Chapter 270 Why Did You Ask Me To Come Here

This man looked so young.

Janessa assumed that the boss would be a grey-haired old man. She wasn't expecting to meet such a young man.

"You wanted to see me?"

Hearing what Janessa said, the burly man beside her quickly told her off, "How dare you talk to our boss like that?"

He treated her nicely on the way because Janessa didn't cry or anything. Moreover, she didn't try to run away.

But, that didn't mean she could be rude to his boss.

"David, you may leave now." The man had a rather pleasant voice, and if she was being honest, it seemed to be more enchanting than Rayan's.

It was the kind of voice that could make any woman's heart skip a beat.

If it weren't for Janessa's strong willpower, his voice would have swept her off her feet.

The burly man called David shot daggers at Janessa before leaving with the others.

"Please have a seat. There's no need to be so stiff." The man was fidgeting with something in his hand, and there was a faint smile on the corner of his mouth.

Based on Janessa's experience, people like him were even more dangerous than the ferocious-looking ones.

He looked like the type who would even kill with that gentle smile on.

"Who are you? Did you ask me to come here just for a cup of coffee?" Janessa asked as she looked around and sat on the sofa.

There was a cup of hot coffee served in front of her, but she didn't want to take a sip.

"You're an interesting one, Miss Qiu. No wonder Mr. Feng has fallen head over heels for you." The man looked at Janessa from head to toe. He could tell from a glance that she was an unyielding woman.

At that moment, he couldn't help thinking that Rylan was so lucky to have such a woman.

"Mr. Feng?" Janessa wasn't sure who the man was referring to, but the only man she knew with that last name was Rylan.

Was he talking about Rylan?

If he was really referring to Rylan, then the man in front of her must be Noble, the big shot of Y Country.

Rylan had told her about him on their way here. In fact, the main purpose of their visit to Y Country this time was to talk business with Noble.

For that reason, Rylan had made an appointment to discuss business with Noble today.

Even so, she still felt so confused. Why did Noble ask her to come here?

It was Rylan who wanted to speak to him, not her. Truth be told, she couldn't care less about business whatsoever.

"You're Noble, the famous CEO of Y Country. Would you mind telling me why you brought me here?" Janessa addressed Noble by his name. It seemed that things were going in Janessa's favor.

A hint of surprise flashed across his eyes. He clearly wasn't expecting Janessa to figure out his identity so soon.

"Wow, you really are different," Noble said, nodding his head in approval.

"Being praised by someone like you means a lot. It will be too embarrassing if I don't even hear your name when I get here in Y Country," Janessa buttered him up.

Big shots loved it when people suck up to them, so she didn't mind saying that.

"You don't have to flatter me. Do you know what's gonna happen to you now that your man had offended me?" Suddenly, a serious expression appeared on Noble's face, and he gave Janessa a cold stare.

There was a hint of resentment in his eyes. Although he wasn't really terrifying, he was still intimidating enough.

With confusion written all over her face, Janessa looked at Noble and thought, 'My man offended him?

But, I don't even have a man.' The only man in her life had divorced her, and he had been staying at home all this time.

'Did Rayan do something to offend Noble?

But, that can't be possible. After all, Rayan is far away.

Then, who is he talking about?

He mentioned Mr. Feng just now. Was it Rylan who did something to offend him?'

Thinking of this, Janessa curled her lips and looked at Noble. Even if Rylan had done something to offend him, Noble had no reason to take it out on her. After all, she was not Rylan's girlfriend.

"I think you've got the wrong girl I'm not Rylan's girlfriend."

"Is that so? Miss Qiu, there are some things that you can't deny." Noble looked at Janessa with such disdain. With a single click on his mobile phone, a white curtain appeared in the living room, on which a number of photos were immediately projected.

In the photos, Rylan could be seen having fun with her.

Janessa noticed that these photos of them had been taken in the past two days.

There were even a few deliberately compromising photos of them. From a certain angle, it looked like the two of them were kissing.

But, that couldn't be farther from the truth, because they were actually just talking.

"Is this all?" At first, Janessa thought that Noble was a smart man, but right now, he just looked like a fool to her.

However, if he deliberately said those words, then that could only mean one thing. He had those pictures taken on purpose.

"Of course, these may not be enough, but there are a lot of witnesses who can prove it." Noble stopped projecting, and the living room returned to its original state.

"You ordered your men to bring me here just to talk about this?" Janessa didn't want to argue anymore. Agreeing to Rylan posing as her boyfriend turned out to be a big mistake.

There was no point trying to explain it to Noble at this point, since he probably wouldn't believe her anyway.

"Please relax, Miss Qiu. We have prepared a room upstairs, and that's where you'll be staying for a couple of days. Let's just talk about it later, okay?" After saying that, Noble walked up to Janessa and reached out his hand.

Janessa was confused as to what Noble meant, 'Is he asking me to dance with him? I don't think he's in the mood to be dancing around.'

"Hand over your phone. You won't be needing it anyway since you can't get any signal in here." Before she could say anything, Noble took her phone away.

Janessa thought that struggling was futile. Now that Noble was holding her captive, the best thing for her to do was to comply to his demands.

Making his hackles rise any further wasn't going to help.

"You're a smart woman. Now go to your room, and get some rest," Noble said then left.

A few moments later, a woman came over.

"Miss Qiu, I'm going to show you to your room." The woman led Janessa upstairs.

It was obviously a guest room. However, Noble was so rich that even the guest room looked so fancy.

There were a lot of things inside the room, but the color of the walls gave it such a gloomy aura.

"Miss Qiu, you should have everything you need in this room. But, in case you need anything, just let me know, okay? I'll be at the door." She walked out of the room upon saying that. Now, Janessa was left all by herself.

"This place looks stunning." Janessa took a look around and soon found something in the guest room.

As she expected, there was no way Noble would let her do whatever she pleased in this room. After looking around for a while, Janessa found that there were at least five cameras hidden inside the room.

Although the cameras were not in plain sight, Janessa still managed to find them.

She believed if she checked everything carefully, she should be able to find more cameras.

Suddenly, Janessa wondered if there was also a camera set up in the guest room's bathroom.

So, she went to the bathroom to check.

Fortunately, Noble was not a sicko.

If he would keep an eye on Janessa even when she was taking a shower, she would really despise him.
