

Blessed 75

Chapter 75 Birthday Party Invitation

"Really? I don't think Trevor has a high status."

As Sylvia knew Trevor all too well, she believed that it was impossible.

However, the thought of Trevor paying the bill with three hundred thousand dollars without hesitation at the party yesterday flashed into her mind.

Despite the situation, Trevor looked calm and indifferent at that time. He didn't look like a poor man at all.

Thinking of this, Sylvia became a little regretful. If Trevor turned out to be a rich guy, who was keeping a low profile, she would definitely try her best to get back together with him.

If Trevor could make Selma drive him back personally, it meant that he might at least have a very rich daddy on the same level as Selma.

When both Dennis and Sylvia were lost in thoughts, their phone screens suddenly lit up, indicating a notification.

Both of them checked their phones and found out that Emilio posted a video in the class group chat.

Once they opened the video, they saw a scene where Trevor was playing his mobile phone at the door of a hotel.

At that time, a Maserati was rushing towards him from a distance. Before it could hit him at full force, the driver pulled the brakes in time. Therefore, even though Trevor was hit by the car, he didn't get hurt that much.

After that, a beautiful woman, who was wearing a black dress, got out of the car. Seeing it, Dennis said in surprise, "This is Selma's car. Damn, the one who got out of the car is her!"

At that time, Sylvia recognized that the car was the same one that dropped Trevor off before. What she didn't expect was that the owner of the car would be this beautiful. In an instant, she felt jealous in her heart.

Only when Selma took out three hundred dollars and threw them to Trevor, Sylvia and Dennis realized about the situation.

In their eyes, it turned out that Trevor had been feigning injury to get money. That was the reason why he became rich all of a sudden. He must have got all his money by using that way.

After watching the video, all the students in the group started to accuse Trevor of being shameless.

"Trevor, you are so shameless! You can do anything just to get money!"

"No wonder you could afford to pay three hundred thousand dollars at the party yesterday. You got all your money illegally!"

"No matter what, Dennis is better. Even though he ran away that day, he paid back on the second day. He is much better than a liar like you..."

Seeing that everyone was accusing Trevor, Sylvia also accused him.

Just now, she even thought if Trevor was indeed a rich guy who had kept his identity low-key. What was more, she even wanted to get back together with him.

Nonetheless, Trevor was still the same poor man. What a waste of time for even thinking about it! She would never want to be with someone like him!

Only after cursing Trevor, Sylvia felt much better.

"I can't believe this. Trevor is so disgusting! He even blackmailed Selma and asked the money. I bet Selma dropped him off because she wanted to discuss about the compensation."

It was then Dennis finally understood about what had happened.

Of course, he didn't believe that Trevor would have the ability to hook up with someone as noble as Selma.

Since he didn't get an opportunity to do that, he couldn't accept that Trevor was better than him in that aspect!

At that time, Trevor still hadn't seen the messages in the group. Therefore, he had no idea what the others were talking about him.

Once he entered the dormitory, he found that all of his roommates were looking at him with a strange look on their faces. They looked as if they wanted to say something.

Raising his eyebrows, Trevor said, "Why are you guys looking at me like that? If you have something to say, just say it."

Among them, Rob was the closest with Trevor. Thus, he took the initiative as he said, "Trevor, tell us the truth. Did you get money by blackmailing others? For us, it doesn't matter if you don't have money to eat. We can always find a way to chip in, but you shouldn't do such kind of wicked things."

Furrowing his eyebrows, Trevor asked in confusion, "What do you mean blackmail?" Since he hadn't checked the messages, Trevor was confused.

At that time, Rob picked up his phone and showed Trevor the video that Emilio sent in the group.

As soon as he finished watching it, he finally understood what Rob meant.

With a faint smile on his face, Trevor explained, "Oh, is that what you're talking about? I was hit by a car this afternoon. She gave me some money as compensation, but I didn't take it. I know that the others won't believe me. But, do you guys believe me?"

To erase the doubts in their minds, Trevor told them about what happened at noon. Obviously, he didn't tell anyone about the meeting with Evie and the tycoons.

When Trevor finished explaining everything, all of them fully understood what happened.

At that time, Rob said with a smile on his face, "I knew it! I knew that you won't do that kind of thing. I believe you, Trevor!" Patting Trevor's shoulder, Rob was the first one to stand up and support Trevor.

After hearing everything from Trevor, Aldrin and the others chose to believe Trevor. Even though Trevor was poor, they knew that he had a good character and that he would never do this kind of thing.

All of a sudden, Aldrin remembered what Corrie had told him before. Therefore, he said, "By the way, Corrie invited us to Zavier's father's birthday party that is going to hold tonight. She insisted that you come, Trevor."