all honesty, Trevor could get a middle-level position if he wanted.

However, he believed that he would gain the most experience if he started from the bottom.

He rode a taxi all the way to the company of the Byrd family. When he arrived there, he filled in the registration form for the applicants and waited for the interviewer to call him.

In the waiting area, Trevor saw other interviewees surrounding a rich young man.

Upon listening to their conversation, he found out that the man was Noel Byrd, a member of the Byrd family and that his father was in charge of an important department in the company.

Trevor was unimpressed as he knew for sure that he completely outdid the young man.

But he could not reveal his identity now. If he did, coming here for training would be futile.

Noel, however, was not happy to see Trevor's indifference.

The applicants were fawning over him. He must say, Trevor's behavior slightly bruised his ego.

Annoyed, Noel pushed the applicants out of his way and walked up to Trevor.

"Hey you, what's your name?" he asked while looking down at Trevor.

The latter lifted his gaze and curtly answered, "Trevor."

Trevor's cold attitude infuriated Noel more.

"Didn't you hear who I am? Call me Mr. Byrd. Now."

"Are you crazy?" Trevor scoffed. Not wanting to talk to Noel anymore, he stood up and sat on a seat farther from him.

Livid, Noel's face turned as white as a sheet.

"Who the fuck do you think you are? Just you wait. Let's see how you can pass the interview today!"
