Chapter 301 Leave Rayan

The coffee shop on the street was basically empty when Janessa arrived.

It didn't take too long for Janessa to find the person she was looking for.

Upon noticing her, the waiter came over and asked, "Hello, what can I do for you?"

"No, thanks. I'm meeting someone." Janessa gestured for the waiter to leave. Then, she walked towards the person she was going to meet.

"Miss Leng, long time no see," Janessa greeted Courtney. Then, she took off her shawl and sat across her.

When Janessa was in the office, Courtney called her from out of the blue and asked if they could meet at a cafe.

They hadn't really been in touch for quite some time. Something must have happened for Courtney to call Janessa all of a sudden. Although Janessa didn't really care about what Courtney was up to, she still agreed to meet with her.

When Janessa got there, Courtney was leaning against the sofa. She looked so elegant and effortlessly stood out even though she was just casually sitting there.

Even for an actress, Courtney exuded a different kind of elegance.

Courtney took off her sunglasses coldly and looked Janessa straight in the eye. Then, without beating around the bush, she said, "I heard that you went abroad with Rayan recently."

Her cold voice made Janessa's flesh crawl.

However, Janessa remembered that Courtney had been involved with Rayan in the past.

righteous people the most. Despite everything, she had quite a good impression of Courtney.

Courtney had warned Janessa before not to fall for him. Unfortunately, Janessa couldn't control her emotions.

However, after what had happened today, she wasn't sure anymore.

"It's none of my business? Didn't you promise me that you wouldn't get close to Rayan? It seems that you've forgotten all about it." Courtney didn't bother trying to hide her displeasure.

The reason why Courtney had helped Janessa to deal with Gracie was because she had thought that Janessa didn't have feelings for Rayan. It had only been a few months, but the situation seemed to have changed.

Janessa and Rayan had been married for three years, but they were never really in love with each other. How could they suddenly fall for each other a few months after having a divorce?

Courtney didn't think it could be possible, but now it seemed that it really was the case.

"Miss Leng, Rayan is my boss. Apart from that, I have nothing to do with him. This is not a violation of our agreement." Janessa hadn't forgotten about her agreement with Courtney. Although she almost broke it at one point, Rayan didn't seem to be interested in her. Therefore, Courtney didn't really have anything to worry about.

"Don't bother trying to deny it." Under the light, Courtney's chest was heaving heavily, as if she had been betrayed.

At that moment, Courtney took out an envelope and threw it in front of Janessa.

That was the reason why Courtney was getting bent out of shape.

With confusion written all over her face, Janessa opened the envelope and took out a pile of photos. In the photos, Rayan could either be seen taking care of Janessa or being taken care of by Janessa.

Among all the photos, there was one that struck Janessa the most. In that photo, Janessa sat on the bed, while Rayan sat on the chair on the bedside. His eyes were full of tenderness as he looked at Janessa, and he was being very gentle. So much so, that it almost seemed as if he was afraid that he might hurt Janessa.

This scene happened on the first day when her back got injured. Judging from angle of the photo, Janessa could tell that it was

There shouldn't be any camera inside the ward, but the person who took the photo must have been very close to them. How did

The other photos were taken from afar, but this one had clearly been taken from up close.

Based on the time the photo was taken, it must have been Gracie's handiwork.

At that moment, Gracie was sitting right across Janessa, so she was the only one who had the chance to take the photo from that surroundings, because Rayan was the only thing on her mind.

Janessa couldn't remember exactly what had happened at that time. After all, she wasn't really paying attention to her

If all those women came after Janessa, then Gracie could just sit back and watch while Janessa was suffering.

But, why did Gracie secretly take a photo? Did Gracie intend to make all the women who liked Rayan despise Janessa?

"Miss Leng, I feel sorry for you. You don't even realize that someone had set you up." Janessa put the photos down on the table with an apathetic look on her face.

"Set me up? Whether someone set me up or not, I'm gonna get back at you now. Do you think you can do whatever you want just because Rayan looked after you for a couple of days? You and Rayan live in different worlds. Only I can give him the things that he need. The only thing you're good at is taking care of some documents in the office. What can you do to help him further his career?

I can do everything you can't. Rayan only belongs to me. Don't even think you can take him away from me,"

Courtney said in a furious tone, unable to take it anymore.

Courtney in utter disbelief. At first, Courtney treated her nicely, hoping that it would get her closer to Rayan.

One way to make a person give up was to make them feel small. By doing this, Courtney could completely kill Janessa's confidence.

"Miss Leng, if you really know what to do, you wouldn't have gone to the trouble of meeting me here now." Janessa looked at

All this time, Courtney had been focused on thinking about how to drive other women away from Rayan when she should have been thinking about how to make him fall for her instead.

Although Courtney and Rayan had gone out in public before, people quickly forgot about it.

Janessa had never really heard Rayan mention Courtney before, not even once.

That was the only time they were seen in public together. After that, Courtney never got the opportunity to be with Rayan again.

On the other hand, since Janessa was Rayan's assistant, she could be seen spending more time with him even though she didn't really want it.

No wonder Courtney was so pissed off.

Thinking of this, Janessa couldn't help feeling sorry for Courtney. Being a woman herself, she could sympathize with how Courtney was feeling.

"Take this, and stay away from Rayan." Courtney put down a piece of paper on the table, on which some words were written in print.

Even so, she had no reason to do anything for Courtney.
