Chapter 76 The Reason For The Invitation

Without hesitation, Trevor shook his head and said, "I think it's better if I don't go. As you all know, I don't really get along with them."

When Trevor refused to go, Aldrin and the others decided not to go as they didn't want to leave Trevor alone in the dormitory.

Seeing it, Trevor had no choice but to agree to go with them. After all, Corrie invited everyone in their dormitory. Therefore, he thought that it would be rude if none of them went to the party.

In the girls' dormitory, Corrie and the other girls were dressed in thin clothes as they chatted idly.

Both Corrie and Jaycee were lying on the same bed, wearing only short shorts.

The way their slender legs were lining up together was a sight to behold.

"Jaycee, have you seen the video that Emilio sent in the group chat? I can't believe that Trevor would stoop this low. How can he blackmail others to get money?"

In fact, Corrie was surprised to see the video. Actually, she thought that Trevor was at least decent even though he was poor.

She didn't expect him to feign injury to blackmail others. How shameless he was to do that!

"I have watched the video too. I can't believe that we have that kind of person as our schoolmate."

"Honestly, I feel sick when I thought about having a dinner with him. I am going to avoid him at all cost in the future."

The dislike they had for Trevor grew even bigger because of the video.

The whole time, Jaycee kept quiet and didn't speak ill of Trevor. She had been wanting to ask Corrie a question because she felt a little strange. With a frown on her face, she asked, "Corrie, why did you specially invite Trevor to Zavier's father's birthday party when you don't even like him?"

In fact, this morning, Zavier called and invited Corrie and her roommates to his father's birthday party.

Originally, Zavier didn't invite Trevor and his roommates. However, Corrie insisted on inviting them and so he agreed in the end.

With a smirk on her face, Corrie explained, "That's because I want him to know what a real trust fund baby looks. I want him to know that there is a huge gap between him and Zavier!"

While talking, she wrinkled her cute little nose. The thing that happened in the manor last time had been bothering her this whole time.

Just because Trevor got into the manor for free, he forgot who he really was. Obviously, it was just a return of favor. It wasn't like he was really rich after all.

Corrie couldn't forget the way Trevor behaved that day. His annoying face when he pretended to be rich made her feel irritated.

As she wanted to let Trevor know the gap between him and the really rich men, she persuaded Zavier to invite Trevor to the birthday party.

It was impossible for Trevor to go back to the Willard Villa again as he had used up that favor. On the other hand, unlike Trevor, Zavier could go there as much as he wanted as he owned a membership card.

Thinking that Trevor wouldn't dare to come if she invited him only, Corrie invited all of his roommates too.

In the evening, people from Trevor's dormitory and Corrie's dormitory came to the Millennium Hotel.

The moment they entered the door, they saw that the lobby was overcrowded and many of whom were dressed in luxurious clothes.

In contrast to them, Trevor and the other students didn't seem to fit in with these rich people here.

With wide eyes, Aldrin said in surprise, "Wow. Zavier's father is so influential. Almost all the rich and famous people attend his birthday party!"

In fact, Aldrin was a little different from Trevor and the others. His family owned a medicine company that was worth millions of dollars. So, he had met some tycoons in his life.

However, some people here were the tycoons who had tens of millions or even hundreds of millions dollars. Clearly, they were the ones that his family didn't have a chance to connect with.

"Actually, the Zavier's family has recently got a real estate development project in Jork commercial street and it developed the family's status. Many celebrities came here to congratulate them in person."

As soon as her friends heard Corrie's words, all of them looked at her with their eyes filled with envy.

"Wow. That's amazing. I heard that any real estate project in Jork commercial street is worth hundreds of millions dollars. If his family can actually get the project..."

"That must be the reason why these famous tycoons come to congratulate them. It seems like they all want to cooperate with his family in the future."

"It would be great if I became Zavier's girlfriend. That way, I can marry into the Blake family and then I don't have to worry about money in the future anymore."

All of them were dreaming of getting married to Zavier and became a rich lady.

The words they said made Corrie proud and happy.

Giving them a smile, Corrie said proudly, "I don't think you girls have a chance because I've already promised to be with Zavier."

All of the girls were disappointed when they heard Corrie's announcement.

Of course, Corrie was satisfied to see the looks on their faces.

At that time, one of the girls said with envy, "Corrie, can you tell us how did you know Mr. Blake? I also want to have a rich boyfriend. Can you teach me how to get one?"

Hearing it, the girls' eyes lit up with anticipation. They all wanted to know how Corrie ended up hooking up with the rich man like Zavier.

Raising her chin slightly, Corrie smiled and said, "Actually, I don't think I can teach you guys because it comes naturally. To be honest, we haven't seen each other for many years. He saw me again when we went to the club on my cousin's birthday. We could get out of the mess all thanks to Zavier. So, I gave him a chance to pursue me."
