

Blessed 65

Chapter 65 Ask For Payment Of Deb

In order to convince everyone that Dennis didn't run away, Sylvio immediately turned on the speaker of the phone for everyone to listen to their conversation.

Once she answered the phone, Dennis' voice came out from the other end of the line, "Sylvio, I left the villo. You should run too! Let that idiot Trevor pay the bill!"

After saying that, he hung up the phone without even waiting for her reply.

Hearing it, the crowd burst into uproar.

"What the hell! How shameless Dennis is! How could he run away without paying?"

"He always says that he is rich! Trevor has paid the money and he just ran away without paying! What a shameless guy he is!"

"I don't think he should call himself a rich man from this day on. He is just a shameless guy!"

Hearing the others' insults towards Dennis, Sylvio's face darkened in an instant. Honestly, she had never thought that Dennis would back out at the last minute.

Not a few minutes ago, she had assured everyone that Dennis would pay the bill. However, now that he ran away, she felt so embarrassed.

The waiter, who had been standing there, also heard that Dennis had run away without paying the bill. As he couldn't let them leave, he said solemnly, "No one is allowed to leave from this moment!"

After he finished saying that, he quickly called the security guards in while eyeing everyone.

When everyone saw more than ten security guards come into the villo, they became a little flustered since they didn't know what to do.

Soon, everyone started to vent their anger on Sylvio as she was Dennis' girlfriend.

"Sylvio, this is all your fault. It's you who told us to trust Dennis. Now, he ran away! What are we going to do?"

"You are his girlfriend so, you should take the responsibility for this!"

In order to convince everyone that Dennis didn't run away, Sylvia immediately turned on the speaker of the phone for everyone to listen to their conversation.

Once she answered the phone, Dennis' voice came out from the other end of the line, "Sylvia, I left the villa. You should run too! Let that idiot Trevor pay the bill!"

After saying that, he hung up the phone without even waiting for her reply.

Hearing it, the crowd burst into uproar.

"What the hell! How shameless Dennis is! How could he run away without paying?"

"He always says that he is rich! Trevor has paid the money and he just ran away without paying! What a shameless guy he is!"

"I don't think he should call himself a rich man from this day on. He is just a shameless guy!"

Hearing the others' insults towards Dennis, Sylvia's face darkened in an instant. Honestly, she had never thought that Dennis would back out at the last minute.

Not a few minutes ago, she had assured everyone that Dennis would pay the bill. However, now that he ran away, she felt so embarrassed.

The waiter, who had been standing there, also heard that Dennis had run away without paying the bill. As he couldn't let them leave, he said solemnly, "No one is allowed to leave from this moment!"

After he finished saying that, he quickly called the security guards in while eyeing everyone.

When everyone saw more than ten security guards came into the villa, they became a little flustered since they didn't know what to do.

Soon, everyone started to vent their anger on Sylvia as she was Dennis' girlfriend.

"Sylvia, this is all your fault. It's you who told us to trust Dennis. Now, he ran away! What are we going to do?"

"You are his girlfriend so, you should take the responsibility for this!"

"Your boyfriend is one of a kind. I'm sure you and him are the same!"

Hearing everyone's words, Sylvia felt both aggrieved and ashamed. Lowering her head, she thought to herself, 'Dennis is a bastard! I want to break up with him now!'

Tears welled up in her eyes as she choked with rage and said, "I really didn't know he would do that. It's not my fault. He is the one who ran away!"

Nodding his head, Emilio quickly agreed with her, "Sylvia is right. Dennis is the one we should blame. Let's talk about that later. Right now, we should raise money and pay the bill first. The problem won't be solved if we keep quarreling."

Technically, he also participated in this matter. If he and Dennis hadn't planned to make Trevor spend all his money, Trevor wouldn't have ordered the wine and the food that were worth six hundred thousand dollars.

Therefore, he had to solve this problem first, or else everyone would start to vent their anger on him later.

When everyone heard Emilio's words, all of them became silent.

As it was useless to blame Dennis at the moment, they had no choice but to raise money to pay the bill first.

"My monthly living expenses are only more than one thousand dollars. How can I afford to pay for it?"

"Even though I have two thousand dollars right now, I will have no money if I give this money to you. What am I going to do?"

Since most of the students weren't rich, there would be nothing left after they paid their money to make a raise.

Even after gathering everyone's money, they got only two hundred thousand dollars which meant they still had to pay one hundred thousand dollars.

Seeing the situation, Bessie gritted her teeth and said, "I'll pay the rest of the money."

Because of Bessie, they finally got three hundred thousand dollars. Only then did the security guards let them go.

"Your boyfriend is one of a kind. I'm sure you and him are the same!"

At that moment, Trevor felt a bit guilty as Bessie had to spend her money to pay the bill.

Nonetheless, he couldn't help them pay the bill either as it would make everyone question. Suddenly, he got an idea.

In an instant, Trevor took out his phone and took a photo of his classmates who had gloomy looks on their faces. After that, he sent the photo to the group chat with a message that said, "Dennis, all of our classmates have gathered the money and paid for you. Don't forget to pay it back once we get back!"

None of them was in a good mood. Everyone was trying their best to hold back their anger.

All of them went to the party because it was free! Who would have thought that the person who had to pay the bill would run away? If they had known that it would turn out this way, they would not have attended the party.

Therefore, when they saw Trevor's message, they all remembered to ask Dennis to pay the money back!

At that time, Dennis walked out of the villa with a long face.

He had never thought that he would lose to Trevor one day.

Clenching his fists, Dennis cursed under his breath, "A person who I have always looked down upon can afford to pay for the bill when I don't have enough money! What a shame! I've never felt this embarrassed."

Of course, Dennis was furious since he couldn't accept that Trevor won and played a trick on him.

At that time, his phone was vibrating constantly, indicating the arrival of messages. With a frown on his face, he quickly checked the messages.

Only then, he found that there were a lot of messages in the group chat and all of them were urging him to pay back the money.