

Blessed 94

Chapter 94 Awkward Atmosphere

Just like that, Estrella ran out while crying all the way which made the atmosphere a little awkward.

After that, no one was in the mood to eat. When the dishes were served, all of them ate casually. Then, Bessie drove Trevor back to his dormitory.

The next morning, Trevor was about to go out when his phone suddenly rang. When he checked the phone, he found that it was Aggy, who was calling him.

On the other end of the phone, Aggy said, "Trevor, today is the anniversary of our school and we haven't finished decorating the gym. So, I'll give you five minutes to come over here to help us!"

After saying that, she hung up the phone without even waiting for his reply.

As Trevor was asked to work in the early morning, he was very depressed.

However, since he was a member of the school, it was only reasonable for him to help them prepare for the school anniversary.

Therefore, he changed his clothes and headed towards the gym in a hurry.

Although he trotted all the way to the gym, it took him at least ten minutes to get there from the dormitory.

When he arrived, everyone was busy with the decoration.

Seeing that Trevor was late, Aggy said in dissatisfaction, "Why are you so late, Trevor? Never mind, what else can I expect from you? You go there and help her hang a banner on the stage. Be quick!"

Trevor looked at the direction of the stage and found that Luisa was stepping on the chair to hang the banner.

Today, she was wearing a pair of black shorts which showed off her beautiful white legs. People were unable to take their eyes off from her.

Many boys around her were secretly looking at her and the work they were doing was long forgotten.

"Damn, Luisa is so beautiful. If only I could date her."

"Don't even think about it. I heard that Marlon, the captain of the baseball team also likes her. We don't have a chance."

Several boys started talking about Luisa. Even though she was beautiful, they didn't stand a chance.

In their eyes, only the handsome and rich man like Marlon could have a chance with her.

Seeing that Luisa attracted all the boys' attention, many girls became jealous.

At that time, Trevor was already near Luisa. Without saying anything, he held the chair with both hands in order not to let her fall.

Luisa looked down and found that it was Trevor, who was holding the chair. She was about to say thank you when she slipped and fell from the chair.

On an impulse, Trevor quickly caught her before she fell to the ground.

In an instant, a faint scent of fragrance entered his nose.

At that time, the people in the gym went silent as they looked at Trevor and Luisa.

All the boys looked at Trevor with their eyes filled with jealousy.

If looks could kill, Trevor would be six feet under because of the looks everyone was giving him.

With a blush on her face, Luisa said, "You can put me down now."

Only then did Trevor come back to his senses and he quickly put her down.

Giving a smile which showed two dimples on her face, Luisa said, "Thank you so much for catching me."

Because of the sweet smile she was giving, Trevor couldn't help but blush.

In a low voice, Trevor replied nervously, "You're welcome."

When they finished decorating the venue, a group of students rehearsed their performance in advance.

After the rehearsal, all the students started to enter the hall. A few minutes later, the huge gym was filled with people.

Half way through the activity, Luisa asked Trevor to help her. Of course, Trevor agreed and the two of them went into the dressing room to help the performers put on the make-up.

The whole time, Trevor didn't even have time to rest as he was so busy. Only when the performance of the school anniversary came to an end, he could rest.

In the end, only Luisa and Trevor were left in the dressing room.

Handing a water bottle to Trevor, Luisa said, "Thank you, Trevor. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have been able to do many things."

Trevor gave her a smile and reached out to take the water bottle.

The moment their fingertips touched, they withdrew their hands instantly as if they had got an electric shock.

The two of them stared at each other and suddenly the atmosphere in the dressing room became a little embarrassing yet peaceful.

At that exact moment, the members of the student union opened the door and came into the room.
