

Blessed 79

Chapter 79 Three Different Identities

Not being able to stand anymore, Aldrin and Rob tried their best as they started to defend Trevor.

"It was just an accident. It has nothing to do with Trevor!"

"I agree with him. You shouldn't talk ill of him when you don't know him well."

No matter how much they defended Trevor, their words didn't work on them.

Especially, Xavier and his companions, who didn't listen to them at all.

Trevor cast a glance at Xavier and found that he was standing with his hands on his hips. He looked too proud for his own good.

After that, he looked at the people, who accused him without even knowing the truth. Almost everyone didn't even care about the truth as they all were so adamant about pleasing Xavier.

Seeing the scene in front of him, Trevor couldn't do anything but sigh in his heart.

Shaking his head, Trevor thought to himself, 'It's a shame! This is exactly what power and wealth can do to people. It can change people's attitude towards the others.'

How will they react if I reveal that I am the mysterious rich man behind this commercial street? What will they do if they find out that I'm Aver?'

Nonetheless he dismissed that thought quickly as he wasn't the kind of man who wanted public attention.

All of a sudden a familiar female voice came from behind, "Do you know that you're disgusting, Trevor? How dare you come here?"

The voice joined with the others to blame Trevor.

In the past, Trevor loved that voice. He could always remember this voice.

When he turned his head around, he was right.

That person was none other than Sylvia!

Standing next to Sylvia, Dennis stared at Trevor with a faint smile on his face.

Walking up towards Xavier, Dennis took his scornful look away from Trevor and flattered Xavier as he spoke.

"Zavier, I just heard that you are in a relationship with Corrie now. You guys are definitely a perfect match. Congratulations!"

With a smile on his face, he continued, "Also, I heard that the Blake family recently got a real estate project in the commercial street. Congratulations on it too. The boss of the commercial street is very rich and powerful. He even has a lot of friends in the political field and many big shots show respect to him!

Now that the Blake family has such a powerful tycoon behind, I'm sure your family will become more prosperous and wealthy than before. When that happens, don't forget to help me with my business."

Even though Dennis' words were straight forwarded and not very impressive, it obviously made Zavier happy as he got a chance to impress his new girlfriend.

"Of course, I'll keep that in mind. You came here on behalf of your father, right? Let's sit at the same table to talk later, Dennis."

Taking this as an opportunity, Zavier reached his hand out to embrace Corrie in his arms. A smile appeared on his face when she didn't resist.

Honestly, Zavier wasn't surprised to hear this kind of flattering words from Dennis.

After all, the Cooper family business was nothing compared with the Danton Real Estate of the Blake family!

That thought alone made Zavier happier as he began to fondle Corrie. Today was definitely his lucky day!

With a frown on his face, Trevor quietly listened to their conversation.

He was thinking whether he should say something or not when someone began to target him again!

With a hint of banter in his eyes, Dennis sneered and said, "You are so shameless, Trevor! Are you still thinking of doing that kind of business here?"

Turning to look at Zavier, Dennis said, "Zavier, all the guests here are rich and powerful. I suggest you to ask them to beware of Trevor."

Furrowing his eyebrows, Zavier asked, "What do you mean?"

"I believe you don't know where got all his money! Actually, he earned all those money by feigning injury and blackmailing rich people. He gained all of it by using despicable method!"

His words immediately caused a great uproar among the crowd.

At that time, Sylvia looked at Trevor contemptuously and said, "He's right! I can't believe that I dated him in the past. I thought he was at least a decent man even though he is poor. I really didn't think he would do such kind of bad things behind my back!

Fortunately, I woke up in time and now, I have found a good guy like Dennis!"

To aggravate Trevor, Sylvia deliberately held Dennis' arm in an intimate way.

Moreover, she even leaned on Dennis' chest as if they were a model couple.
