

Blessed 58

Chapter 58 Something Was Absolutely Wrong

The moment the cash was poured out of the plastic bag, it covered the whole table.

Some of the money even fell to the ground as the table was not big enough for all the money to fit.

Seeing it, Emilio's eyes turned red and he swallowed hard. With wide eyes, he thought to himself, 'How the hell Trevor got this amount of money?

Something is definitely wrong!

A poor guy like him won't have this much money.'

With a frown on his face, Emilio stared at Trevor and asked, "Where the hell did you get so much money? Did you steal it from somewhere? We will never allow such a scum like you to stay in our class. If you don't tell us the truth, we are going to call the police right now!"

"I agree with the monitor. I mean Trevor didn't even have enough money to buy food before. How is it possible for him to get this much money? It's not like he is winning lottery every day."

Hearing it, Sylvia couldn't help but burst out laughing and said mercilessly, "He is just a poor man. When he was dating me, it took a month for him to save the money to buy a phone. Obviously, something is wrong!"

At that time, Bessie happened to enter the classroom as the next period was PE class.

Once she entered the classroom, she noticed the pile of money on the table. What was more, as she heard the whole conversation among the students, she became a bit worried.

It was not because she thought Trevor would do something bad to get this kind of money.

It was actually because she was worried that Trevor might be deceived by someone and borrow money at a high rate of interest. Looking at Trevor, Bessie said seriously, "Trevor, I don't think you steal that money from somewhere! But can you tell me how you get the money?"

Seeing the look of concern on her face, Trevor smiled and explained, "I didn't steal it. An old man was passing out on the roadside. So, I helped him and sent him to the hospital. When his son found out about it, he was so grateful that he gave me three hundred thousand dollars for saving his father's life."

That was absolutely incredible!

Could a person be this lucky?

After hearing his story, all of his classmates were looking at him with their eyes filled with jealousy.

How come he won lottery and also got three hundred thousand dollars for helping someone?

Why couldn't they encounter such kind of lucky situations like him?

It was clear that Emilio was displeased as he was the one who mocked Trevor for not having money. Now, it turned out that Trevor wasn't poor anymore.

The whole time, all he was thinking was how to make Trevor spend all his money.

On the other hand, Sylvia was feeling remorseful. Biting her lips, she thought to herself morosely, 'Damn it, Trevor.'

Why did he make this kind of fortune only after breaking up with me? Now, he can even take out so much money at once.

If only we were still dating, all those money would be mine!'

At that time, she received a message from Eleanor which said, "Sylvia, I think you made a huge mistake this time. Today, I saw your ex-boyfriend, Trevor. You won't believe this. He was withdrawing three hundred thousand dollars at once! Seems like our family missed a rich man."

The moment Sylvia saw the message, she became even more morose. Rolling her eyes, she texted back.

"Ha, are you seriously thinking that he is from a rich family? I hate to break it to you but he just got lucky. Actually, he saw an old man passing out on the street. So, he saved him and sent him to the hospital. His son gave him three hundred thousand dollars to express his gratitude."

While texting, she felt a little better. After all, the money Trevor had right now would be used up soon. It wouldn't last long. How could someone like Trevor be compared with Dennis? Unlike Trevor, Dennis' family had their own business that could earn a large sum of money continuously.

Upon reading the message from her sister, realization dawned upon Eleanor. She couldn't help cursing Trevor in her mind. She felt deceived by him.

In the end, both of them agreed that Trevor was just worthless.

At that time, in a high pitched voice, Emilio said, "How about this? Since you're so rich right now, why don't you invite all the classmates and hold a party this weekend?"

The more Emilio looked at the money on the table, the more he became jealous.

The one he had always looked down upon and bullied suddenly had a huge sum of money. How could he just let it go?