

My Mysterious Doctor and Blessed Little Wife Is Such a Tease

Chapter 12: She Is Saved

The village chief's name was Liu Shuan, also nicknamed Shuan Zi.

His heart tightened and he quickly got someone to call Doctor Zhang over. Then, he looked at Qin Xi and said with sympathy, "Child, do you have anything else to say?"

Qin Xi's face was pale as she begged, "Chief, since... since... Mother and Grandpa said so... then... don't make things difficult for them... Please... please help me... write... write a letter of agreement... that from now... now on... we have nothing to do with each other!"

"Well..."

The village chief's heart ached for her. He sighed and then looked at Qin Guobiao and the others reproachfully. "You're even worse than a child."

The Qin family was silent for a moment. They all glared at Qin Xi with resentment. If not for this little bi*tch, they wouldn't have embarrassed themselves in front of so many fellow villagers. In the future, they would definitely become a laughing stock.

"Hmph, the sooner the ties are cut, the better. There is no point in having such a family! Shuan Zi, write the agreement!" Han Dazhu said indignantly.

The village chief let out a long sigh.

In the end, under the witness of the villagers, the village chief wrote a letter of agreement. There were three copies. One for Han Dazhu, one for Qin Guobiao, and one for himself.

The village chief put away the letter and said, "Alright, once the letter is signed, it will be legally effective. In the future, the Qin family will have nothing to do with Qin Xi, and Qin Xi won't be obliged to help the Qin family. By the way, the girl also mentioned that when you have time, go and get her name out of your household register. Take care!"

Li Guihua quickly nudged Hu Xiaofeng with her elbow. "We have time. We have time now. Xiaofeng, take the household register and go to town to settle the procedures."

Hu Xiaofeng looked at the letter in Qin Guobiao's hand and had a mixed feeling. After being nudged by Li Guihua, she nodded and went to do it.

At this moment, a shout came from a distance. "Doctor Liu is here. Make way!"

The villagers quickly made way for Liu Dequan, who was in his fifties. He was sweating profusely.

"Uncle Liu, you're finally here. Come and take a look!"

Luo Xiujuan was as anxious as an ant on a hot pan. She grabbed Doctor Liu and brought him to Qin Xi.

Seeing Qin Xi's appearance, Liu Dequan's expression was solemn. He quickly squatted down to check on her. Although he was only a village doctor, his decades of experience told him that Qin Xi was not poisoned at all. Not only was she not poisoned, but she was also very healthy.

If not for the fact that her face was sickly pale, Liu Dequan would have thought that these villagers were pranking him.

In order to confirm his guessing, he took her pulse again!

Seeing Liu Dequan's solemn expression, Qin Xi gave Luo Xiujuan a look and glanced at the pool of dark red blood on the ground.

Luo Xiujuan immediately had an idea. She quickly covered her face and sobbed as she asked Liu Dequan, "How is it, Uncle Liu? Xi just spat out a mouthful of blood. Is she already..."

A mouthful of dark red blood?

Liu Dequan's eyes lit up, and the solemnity on his face immediately disappeared. He laughed heartily.

The villagers looked at each other in confusion. What was going on? What was so funny about a mouthful of blood?

While everyone was discussing in confusion, Liu Dequan finally spoke.

"This girl is really lucky. The poison is all in this pool of dark red blood. Now that she spat it all out, she is saved."

"What? She is saved?"

"This is simply miraculous!"

"I think the Qin family is her jinx. As soon as she left the Qin family, she would be fine!"

Although this sounded ridiculous, villagers always looked at things through a superstitious lense.

The villagers discussed among themselves. Without exception, they all said that Qin Xi was not destined to die. As the saying went, one who survived a disaster was bound to be blessed. In their opinion, Qin Xi's blessing was yet to come!

Qin Feng was also shocked when he heard that. He shouted in ecstasy, "That's great, I didn't kill anyone. That's great. I don't have to go to jail anymore!"

Li Guihua's eyes lit up. She tugged at Qin Guobiao's sleeve. "Old Qin, now that she is awake, does it mean we don't have to return the money?"

Before Qin Guobiao could speak, Han Dazhu said sarcastically, "Don't think about going back on your word. The crime has been committed. It's an entirely different matter whether the victim dies or not. If you don't compensate, I can still press a charge against you."

Qin Feng and Li Guihua swallowed back the words that were on the tip of their tongues.

This farce ended with the Qin family forking out 400 Yuan. The wicked things the Qin family did also became a laughing stock in the village.

Of course, other than the Han family, no one knew that the biggest winner was Qin Xi, who put up a perfect show as a dying girl.

After returning to the Han family and closing the door, Qin Xi jumped off the stretcher with a radiant smile.

Seeing that she was full of energy, Han Dazhu laughed out loud. "Girl, you're really smart. You made them pay a heavy price today and even successfully cut ties with them. How smart!"

Qin Xi scratched her head shyly. "I was just lucky that this idea came across my mind. It's all thanks to Grandpa and Mom's cooperation. Speaking of which, Grandpa and Mom's acting skills are really good. It's some oscar-level acting."

