Home / Romance / Bye, My Ex-husband

Chapter 272 Play A Game With You

"Isn't there any earlier flight?" Rayan couldn't wait any longer. He wanted to appear in Y Country right now.

"No, it's already twelve o'clock at noon." Corbin had no choice but to postpone the flight in order to cater to the meeting.

"Now you can trace the position of Janessa's mobile phone on the computer. I want the specific information." Then Rayan stood up and went to the meeting room.

Janessa was very important, but it would take at least twelve hours for the plane to arrive there. He had to deal with everything at hand.

The meeting ended soon. Without any other people's further analysis, he directly gave tomorrow's key work and quarterly targets.

In this way, he let the other people discuss and then ended the meeting.

Zeke, an old shareholder of the Lu Group and the best friend of Rayan, stopped Rayan who was about to leave.

"Rayan, I have something to ask you." Zeke said with a simple smile.

Zeke was a senior employee of the Lu Group. Many people always gave advice to Rayan's decisions based on their seniority.

However, Zeke was different. Although sometimes he didn't understand some decisions of Rayan, he would only ask Rayan in private. Just like now, the first half of the meeting was still good. The second half suddenly sped up, directly putting forward the final direction and goal.

Although these two things were not wrong, there must be something wrong.

"Zeke, what do you want to say?" Rayan had expected his question, so Rayan didn't leave in a hurry.

Now there was no one else in the meeting room, so the two of them casually sat on the sofa behind them and talked.

"Although there is no problem with your target and direction, is there anything wrong causing you to leave in such a hurry?" Zeke asked this question for the sake of Rayan.

Rayan didn't want others to know the matter of Janessa, so he didn't tell Zeke directly.

"Yes, I have something to do, but please forgive me for the details. I can't tell you." Said Rayan calmly.

Although he looked calm on the surface, he was anxious in his heart. He didn't know where Janessa was now.

He didn't know what the kidnappers had done to Janessa.

"Well, since it's not convenient for you to tell me, I won't ask. You can tell me when you want to say." Zeke smiled kindly, patting on Rayan's shoulder, and left.

Following Zeke, Rayan went back to his office.

"Have you found out anything?" As soon as he came back, he asked Corbin about the progress. Standing behind him, Rayan frowned even more.

Corbin shook his head. He had tried many ways but failed to find it. He had even used his friends, but none of them could find anything.

"Normally, it's easy to locate Miss Qiu. But this time, it's obvious that she has turned off the positioning system. I can't find her for the time being. " Corbin also felt helpless.

When Rylan first came here, every time he went out, Rayan asked Corbin to investigate Janessa's mobile phone location. That was why Rayan had appeared in time every time.

But now the situation was different. Maybe Janessa really didn't want others to know where she was.

This was terrible.

"It's one o'clock now. You can continue to investigate here and tell me when you find it out." Rayan rushed to the airport. On the way to the airport, Rayan was also trying to find the location of Janessa's mobile phone, but in the end, he couldn't.

"Why does she turn off the GPS? Why couldn't she do something right?" As he cursed, Rayan continued to investigate her location.

He didn't find any clue until he got on the plane.

What should he do?

Janessa, who was in Y Country far away, didn't know that the man she had always wanted to stay away from was on the way to Y

Country.

This experience was destined to be unusual.

The place where Janessa was located was good except that she couldn't go out or surf the Internet, and even she was monitored.

Janessa didn't want to escape. After all, it was impossible for her to escape. She just wanted to see what the hell Noble was going to do.

She hadn't been back for a long time. If Rylan returned to the hotel, he would find out.

But would he know that she had been caught by Noble?

If Rayan were here, it might not be so difficult.

Janessa didn't realize that she was living under the influence of Rayan.

The dinner was brought here by a servant, and Janessa didn't care if it would be poisoned. She was still useful to Noble. She believed that Noble would only hope her to be alive and didn't want her to go on hunger strike.

So, when the servant brought the food here, she gulped it down. After eating, she raised the empty bowl in the direction of the camera.

With a smile, Janessa opened the door and handed it to the servant waiting at the door.

Then she washed her face and went to bed.

Sitting in front of the monitor, Noble and David could not help but feel surprised.

David pointed at the camera and said, "She knows there are cameras in that room, and we are looking at her."

Noble was also surprised, but he didn't say anything.

This woman was getting more and more interesting.

Suddenly, Janessa's phone rang. Noble took a look at the caller ID and pressed the answer key.

"Janessa, where are you? Why didn't you answer my phone? " Rylan's voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Mr. Feng, long time no see!" Noble didn't hide his voice. He was telling Rylan that Janessa was in his hand.

But Noble had many bases in Y Country, so no one knew where he would be.

So even if Rylan knew Janessa was in Noble's hands, it was useless.

"Noble, what do you want? I'm the one who has a grudge against you. Let go of Janessa. " Rylan didn't expect that Janessa would be involved in this matter because he had taken Janessa out for sightseeing.

This was the last thing he wanted to see.

"Mr. Feng, I want to play a game with you. I'll wait for you at the N Wharf at five o'clock tomorrow afternoon. If you don't come, you will lose. " As the leader of a group, Noble was looked down upon by Rylan.

But it was not difficult for Noble to kill Rylan in Y Country.

The Feng family had a business in Y Country. Otherwise, it was impossible for them to live till now.

"Let her go. I won't play any game with you. She is not my bet. "

"It's not up to you, but me." After saying that, Noble hung up the phone.