Chapter 66 The Way Of Getting The Money

Dennis' phone kept ringing o notificotion.

The moment he sow the messoges, his foce turned pole ond his hond storted to tremble.

The one who was once orrogont ond domineering, didn't even dore to soy o word in the group chat now.

No motter whot, he needed to find o woy to poy the money bock to everyone. Otherwise, how would he foce oll his schoolmates in the future?

There was only one solution which was to coll his fother...

Dennis quickly dioled his fother's number ond soid, "Dod, I kind of used up oll my living expenses. Con you please give me..."

However, he couldn't finish his sentence os his fother interrupted, "You brot, I gove you like tens of thousand dollors only two doys ogo! You ore the one who used up oll the money in just two doys, so you find the woy by yourself!"

Once his fother finished soying, he hung up the phone without waiting for his reply.

At thot time, Dennis didn't know whot to do. Even his fother was not willing to give him money.

When the party was over, Trevor returned to his dormitory. Since he dronk o lot ot the party, it didn't toke long for him to foll osleep.

The next morning, Trevor just got up when he received o coll from his sister.

With o smile on his foce, he greeted, "Whot's up?"

On the other end of the phone, Evie soid, "Trevor, I wont to introduce you to some of the bosses. Come to the Riverside Hotel loter. I'll be waiting for you there."

After thot, Evie hung up the phone before Trevor could reply.

With o bitter smile on his foce, Trevor shook his heed. He was never good ot socializing.

However, since he hod become o rich mon, he hod no choice but to leorn such kind of skills. Dennis' phone kept ringing a notification.

The moment he saw the messages, his face turned pale and his hand started to tremble.

The one who was once arrogant and domineering, didn't even dare to say a word in the group chat now.

No matter what, he needed to find a way to pay the money back to everyone. Otherwise, how would he face all his schoolmates in the future?

There was only one solution which was to call his father...

Dennis quickly dialed his father's number and said, "Dad, I kind of used up all my living expenses. Can you please give me..."

However, he couldn't finish his sentence as his father interrupted, "You brat, I gave you like tens of thousand dollars only two days ago! You are the one who used up all the money in just two days, so you find the way by yourself!"

Once his father finished saying, he hung up the phone without waiting for his reply.

At that time, Dennis didn't know what to do. Even his father was not willing to give him money.

When the party was over, Trevor returned to his dormitory. Since he drank a lot at the party, it didn't take long for him to fall asleep.

The next morning, Trevor just got up when he received a call from his sister.

With a smile on his face, he greeted, "What's up?"

On the other end of the phone, Evie said, "Trevor, I want to introduce you to some of the bosses. Come to the Riverside Hotel later. I'll be waiting for you there."

After that, Evie hung up the phone before Trevor could reply.

With a bitter smile on his face, Trevor shook his head. He was never good at socializing.

However, since he had become a rich man, he had no choice but to learn such kind of skills.

At noon, Trevor made his way to the Riverside Hotel.

At that time, Emilio happened to come out of the dormitory. When he saw Trevor's retreating figure, he couldn't help but wonder where he was going.

Furrowing his eyebrows, he thought to himself, 'That poor guy actually spent three hundred thousand dollars to pay for the bill. I'm sure that he didn't get his money legally.'

As Emilio really wanted to know how Trevor got so much money, he decided to follow Trevor.

When Trevor arrived at the Riverside Hotel, he texted his sister while walking towards the door.

At that time, a beautiful white Maserati suddenly drove towards him from a distance.

All of a sudden, the sports car came to a halt in front of Trevor.

Because of the speed of the car, it slightly grazed his body.

That knocked him down to the ground in an instant.

A young woman, who was wearing a black short dress got out of the Maserati.

She had dewy skin and she looked as if she was a movie star.

Walking towards Trevor, the woman said angrily, "How the hell are you walking? Do you want to ask for compensation by pretending to be hit by my car? You would've died if I didn't slam on the brakes in time!"

Since Trevor was lying on the ground, he saw a glimpse of the top parts of her legs before he quickly looked away and stood up from the ground abruptly.

Checking his arm which was slightly bleeding, Trevor got angrily.

"Obviously, you are the one who drove fast and hit me! Why are you saying I'm pretending to be hit?"

At noon, Trevor made his way to the Riverside Hotel.

The woman sneered and said, "Don't you dare act innocent! I'll give you the money you want. Get lost!"

While talking, she took out three hundred dollars from her bag and threw it directly on Trevor's face.

The way she was acting made Trevor furious. In an instant, his face darkened and he clenched his fists subconsciously.

When Trevor didn't pick up the money from the ground, the woman spat, "What? Do you want more, beggar? Let me tell you something. Don't block the gate because your presence degrades the hotel!"

Without looking at the three hundred dollars on the ground, Trevor looked directly at the woman and said, "I won't take your money."

If it were in the past, he would have picked up the money to buy some food.

However, it was in the past. Now that he was rich and had one hundred million dollars, there was no need for him to lose dignity for several hundreds of dollars.

The woman scoffed and said, "You don't have to pretend to be innocent, you know? I wouldn't let you go like this, if I didn't have somewhere to be."

While talking, the woman looked at her watch and stopped arguing with Trevor. After that, she went back to the car and drove into the parking lot of the hotel.

The whole time, Emilio was secretly recording the scene with his phone from a corner.

Shaking his head, Emilio said, "No wonder he becomes so rich. He has been racketeering the whole time! He really is a shameless poor guy!"

After putting away his phone, Emilio turned around and went back to school.

Since he found out how Trevor got the money, he didn't need to follow him anymore.