"Oscar? What's that?" Luo Xiujuan asked in confusion.

Seeing that Qin Xi praised his grandfather and mother but did not praise him, Han Shi panicked and asked, "What about me? Am I the best?"

Qin Xi praised generously, "Yes, you're the best, especially that kick. You even kicked the door off. You're really amazing!"

As she spoke, she even reached out to rub his head. Han Shi was already shy from being praised by his wife, but now that his head was rubbed, his handsome face immediately turned red. He lowered his head and chuckled.

At the sight of that, the three of them immediately burst out laughing.

After laughing, Han Dazhu handed the 400 yuan the Qin family gave him to Qin Xi and said with a smile, "Girl, here, take this 400 yuan. You can buy whatever you want with it."

Qin Xi thought for a moment and did not refuse. It was not that she was greedy for this money, but she was in urgent need of it.

After she was reborn, not only was she bestowed with some mystic techniques that allowed her to absorb the essence of heaven and earth to cultivate the legendary ancient martial Qi, but also she could treat illnesses and prevent disasters from happening.

Overnight, she became a mystic doctor.

Thinking back to her previous life, it was not difficult to guess that they came after her for the jade pendant. However, she did not know how those people knew the secret of the jade pendant.

Of course, what was done was done. It was useless to think too much. This question was destined to remain unanswered.

What she should be thinking about now was how to tell the Han family that she knew medicine. Otherwise, she would be restrained in the future.

Qin Xi took the 400 yuan and stopped smiling. She looked at Han Dazhu and Luo Xiujuan solemnly. "Grandpa, Mom, I have something to tell you. Let's go in first!"

The four of them entered the house and closed the door.

Han Dazhu asked worriedly, "What's wrong, girl? Are you still thinking about the Qin family..."

He thought that Qin Xi was in a bad mood because of cutting ties with her family. It made sense. Although those people treated her brutally, they were still her family after all. How could she not be sad?

Qin Xi was silent as she began to prepare to tell the story/lie...

“Grandpa, it’s like this. When I was young, I met a master who taught me many skills. He taught me how to read, medical skills, Qigong, and talismans...”

Before Qin Xi could finish, Han Dazhu’s hand trembled in excitement and his walking stick fell to the ground. He asked impatiently, “Really? You really met a master?”

Luo Xiujuan also looked at Qin Xi expectantly, wanting to hear more from her, but she was puzzled. “Then all these years, you...”

Qin Xi continued, “Mother, do you want to ask me why I endured the Qin family’s bullying all these years instead of using my skills to impress them?”

Luo Xiujuan said what was on her mind. “Yes, if you’re really that capable, they won’t treat you like that, and you won’t have to suffer.”

Qin Xi shook her head and she said, “Do you think that if I revealed my ability, they would stop bullying and abusing me? No, it’d only get worse.”

Han Dazhu nodded in agreement. “You are right. If they knew, they would definitely use you to make money.”

“So... when Qin Feng poisoned me, I beat him at his own game and threatened the Qin family to cut ties with me. In the future, I won’t be obliged to help them.”

Qin Xi looked at Han Dazhu and Luo Xiujuan guiltily. “I’m sorry, Grandpa and Mother. I didn’t tell you about this in advance. I was afraid that you wouldn’t agree to me risking my life, and I wasn’t sure if your acting skills could really fool them... So... I made the decision on my own. I’m sorry!”

Han Dazhu did not expect Qin Xi, a girl who was not even 20 years old, to be able to plan a few moves ahead of others. Although he was indeed angry that she was risking her life, he could understand her intentions.

Seeing that she was sincere in admitting her mistake, Han Dazhu chose to forgive her. Besides, Qin Xi was right. If she really told them the plan in advance, their acts wouldn’t be convincing.

“Girl, we don’t blame you. We only blame the Qin family.”

Luo Xiujian bit her lip, her eyes filled with shock. She felt that her daughter-in-law was too smart. Not only did she fool everyone, but she also made all the villagers stand on her side.

Han Shi did not understand what they were talking about. He sat beside Qin Xi obediently and fiddled with his clothes from time to time, but his eyes were fixed on Qin Xi’s hand.

He thought to himself, “My wife’s hands are really beautiful.”

“What about the poison?” Han Dazhu asked.

Qin Xi said with a smile, “It’s been removed long ago. My plan was to fool Qin Feng and make him anxious. Only then would he freak out and agree to my request.”

The more Han Dazhu looked at Qin Xi, the more satisfied he was with this granddaughter-in-law. “Not bad, not bad! Then what do you plan to do next?”

Qin Xi said seriously, “Grandpa, I plan to ask Doctor Liu to take me in as his student. That way, I can practice my medical skills openly and people won’t gossip about it. What do you think?”

“You’re really thoughtful. However, I wonder what Liu Dequan will think!” Han Dazhu asked worriedly. He more or less knew what kind of a person Liu Dequan was.

Qin Xi said confidently, “Don’t worry, I’ll get him to agree.”
